Fails to Condemn the County Jail and Thinks It Will Do.

SEVENTY INDICTMENTS FOUND

But Only Those Against Jail Prisoners Have Been Made Public.

PRAISE FOR THE SHERIFF

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Among the indictments returned by the grand jury are the following jail cases:

Marcus L. Mowery, of Leetonia, shooting Uriah Nold with intent to kill and wound.

John Brown, burglary and larceny; charged with entering the house of Charles McKenzie and stealing personal property to the amount of $68.25, belonging to Frank Weigle.

David Locke and Allen Anderson, Lisbon, burglary and larceny; charged with entering the saloon of Martin Welch, Lisbon, and stealing a lot of cigars.

Nick Murray, larceny; charged with stealing two bottles of whisky valued at $3 from Louis Groubart and Henry Berthel, East Liverpool.

Frank Miller, assault and battery; charged with menacing Pearl Eells, a 12-year-old Lisbon girl.

After a session of three days, the grand jury finished its work yesterday afternoon, made its report at 5 o'clock and was discharged. This jury made a remarkable record. It did not condemn the jail. Following is the report:

"To the honorable court of common pleas of Columbiana county, Ohio: This grand jury was impaneled Monday, April 13, 1903, and after instructions from the court proceeded to investigate the cases presented by Prosecutor J. H. Brooks. We investigated 78 cases, examined 86 witnesses, ignored 8 cases and found 70 indictments.

"In accordance with instruction from his honor, Judge Hole, we have visited the jail and find rules and regulations posted, and the jail corridor, kitchen, cells, etc., in a clean and well kept condition. We would recommend a better system of lighting and heating the building, which in our judgment will be sufficient to make the building more comfortable.

"We do not condemn the jail but when kept clean, as we find it under the supervision of Sheriff C. P. Leonard, wife and deputies, we find it to answer all present needs.

"J. F. MQUEEN, Foreman."

FOUR PETITIONS FILED IN COURT

F. W. Miller, of This City, Sues W. H. Thomas For $537 and Interest.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Four more petitions were placed on the court files yesterday afternoon. Frederick W. Miller, of East Liverpool, brings suit against William H. Thomas for $537.84 with interest from April 1, 1903, held to be due on account for labor and bakery supplies, which the plaintiff claims the defendant has refused to pay him. G. Y. Travis, of East Liverpool, is the plaintiff's attorney.

The village of New Waterford, through its attorney, J. F. Johnston, has brought an action to replevin six large dressed stones which were used as moving stones in the old bridge over Bull Creek in that village and are alleged to be now unlawfully in the possession of one J. A. Benzenkofer. The stones are valued at $27.50.

John Phillips, of Salem, has been bound over to court in the sum of $200 from Justice Kerr's court in Salem on a charge preferred by Dollie Shasteen.

James M. Garside has begun foreclosure proceedings against Jane Holt, of Washington township. A mortgage was given by the defendant to William Garside in 1886, on 44 of an acre of which $78.58 remains unpaid with interest from February 25, 1894. William Garside assigned the mortgage to the plaintiff who now asks judgment for the amount unpaid.

Man Accused of Stealing a Horse at Inverness Taken Into Custody.

Salineville, April 16.—(Special).—Officer Higgins, of this town, made an arrest this morning of the supposed horse thief, who last week made away with a valuable animal, the property of Alex Farsman, of Inverness.

The man has been in the neighborhood since the night the horse disappeared and tried to sell the animal to three different farmers. He had been at the home of Ellsworth Miller, five miles from here since Tuesday. The suspect was lodged in the town jail pending a hearing.

STRIKERS WILL GET SUPPORT

Trades Council's Committee on Grievance and Arbitration

INSTRUCTED TO PROCEED

Although more than two weeks have passed since the building trades went on strike it was not until last night that the Trades and Labor Council took up the matter. When the council was organized at its last meeting the newly elected president, George B. M. Beatty, who, by the way, is a member of one of the trades effected, had contemplated appointing one standing committee, that designated as the committee on grievance and arbitration, but reconsidered the matter at the last minute. Mr. Beatty is a very careful official, and it is now thought that he desired to wait until all the affected trades had been given a chance to get the work started in their own behalf before bringing it to the attention of the central body. In this he had the approval of all conservative unionists, and at the same time created a good feeling among the people generally, for favorable public sentiment is absolutely necessary in labor disputes.

At the meeting last night every trade was recognized, and the conditions for which they are now fighting will be carefully weighed by the new grievance committee. This latter body, consisting of five members, has been very carefully selected, and it is confidently expected it will be able to render valuable aid to the strikers.

A number of new delegates were seated at the meeting and the attendance was good. President Beatty and his able corps of officers were encouraged and the prospects are bright for a prosperous and successful year.

A communication was received from the New York electotypers' union acknowledging the receipt of a donation and asking that letters be written to 11 firms who are patronizing the unfair United States Printing company. The request will be complied with.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to revise the constitution, reported progress. It hoped to have a full report ready for the next meeting.

Those in charge of the arrangements for the labor lecture next Monday night report good progress, and that there was every indication of a large turnout.

Under the head of new business President Beatty announced the following standing committees:

Organization—Charles Contnler, J. J. Weisend, J. E. Anderson.
Legislation—Crisis McConnell, Geo. Mulligan, William Cope.
Union Label—Henry Schreiber, U. E. Price, William Conklin.

Credentials—Henry Moore, Arthur White, George Eisenhuth.

Grievance and Arbitration—William Pittenger, A. C. Coleman, Timothy Hickey, J. W. Martin, A. E. Bertele.

Labor Day Picnic—Charles Contnler, J. R. Reark, Thomas Collins, J. J. Weisend, P. J. McKeone, Harry Newman.

Auxiliary Picnic Committee—Miss Margaret Fife, Miss Viola Evans, Miss Edna Lucas.

President Beatty outlined a few additional duties which several of the committees, ought, in his judgment, to take up.

A member of the board of directors of the co-operative store reported that an attempt was being made to prevent the management of the store from purchasing goods from certain wholesalers. The movement was in the

FINE HORSES ARE CREMATED

Vandergrift Stables at Wellsburg Burned by Incendiaries.

THE FAST MARE EDNA COOK

Formerly Owned by C. A. Smith, of This City, Among the Stock Burned.

TWO MEN SET THE FIRE

For the third time within a year dastardly incendiaries have undertaken the destruction of either the palatial residence or stables of Millionaire J. B. Vandergrift at his magnificent country home, near Wellsburg, W. Va. Last night they were discovered in the act of setting fire to the stables. The buildings were totally destroyed, together with a dozen blooded animals, one of which, Edna Cook, was formerly owned by C. A. Smith, and which was sold to Vandergrift for $4,000.

The fire occurred at about 10 o'clock. The fire was preparing for bed when they saw a blaze shoot from one of the windows of the center stable, and simultaneously they saw two figures, one that of a tall man and the other of a short man, running with great speed from the stable entrance. They made their way over the hills in the neighborhood and were soon lost to view in the darkness. The grooms ran at once to the rescue of the stock, opened the doors of the burning stable and permitted as many of them to escape as could get away. There were at least 20 fine blooded animals in the stable.

From all appearances the blaze was started in the manger of Mrs. Vandergrift's favorite horse. The culprits were evidently familiar with the surroundings and the contents of the harm. Why any one should wish to destroy the palatial residence and its surroundings is not known by any members of the Vandergrift household. They know of no one so despicable that has a grudge against them.

About two months ago the miscreants burned another stable in which there were some valuable horses destroyed, and on October 17 last an attempt was made to destroy the residence. It is said that Mr. Vandergrift will employ detectives on the case and run the cowardly beings to earth.

Edna Cook, the horse so well known in this city, was one of the finest the country has ever produced. She has made a mile in 2:07 and had a mark of 2:12. She was conceded to be the prettiest animal that ever stepped on the American turf. Her only fault was that she would invariably lose her head in a race, and it was for that reason that she was sold by C. A. Smith.

RAILROAD TO SALEM AND TO MINERVA

Routes for Extensions of the Lisbon & Western Have Been Fixed.

The route for the extension of the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western railroad from Lisbon to Minerva has been fixed. It is 22½ miles long. It will run to Coleman, near to Guilford, south of New Garden, nearly touching Adair.

From the junction opposite Coleman the Salem spur will follow the west side of the Beaver valley through Teegarden to the vicinity of Franklin Square and then along a branch of the Beaver creek to Salem, crossing the Fort Wayne road on an overhead bridge about a mile east of Salem. The Salem spur will be eight miles long. The company's bonds will aggregate $8,000,000. These extensions will cost about $1,500,000.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT IN THE MEREDITH CASE

General Revenue Collector Frank McCord arrived in the city at noon today, and with several of his assistants is making a final settlement in the Meredith case.

It is impossible to obtain details as to the basis of the settlement, but it is known that the case has been compromised and that Meredith will pay to the government through Collector McCord the sum of $15,000.

When the formalities have been gone

STONE MASONS ARE ALL WORKING

HAVE SUCCEEDED IN SECURING A QUARRY.

In Spite of Efforts Against Them They Get All the Stone They Want.

The members of the stone masons' union, who went on strike April 1, are all steadily employed. A few are working in this city, some have secured positions with Wellsville contractors, and several have gone to points down the river. Word has been received from the latter class, and it contained the information that all had obtained employment without difficulty.

The men who remained in the city are working upon individual contracts and not a few are engaged with the contracting firms who have signed the scale. Coleman & Dickey have formed a partnership, and were the first to sign the scale. Later George D. Culbertson was taken into the fold, his decision being purely voluntary. These firms are working increased forces, and work is very plentiful. One of the strikers said last evening:

"The stone contractors have endeavored to work the same game on our men that the boss carpenters had tried, but met the same fate. Our bosses attempted to sew up the owners of every stone quarry in this vicinity, and thought they had done so, but we were one too many for them. Stephen Hague, one of our men, knew a thing or two, and before the monopolists were aware of it, he had secured control of one of the best producing quarries to be found in this section of the state. In a remarkably short time Mr. Hague had obtained the contract for upwards of a dozen cellars, and has been very busy ever since."

As matters are now situated, the men say they are indifferent as to the outcome of the controversy, as all are receiving as much work as they can do, and in every case are receiving the scale and working the hours demanded from the East Liverpool contractors. Should the latter conclude to sign up and adjust the troubles it is thought no end of annoyance will be occasioned in securing men. The strikers who have now succeeded in locating in good positions state they will not leave their present berths under any circumstances, so it is likely the local contractors will be compelled to go elsewhere for their men.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED BY COURT

An East Liverpool Woman and a Wellsville Husband Separate From Their Partners.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Two more divorces were granted by Judge Hole yesterday afternoon. Carmine Bonidia, a Wellsville Italian, was separated from Nelie Bonidia. They were married in East Liverpool January 6, 1898, and have no children. The husband charged habitual drunkenness and unfaithfulness, naming one Joseph Tocal as co-respondent.

Cornelia Green, of East Liverpool, was divorced from Emory Green and her maiden name was restored. On March 19, 1895, she was married to the defendant, who, she alleged in her petition, had been wilfully absent from her for more than three years. She also charged that he had refused to support her for seven years prior to the filing of the petition, nearly a year ago, and that she had to earn her own living and depend upon the charity of friends. They have no children. H. E. Grosshans was plaintiff's attorney.

Licensed to Wed.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Thurman W. Schisler, of West Austintown, and Miss Stella Storr, of Leetonia; Hans Swenington, of Salem, and Miss Pearl R. Glass, of North Georgetown, have been licensed to marry.

AGED VETERAN HIT BY ENGINE

William Hahn Narrowly Missed Being Run Over and Killed.

HE IS A FEEBLE OLD MAN

HIS INJURIES VERY SERIOUS

As the result of a distressing accident, William Hahn, a veteran of the Civil war, aged about 76 years, lies at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Eisenhuth, Avondale street, suffering intense pain and in what is thought to be a very precarious condition. He was struck by the pony engine in front of the passenger depot at 8 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Hahn is one of the best known residents of the city. He has long been a citizen of East Liverpool and was known to be a hard working and industrious man until impaired health made it necessary for him to cease active life. When he became so poorly several years ago he applied for admission to the soldiers' home at Dayton, and being readily accepted, remained there until recently. He returned to the city to spend the remainder of his days with relatives. Ever since his return he has been a familiar personage on the street and invariably attracted attention by his infirm appearance. This morning he was out for his daily exercise and wandered down to the depot.

While standing on the platform close to the edge it is thought he became dazed upon the approach of the pony engine, which was being used in switching freight cars, and without giving any apparent sign of falling reeled forward toward the track where he was struck with terrific force by some part of the engine.

The engineer states that he did not see him. Strange to say, instead of falling alongside the track he fell in a heap on the platform. H. E. Pitcher, an employee of the Adams Express company, was the first to discover the prostrate man. He gently picked him up and carried him into the express office, then summoned the ambulance. Officers Morley and Woods answered the call and conveyed the injured man to his home. A close examination was made of the injuries sustained and his face was found to be badly cut in several places, his lower limbs severely sprained and other parts of his body painfully bruised. It is thought that owing to his age and infirmities, he will experience a battle if he recovers.

VERY UNPROFITABLE TRADE IN HORSES

BROTHERS FALL OUT AFTER THE DEAL IS COMPLETED.

Going to Law the Plaintiff, Who Lost His Horse, Gets Five Cents Damages.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—The case of Walter Hoopes against Malcolm C. Hoopes, of Butler township, in which a jury trial was waived, occupied the court's attention most of yesterday and resulted in the award of 5 cents damages to the plaintiff. The case resulted from a dispute over a horse trade between brothers. The plaintiff claimed that under the agreement his brother was to give him 46 days' work as "boot," but a few days after the bargain learned that Malcolm said he would give 5 days' work only. That night he returned to Malcolm's stable the horse he got from him and took away the one he had traded. Walter was made defendant in a replevin suit, but the justice's court, in which action was brought having no jurisdiction, dismissed the case. The bond given by the plaintiff in that action was the basis of the present action for damages.

The question before court was whether the brothers had been of one mind on the agreement, and the court held that they had. The horse left by Walter Hoopes in Malcolm's stable was sold by the latter for its keeping. Walter lost his horse and got nothing out of the trade.

THE CAR RAN AWAY AND JUMPED THE TRACK

The Nancy Hanks Crew Had a Wild Ride, But Escaped Unhurt.

As the result of the brakes on the repair car of the East Liverpool and Wellsville line refusing to work while the car was descending the Franklin street hill at 2 o'clock this afternoon the car ran away and jumped the track just after it had crossed the Horn switch, bumping with great velocity into the hill on the northside.

The car was partially wrecked, but the crew escaped without a scratch. John Hughes, motorman, Wade Holder, Ralph Brothers, Dan Gorley and Vincent Conkle were on the car.

A FEW HINTS TO VOTERS

Although interest in the voting contest continues great, Series B coupons ought to be coming in faster than they are at present. It is to be hoped that nobody is purposely holding them back until he can send in a large batch. Little and often counts as much in the end as big bunches far apart. And it lends interest to the contest and facilitates the counting to have even a few votes added daily to the candidate's total. All Series B coupons will be invalid at the close of the present month, and the last half of April is already here. Let the votes come in early and often. Then you stand no chance of losing them.

An old subscriber writes from Kansas: "I am very glad to see the evidence of popular interest in the prize offered made by the News Review. It is certainly a remarkably liberal offer, and all readers of the News Review doubtless appreciate it as such. You have a grand paper in East Liverpool now. When I lived there the dailies were little five-column apologies for newspapers that I was almost ashamed to send to friends away from home. Man your prosperity continue. ## RESTING AT THE SPRINGS

WILLING TO GIVE OPINIONS

In Case He Should Be Asked For Them, and They May Be Interesting.

LATEST POLITICAL GOSSIP

Dr. R. J. Marshall left at noon today for Cambridge Springs, Pa. He has been troubled for the past few days with a severe cold, the same malady that caused Mayor-elect Weaver to go to the springs. It will be remembered that Mr. Weaver, upon the advice of his physician, left the city several days ago. Dr. Marshall is not his regular medical adviser.

It is possible that the mayor-elect and the physician may meet at the springs and talk over the affairs of this municipality. This is always an interesting subject to the latter, who has been a prominent member of council for a number of years. The mayor-elect, prior to the recent campaign, had not been active in public affairs. When he assumes the duties of the chief executive of the city on the first Monday in May he will have undertaken a task stupendous for a beginner. The city will be governed by a new and untried code of law, many changes will be made among the officeholders, and, if Mr. Weaver carries out the platform of the party by which he was nominated, there will be a radical change.

If Dr. Marshall cares to talk Mr. Weaver ought to be an attentive listener. In his campaign for the Republican mayoralty nomination, Dr. Marshall announced, as his platform, "that dives should be abolished and their keepers made to obey the law." He certainly had hopes of winning the nomination and doubtless had pondered over how to make his declaration effective in case of his election. Just how he would have done so may be of great interest to Mr. Weaver.

There are people in the city who state authoritatively that Dr. Marshall's opinions and advice will be given a great deal of consideration by Mr. Weaver. Dr. Marshall may have preferences in the selection of chief of police, members of the board of public safety and other appointments within Mr. Weaver's power to make. If he has it is more than likely that Mr. Weaver will hear of it while they are both recuperating at the springs. It is pretty generally known in political circles that had Dr. Marshall been nominated and elected mayor, ex-Sheriff Charles Gill would have been his chief of police. It is not unreasonable to presume that, in the event of appointments being discussed, he will say a good word for his favorite.

From the junction opposite Coleman the Salem spur will follow the west side of the Beaver valley through Teegarden to the vicinity of Franklin Square and then along a branch of the Beaver creek to Salem, crossing the Fort Wayne road on an overhead bridge about a mile east of Salem. The Salem spur will be eight miles long. The company's bonds will aggregate $8,000,000. These extensions will cost about $1,500,000.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT IN THE MEREDITH CASE

General Revenue Collector Frank McCord arrived in the city at noon today, and with several of his assistants is making a final settlement in the Meredith case.

STONE MASONS ARE ALL WORKING

HAVE SUCCEEDED IN SECURING A QUARRY.

In Spite of Efforts Against Them They Get All the Stone They Want.

The members of the stone masons' union, who went on strike April 1, are all steadily employed. A few are working in this city, some have secured positions with Wellsville contractors, and several have gone to points down the river. Word has been received from the latter class, and it contained the information that all had obtained employment without difficulty.

The men who remained in the city are working upon individual contracts and not a few are engaged with the contracting firms who have signed the scale. Coleman & Dickey have formed a partnership, and were the first to sign the scale. Later George D. Culbertson was taken into the fold, his decision being purely voluntary. These firms are working increased forces, and work is very plentiful. One of the strikers said last evening:

"The stone contractors have endeavored to work the same game on our men that the boss carpenters had tried, but met the same fate. Our bosses attempted to sew up the owners of every stone quarry in this vicinity, and thought they had done so, but we were one too many for them. Stephen Hague, one of our men, knew a thing or two, and before the monopolists were aware of it, he had secured control of one of the best producing quarries to be found in this section of the state. In a remarkably short time Mr. Hague had obtained the contract for upwards of a dozen cellars, and has been very busy ever since."

As matters are now situated, the men say they are indifferent as to the outcome of the controversy, as all are receiving as much work as they can do, and in every case are receiving the scale and working the hours demanded from the East Liverpool contractors. Should the latter conclude to sign up and adjust the troubles it is thought no end of annoyance will be occasioned in securing men. The strikers who have now succeeded in locating in good positions state they will not leave their present berths under any circumstances, so it is likely the local contractors will be compelled to go elsewhere for their men.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED BY COURT

An East Liverpool Woman and a Wellsville Husband Separate From Their Partners.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Two more divorces were granted by Judge Hole yesterday afternoon. Carmine Bonidia, a Wellsville Italian, was separated from Nellie Bonidia. They were married in East Liverpool January 6, 1898, and have no children. The husband charged habitual drunkenness and unfaithfulness, naming one Joseph Tocal as co-respondent.

Cornelia Green, of East Liverpool, was divorced from Emory Green and her maiden name was restored. On March 19, 1895, she was married to the defendant, who, she alleged in her petition, had been wilfully absent from her for more than three years. She also charged that he had refused to support her for seven years prior to the filing of the petition, nearly a year ago, and that she had to earn her own living and depend upon the charity of friends. They have no children. H. E. Grosshans was plaintiff's attorney.

Licensed to Wed.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Thurman W. Schisler, of West Austintown, and Miss Stella Storr, of Leetonia; Hams Sweningson, of Salem, and Miss Pearl R. Glass, of North Georgetown, have been licensed to marry.

AGED VETERAN HIT BY ENGINE

HE IS A FEEBLE OLD MAN

HIS INJURIES VERY SERIOUS

As the result of a distressing accident, William Hahn, a veteran of the Civil war, aged about 70 years, lies at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Eisenhuth, Avondale street, suffering intense pain and in what is thought to be a very precarious condition. He was struck by the pony engine in front of the passenger depot at 8 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Hahn is one of the best known residents of the city. He has long been a citizen of East Liverpool and was known to be a hard working and industrious man until impaired health made it necessary for him to cease active life. When he became so poorly several years ago he applied for admission to the soldiers' home at Dayton, and being readily accepted, remained there until recently. He returned to the city to spend the remainder of his days with relatives. Ever since his return he has been a familiar personage on the street and invariably attracted attention by his infirm appearance. This morning he was out for his daily exercise and wandered down to the depot.

While standing on the platform close to the edge it is thought he became dazed upon the approach of the pony engine, which was being used in switching freight cars, and without giving any apparent sign of falling reeled forward toward the track where he was struck with terrific force by some part of the engine.

The engineer states that he did not see him. Strange to say, instead of falling alongside the track he fell in a heap on the platform. H. E. Pitcher, an employee of the Adams Express company, was the first to discover the prostrate man. He gently picked him up and carried him into the express office, then summoned the ambulance. Officers Morley and Woods answered the call and conveyed the injured man to his home. A close examination was made of the injuries sustained and his face was found to be badly cut in several places, his lower limbs severely sprained and other parts of his body painfully bruised. It is thought that, owing to his age and infirmities, he will experience a battle if he recovers.

VERY UNPROFITABLE TRADE IN HORSES

BROTHERS FALL OUT AFTER THE DEAL IS COMPLETED.

Going to Law the Plaintiff, Who Lost His Horse, Gets Five Cents Damages.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—The case of Walter Hoopes against Malcolm C. Hoopes, of Butler township, in which a jury trial was waived, occupied the court's attention most of yesterday and resulted in the award of 5 cents damages to the plaintiff. The case resulted from a dispute over a horse trade between brothers. The plaintiff claimed that under the agreement his brother was to give him 46 days' work as "boot," but a few days after the bargain learned that Malcolm said he would give 5 days' work only. That night he returned to Malcolm's stable the horse he got from him and took away the one he had traded. Walter was made defendant in a replevin suit, but the justice's court, in which action was brought having no jurisdiction, dismissed the case. The bond given by the plaintiff in that action was the basis of the present action for damages.

The question before court was whether the brothers had been of one mind on the agreement, and the court held that they had. The horse left by Walter Hoopes in Malcolm's stable was sold by the latter for its keeping. Walter lost his horse and got nothing out of the trade.

The Nancy Hanks Crew Had a Wild Ride, But Escaped Unhurt.

As the result of the brakes on the repair car of the East Liverpool and Wellsville line refusing to work while the car was descending the Franklin street hill at 2 o'clock this afternoon the car ran away and jumped the track just after it had crossed the Horn switch, bumping with great velocity into the hill on the north side.

The car was partially wrecked, but the crew escaped without a scratch. John Hughes, motorman, Wade Holder, Ralph Brothers, Dan Gorley and Vincent Conkle were on the car.

A FEW HINTS TO VOTERS

Although interest in the voting contest continues great, Series B coupons ought to be coming in faster than they are at present. It is to be hoped that nobody is purposely holding them back until he can send in a large batch. Little and often counts as much in the end as big bunches far apart. And it lends interest to the contest and facilitates the counting to have even a few votes added daily to the candidate's total. All Series B coupons will be invalid at the close of the present month, and the last half of April is already here. Let the votes come in early and often. Then you stand no chance of losing them.

An old subscriber writes from Kansas: "I am very glad to see the evidence of popular interest in the prize offers made by the News Review. It is certainly a remarkably liberal offer, and all readers of the News Review doubtless appreciate it as such. You have a grand paper in East Liverpool now. When I lived there the dailies were little five-column apologies for newspapers that I was almost ashamed to send to friends away from home. May your prosperity continue, I send a few coupons for an old friend, and will send more."

RESTING AT THE SPRINGS

WILLING TO GIVE OPINIONS

In Case He Should Be Asked For Them, and They May Be Interesting.

LATEST POLITICAL GOSSIP

Dr. R. J. Marshall left at noon today for Cambridge Springs, Pa. He has been troubled for the past few days with a severe cold, the same malady that caused Mayor-elect Weaver to go to the springs. It will be remembered that Mr. Weaver, upon the advice of his physician, left the city several days ago. Dr. Marshall is not his regular medical adviser.

It is possible that the mayor-elect and the physician may meet at the springs and talk over the affairs of this municipality. This is always an interesting subject to the latter, who has been a prominent member of council for a number of years. The mayor-elect, prior to the recent campaign, had not been active in public affairs. When he assumes the duties of the chief executive of the city on the first Monday in May he will have undertaken a task stupendous for a beginner. The city will be governed by a new and untried code of law, many changes will be made among the officeholders, and, if Mr. Weaver carries out the platform of the party by which he was nominated, there will be a radical change.

If Dr. Marshall cares to talk Mr. Weaver ought to be an attentive listener. In his campaign for the Republican mayoralty nomination, Dr. Marshall announced, as his platform, "that dives should be abolished and their keepers made to obey the law." He certainly had hopes of winning the nomination and doubtless had pondered over how to make his declaration effective in case of his election. Just how he would have done so may be of great interest to Mr. Weaver.

There are people in the city who state authoritatively that Dr. Marshall's opinions and advice will be given a great deal of consideration by Mr. Weaver. Dr. Marshall may have preferences in the selection of chief of police, members of the board of public safety and other appointments within Mr. Weaver's power to make. If he has it is more than likely that Mr. Weaver will hear of it while they are both recuperating at the springs. It is pretty generally known in political circles that had Dr. Marshall been nominated and elected mayor, ex-Sheriff Charles Gill would have been his chief of police. It is not unreasonable to presume that, in the event of appointments being discussed, he will say a good word for his favorite.

GRAND JURY
BEATS RECORD*Fails to Condemn the County
Jail and Thinks It
Will Do.*SEVENTY INDICTMENTS FOUND*But Only Those Against Jail Prisoners Have Been Made Public.*PRAISE FOR THE SHERIFF

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Among the indictments returned by the grand jury are the following jail cases: Marcus L. Mowery, of Leontonia, shooting Uriah Nold with intent to kill and wound.

John Brown, burglary and larceny; charged with entering the house of Charles McKenzie and stealing personal property to the amount of $65.25, belonging to Frank Weigle.

David Locke and Allen Anderson, Lisbon, burglary and larceny; charged with entering the saloon of Martin Welch, Lisbon, and stealing a lot of cigars.

Nick Murray, larceny; charged with stealing two bottles of whisky valued at $3 from Louis Groubairt and Henry Berthel, East Liverpool.

Frank Miller, assault and battery; charged with menacing Pearl Eells, a 12-year-old Lisbon girl.

After a session of three days, the grand jury finished its work yesterday afternoon, made its report at 5 o'clock and was discharged. This jury made a remarkable record. It did not condemn the jail. Following is the report:

"To the honorable court of common pleas of Columbiana county, Ohio:

"This grand jury was impaneled Monday, April 13, 1903, and after instructions from the court proceeded to investigate the cases presented by Prosecutor J. H. Brooks. We investigated 78 cases, examined 86 witnesses, ignored 8 cases and found 70 indictments.

"In accordance with instruction from his honor, Judge Hole, we have visited the jail and find rules and regulations posted, and the jail corridor, kitchen, cells, etc., in a clean and well kept condition. We would recommend a better system of lighting and heating the building, which in our judgment will be sufficient to make the building more comfortable.

"We do not condemn the jail but when kept clean, as we find it under the supervision of Sheriff C. P. Leonard, wife and deputies, we find it to answer all present needs.

"J. F. McQUEEN,
"Foreman."

FOUR PETITIONS
FILED IN COURT*F. W. Miller, of This City, Sues W. H.
Thomas For $537 and Interest.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special).—Four more petitions were placed on the court files yesterday afternoon. Frederick W. Miller, of East Liverpool, brings suit against William H. Thomas for $537.84 with interest from April 1, 1903, held to be due on account for labor and bakery supplies, which the plaintiff claims the defendant has refused to pay him. G. Y. Travis, of East Liverpool, is the plaintiff's attorney.

The village of New Waterford, through its attorney, J. F. Johnston, has brought an action to replevin six large dressed stones which were used as moving stones in the old bridge over Bull Creek in that village and are alleged to be now unlawfully in the possession of one J. A. Benzenkofer. The stones are valued at $27.50.

John Phillips, of Salem, has been bound over to the court in the sum of $300 from Justice Kerr's court in Salem on a charge preferred by Dollie Shasteen.

James M. Garside has begun foreclosure proceedings against Jane Hoyt, of Washington township. A mortgage was given by the defendant to William Garside in 1886, on 44 of an acre of which $78.58 remains unpaid with interest from February 25, 1894. William Garside assigned the mortgage to the plaintiff who now asks judgment for the amount unpaid.

Salineville, April 16.—(Special).—Officer Higgins of this town, made an arrest this morning of the supposed horse thief, who last week made away with a valuable animal, the property of Alex. Farsman, of Inverness.

The man has been in the neighborhood since the night the horse disappeared and tried to sell the animal to three different farmers. He had been at the home of Ellsworth Miller, five miles from here since Tuesday. The suspect was lodged in the town jail pending a hearing.

STRIKERS WILL GET SUPPORT*Trades Council's Committee on Grievance and Arbitration*INSTRUCTED TO PROCEED

Although more than two weeks have passed since the building trades went on strike it was not until last night that the Trades and Labor Council took up the matter. When the council was organized at its last meeting the newly elected president, George B. M. Beatty, who, by the way, is a member of one of the trades effected, had contemplated appointing one standing committee, that designated as the committee on grievance and arbitration, but reconsidered the matter at the last minute. Mr. Beatty is a very careful official, and it is now thought that he desired to wait until all the affected trades had been given a chance to get the work started in their own behalf before bringing it to the attention of the central body. In this he had the approval of all conservative unionists, and at the same time created a good feeling among the people generally, for favorable public sentiment is absolutely necessary in labor disputes.

At the meeting last night every trade was recognized, and the conditions for which they are now fighting will be carefully weighed by the new grievance committee. This latter body, consisting of five members, has been very carefully selected, and it is confidently expected it will be able to render valuable aid to the strikers.

A number of new delegates were seated at the meeting and the attendance was good. President Beatty and his able corps of officers were encouraged and the prospects are bright for a prosperous and successful year.

A communication was received from the New York electotypers' union acknowledging the receipt of a donation and asking that letters be written to 11 firms who are patronizing the unfair United States Printing company. The request will be complied with.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to revise the constitution, reported progress. It hoped to have a full report ready for the next meeting.

Those in charge of the arrangements for the labor lecture next Monday night report good progress, and that there was every indication of a large turn out.

Under the head of new business President Beatty announced the following standing committees:

Organization—Charles Continer, J. J. Weisend, J. E. Anderson.

Legislation—Crisis McConnell, Geo. Mulligan, William Cope.

Union Label—Henry Schreiber, U. E. Price, William Conklin.

Credentials—Henry Moore, Arthur White, George Eisenhuth.

Grievance and Arbitration—William Pittinger, A. C. Coleman, Timothy Hickey, J. W. Martin, A. E. Bertele.

Labor Day Picnic—Charles Continer, J. R. Reark, Thomas Collins, J. J. Weisend, P. J. McKeone, Harry Newman.

Auxiliary Picnic Committee—Miss Margaret Fife, Miss Viola Evans, Miss Edna Lucas.

President Beatty outlined a few additional duties which several of the committees, ought, in his judgment, to take up.

A member of the board of directors of the cooperative store reported that an attempt was being made to prevent the management of the store from purchasing goods from certain wholesalers. The movement was in the

FINE HORSES
ARE CREMATED*Vandergrift Stables at Wells-burg Burned by Incen-dianaries.*THE FAST MARE EDNA COOK*Formerly Owned by C. A. Smith, of This City, Among the Stock Burned.*TWO MEN SET THE FIRE

For the third time within a year dastardly incendiaries have undertaken the destruction of either the palatial residence or stables of Millionaire J. B. Vandergrift at his magnificent country home, near Wellsburg, W. Va. Last night they were discovered in the act of setting fire to the stables. The buildings were totally destroyed, together with a dozen blooded animals, one of which, Edna Cook, was formerly owned by C. A. Smith, and which was sold to Vandergrift for $4,000.

The fire occurred at about 10 o'clock. The grooms were preparing for bed when they saw a blaze shoot from one of the windows of the center stable, and simultaneously they saw two figures, one that of a tall man and the other of a short man, running with great speed from the stable entrance. They made their way over the hills in the neighborhood and were soon lost to view in the darkness. The grooms ran at once to the rescue of the stock, opened the doors of the burning stable and permitted as many of them to escape as could get away. There were at least 20 fine blooded animals in the stable.

From all appearances the blaze was started in the manger of Mrs. Vandergrift's favorite horse. The culprits were evidently familiar with the surroundings and the contents of the stable. Why any one should wish to destroy the palatial residence and its surroundings is not known by any members of the Vandergrift household. They know of no one so despicable that has a grudge against them.

About two months ago the miscreants burned another stable in which there were some valuable horses destroyed, and on October 17 last an attempt was made to destroy the residence. It is said that Mr. Vandergrift will employ detectives on the case and run the cowardly beings to earth.

Edna Cook, the horse so well known in this city, was one of the finest the country has ever produced. She has made a mile in 2:07 and had a mark of 2:12. She was conceded to be the prettiest animal that ever stepped on the American turf. Her only fault was that she would invariably lose her head in a race, and it was for that reason that she was sold by C. A. Smith.

Although interest in the voting contest continues great, Series B coupons ought to be coming in faster than they are at present. It is to be hoped that nobody is purposely holding them back until he can send in a large batch. Little and often counts as much in the end as big bunches far apart. And it lends interest to the contest and facilitates the counting to have even a few votes added daily to the candidate's total. All Series B coupons will be invalid at the close of the present month, and the last half of April is already here. Let the votes come in early and often. Then you stand no chance of losing them.

An old subscriber writes from Kansas: "I am very glad to see the evidence of popular interest in the prize offered by the News Review. It is certainly a remarkably liberal offer, and all readers of the News Review doubtless appreciate it as such. You have a grand paper in East Liverpool now. When I lived there the dailies were little five-column apologies for newspapers that I was almost ashamed to send to friends away from home. May your prosperity continue. I send a few coupons for an old friend, and will send more."

RESTING AT
THE SPRINGS*Councilman Marshall at the Popular Resort Where Mayor-Elect Is Staying.*WILLING TO GIVE OPINIONS In Case He Should Be Asked For Them, and They May

Dr. R. J. Marshall left at noon today for Cambridge Springs, Pa. He has been troubled for the past few days with a severe cold, the same malady that caused Mayor-elect Weaver to go to the springs. It will be remembered that Mr. Weaver, upon the advice of his physician, left the city several days ago. Dr. Marshall is not his regular medical adviser.

It is possible that the mayor-elect and the physician may meet at the springs and talk over the affairs of this municipality. This is always an interesting subject to the latter, who has been a prominent member of council for a number of years. The mayor-elect, prior to the recent campaign, had not been active in public affairs. When he assumes the duties of the chief executive of the city on the first Monday in May he will have undertaken a task stupendous for a beginner. The city will be governed by a new and untried code of law, many changes will be made among the officeholders, and, if Mr. Weaver carries out the platform of the party by which he was nominated, there will be a radical change.

If Dr. Marshall cares to talk Mr. Weaver ought to be an attentive listener. In his campaign for the Republican mayoralty nomination, Dr. Marshall announced, as his platform, "that dives should be abolished and their keepers made to obey the law." He certainly had hopes of winning the nomination and doubtless had pondered over how to make his declaration effective in case of his election. Just how he would have done so may be of great interest to Mr. Weaver.

There are people in the city who state authoritatively that Dr. Marshall's opinions and advice will be given a great deal of consideration by Mr. Weaver. Dr. Marshall may have preferences in the selection of chief of police, members of the board of public safety and other appointments within Mr. Weaver's power to make. If he has it is more than likely that Mr. Weaver will hear of it while they are both recuperating at the springs. It is pretty generally known in political circles that had Dr. Marshall been nominated and elected mayor, ex-Sheriff Charles Gill would have been his chief of police. It is not unreasonable to presume that, in the event of appointments being discussed, he will say a good word for his favorite.

PREPARING FOR CONVENTION.

Nearly all of the Brotherhood locals are busily engaged just at present upon the preparation for the coming convention, to be held at Wheeling next month. A number of the locals will go into the convention with requests for a change in the working conditions of their respective trades. In a few instances these changes would mean almost an entire revolution, and it is safe to predict that they will not be favored by the convention. By far the greater number of resolutions, however, are of little moment to the trade generally, and will undoubtedly be concurred in. A matter which has created no end of discussion within the past few months is the partial failure on the part of the organization to abolish the contract system in several of the trades. According to the statement of a number of the best posted members of the Brotherhood there is no use in attempting to deny the truthfulness of the assertion made above. A portion of the time at the approaching national meeting will doubtless be devoted to a consideration of the conditions into which the packers have been thrown by reason of the abolition of the contract system, or the attempt to do so. The workmen engaged at this trade differed from the mould-makers, who were also affected, in that they remained loyal to the Brotherhood, and have suffered severely in consequence. A very small percentage of the members of No. 25, packers, are now located in as good or as lucrative berths as before the inauguration of the abolition clause.

It is the opinion of many that the Brotherhood in convention ought to provide some remedy for this state of affairs. The packers have demonstrated that they can be trusted and are made of the right kind of stuff. Every trade under the jurisdiction of the National body had a voice in declaring against the contract system. Any one who takes the trouble to inquire can readily perceive what it has done for the packers, and it is no more than just that every trade under the jurisdiction of the national organization should be interested in a measure that will afford the relief they need and must have in order to exist.

FIRST DRESDEN WARE.

Dresden china began its reign at the fair of Leipzig, 1721, where it was first offered for public sale for the first time. It has three periods—King's, Marcolme and modern—and for all around use it continues to be the most popular ware of this day. The factory marks traced on the bottom of each piece vary according to the period—the oldest (King's) being the monogram A. R. and the wand of Aesculapius. The familiar crossed swords, with the dot or circle between the handles, were first used in 1721, and the star took the place of the dot in the Marcolme period. The modern mark is the simple crossed swords, sometimes accompanied by letters and numbers.

NO. 53'S SOCIAL.

Finishers' local union No. 53, composed principally of ladies, has arranged for a social and entertainment to be given at its rooms in the Red Men's building next Monday evening. A fine program has been prepared and the prospects are good for a large crowd. On account of the labor lecture to be held in the opera house on the same evening the ladies have arranged to begin the entertainment later.

POTTERIES ARE DISABLED.

Very few operatives in the river and East End potteries were at work today owing to the shortage of the gas supply caused by a break in the mains of the Ohio Valley company, near Cameron, W. Va. The supply is still sufficient for heating and lighting purposes.

OF INTEREST TO THE TRADE.

A. E. Hutchinson, Buffalo, N. Y., has filed a petition in bankruptcy.

Bice & Hazzard, dealers in crockery and other lines at Pawnee City, Neb., have been succeeded by C. Rice & Co.

The Tap-Long company, department, store, Charlotte, N. C., have changed their name to the Little-Long company.

A. B. Patterson, Greenville, Tex., has admitted a partner and the concern will hereafter be known as A. B. Patterson & Co.

The Danville department store, Danville, Ill., have transferred assets to Ike Stern & Co., incorporated, a large dry goods house of the same city.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

A little daughter of Harry Devon, lost kilnman at McNicol's, has been quip ill for several days.

Charles Price, kilnman in the K. T. & K. old end, is spending a few days at Columbus pleasure seeking.

James Combs, of the glist crew at Thompson's, has returned to work after a serious illness of two weeks.

John Wolf, of the glist crew at the Buckeye, returned to work today after an illness of a week with a severe cold.

Miss Naomi Harger, of the Smith & Phillips, has resigned to accept a situation as filler-in at Wallace & Chetwynd's.

Harry Watkins, foreman of the K. T. & K. old end, has been confined to his home on Calcutta street with an attack of grip.

William Owen, Jr., a prominent young mould maker, lately employed at East Palestine, has accepted a situation with Laughlin No. 3. His many friends will welcome his return to this city.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; whereas out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining.

Cautions.

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25c size has just been introduced this year. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 2

KEEPING THE STREETS

IN GOOD ORDER

Commissioner Dickey Cleaning Paved Thoroughfares By Flushing With Success.

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey, alias Andy Carnegie, has had a force of men at work cleaning the principal streets of the city by the use of water from the hydrants. He has found this a most successful manner in bringing the desired results and will continue it so long as the water supply is sufficient.

Notwithstanding that there are some streets of the city that have become eyesores to the public, owing to their being unpaved, the central thoroughfares at the present time will pass inspection fairly well. They are swept often and when the water is applied they look as if newly paved.

Commissioner Dickey has more troubles than a policeman, but he endeavors to keep the streets in order as far as his jurisdiction allows, and is without doubt making a success of it.

NEW BOOKS ARE GREATLY NEEDED

The Present Library Stock Will Soon Be Inadequate to the Growing Demand.

PATRONAGE IS INCREASING

The Month of March Showing Over 8,000 Books Used—Every Month Has Shown Steady Gains—Facts from the Report of Miss Baker.

Miss Gertrude Baker, the efficient and accommodating librarian at the Carnegie library, has completed her annual report and the results it shows are most gratifying, both in the manner in which the institution has been conducted and the patronage it has received from the book-loving people of the city. Comparing the statistics to be found in the report it is seen that East Liverpool ranks far above any city in the United States of its size in patronage, a truth of which the residents cannot be too proud.

There is, however, an alarming condition promised if definite and speedy action is not taken toward the raising of money for the purchase of books, a demand for which is daily increasing. From the report of Miss Baker the following statistics are taken and a perusal of them will satisfy every one of the vast amount of reading that has been furnished and taken advantage of during the past year, ending April 1, and also of the necessity of more books:

The library was open, commencing May 12, 1902, 294 days. On Mondays and Saturdays it was open 12 hours; on the other four days 11 hours and on Sunday, since November, 4 hours. The number of books circulated during the first month was 2,803, being 203 more than the librarian then had at her command. Every month since then the number has increased and the last month shows 4,457.

The banner month was March, when 4,478 books were carried from the library and 4,033 were read in the library, making a total of 8,511 books in circulation.

The total number of books in the library is 5,531, while there is space provided for 20,000. There are now 2,100 people in the city drawing books, and it is easily to be seen that some provision must be made for a larger supply.

During the year over 40,000 books were carried home and over 31,000 were read in the library. Though the best possible care has been taken of the books they are continually wearing out, and even the books that are now on hand will some day have to be replaced by new ones.

The librarian and the library board have had quite an array of daily papers on hand at the institution, but owing to the scarcity of money have had none of the best papers of the United States, and it is a fact that they very much regret. There is never a day passes that calls are not made for foreign papers, and the requests are compelled to be turned down.

CONSTABLE COPESTICK

Enters Upon the Duties of His Office With Chances All in His Favor.

William Copestick, the newly qualified constable, has started his term as an officer of the law under circumstances very encouraging. This for several reasons and probably the foremost one is his usual ability for making friends. He is a whole-souled, kind hearted man and can hardly count his friends, as was evidenced by the number that voted for his election. Friendship and good acquaintances are highly important to the success of an officer, and Constable Copestick having both, he will undoubtedly prove well worthy of the position awarded him.

CURES CHRONIC CATARRH

Hyomei Cures Worst Forms of This Disease in Any Part of the System.

It is the height of folly to continue doctoring a catarrhal disease by stomach drugging, when the whole trouble lies in the respiratory organs where nothing can reach the germs but a local direct treatment by inhalation. Hyomei is nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh. Just breathe it a few times daily and it will effect a cure.

You may have catarrh of the stomach, liver or kidneys and Hyomei will as surely cure it as it will catarrh of the head and throat. The catarrhal germs are in the mucous membrane or tissues and Hyomei not only kills the germs along the air passages, but enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood.

The medicated dry air that goes through the air passages, and into the lungs when Hyomei is breathed through the inhaler that accompanies every outfit, is rich in ozone, purely vegetable and filled with marvelous healing and strength-giving qualities.

If you are tired of stomach drugging and seem to grow weaker all the time, "throw physic to the dogs" and get well with the health giving Hyomei treatment that is nature's own method.

Rev. J. B. Cook, of Holliston, Mass., says: "My wife has suffered greatly from catarrh for 15 years. Nearly four weeks ago she commenced to use Hyomei and the beneficial effect was immediate. It is very seldom that she needs to clear her head and throat and she is able to rest quietly at night. For years past she has been troubled with pain in her limbs which we supposed was rheumatism, but since she has used Hyomei, the affliction has disappeared."

Will Reed will return your money if Hyomei does not cure you of catarrh. This shows his faith in the remedy.

According to the statement of a number of the best posted members of the Brotherhood there is no use in attempting to deny the truthfulness of the assertion made above. A portion of the time at the approaching national meeting will doubtless be devoted to a consideration of the conditions into which the packers have been thrown by reason of the abolition of the contract system, or the attempt to do so. The workmen engaged at this trade differed from the mould-makers, who were also affected, in that they remained loyal to the Brotherhood, and have suffered severely in consequence. A very small percentage of the members of No. 25, packers, are now located in as good or as lucrative berths as before the inauguration of the abolition clause.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lost forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining.

KEEPING THE STREETS IN GOOD ORDER

Commissioner Dickey Cleaning Paved Thoroughfares By Flushing With Success.

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey, alias Andy Carnegie, has had a force of men at work cleaning the principal streets of the city by the use of water from the hydrants. He has found this a most successful manner in bringing the desired results and will continue it so long as the water supply is sufficient.

Notwithstanding that there are some streets of the city that have become eyesores to the public, owing to their being unpaved, the central thoroughfares at the present time will pass inspection fairly well. They are swept often and when the water is applied they look as if newly paved.

Commissioner Dickey has more troubles than a policeman, but he endeavors to keep the streets in order as far as his jurisdiction allows, and is without doubt making a success of it.

NEW BOOKS ARE GREATLY NEEDED

The Present Library Stock Will Soon Be Inadequate to the Growing Demand.

PATRONAGE IS INCREASING

The Month of March Showing Over 8,000 Books Used—Every Month Has Shown Steady Gains — Facts from the Report of Miss Baker.

Miss Gertrude Baker, the efficient and accommodating librarian at the Carnegie library, has completed her annual report and the results it shows are most gratifying, both in the manner in which the institution has been conducted and the patronage it has received from the book-loving people of the city. Comparing the statistics to be found in the report it is seen that East Liverpool ranks far above any city in the United States of its size in patronage, a truth of which the residents cannot be too proud.

There is, however, an alarming condition promised if definite and speedy action is not taken toward the raising of money for the purchase of books, a demand for which is daily increasing. From the report of Miss Baker the following statistics are taken and a perusal of them will satisfy every one of the vast amount of reading that has been furnished and taken advantage of during the past year, ending April 1, and also of the necessity of more books:

The library was open, commencing May 12, 1902, 294 days. On Mondays and Saturdays it was open 12 hours; on the other four days 11 hours and on Sunday, since November, 4 hours. The number of books circulated during the first month was 2,803, being 203 more than the librarian then had at her command. Every month since then the number has increased and the last month shows 4,457.

The banner month was March, when 4,478 books were carried from the library and 4,033 were read in the library, making a total of 8,511 books in circulation.

The total number of books in the library is 5,531, while there is space provided for 20,000. There are now 2,100 people in the city drawing books, and it is easily to be seen that some provision must be made for a larger supply.

During the year over 40,000 books were carried home and over 31,000 were read in the library. Though the best possible care has been taken of the books they are continually wearing out, and even the books that are now on hand will some day have to be replaced by new ones.

The librarian and the library board have had quite an array of daily papers on hand at the institution, but owing to the scarcity of money have had none of the best papers of the United States, and it is a fact that they very much regret. There is never a day passes that calls are not made for foreign papers, and the requests are compelled to be turned down.

CONSTABLE COPESTICK

Enters Upon the Duties of His Office With Chances All in His Favor.

William Copestick, the newly qualified constable, has started his term as an officer of the law under circumstances very encouraging. This for several reasons and probably the foremost one is his usual ability for making friends. He is a whole-souled, kind hearted man and can hardly count his friends, as was evidenced by the number that voted for his election. Friendship and good acquaintances are highly important to the success of an officer, and Constable Copestick having both, he will undoubtedly prove well worthy of the position awarded him.

CURES CHRONIC CATARRH

Hymel Cures Worst Forms of This Disease in Any Part of the System.

It is the height of folly to continue doctoring a catarrhal disease by stomach drugging, when the whole trouble lies in the respiratory organs where nothing can reach the germs but a local direct treatment by inhalation. Hymel is nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh. Just breathe it a few times daily and it will effect a cure.

You may have catarrh of the stomach, liver or kidneys and Hymel will as surely cure it as it will catarrh of the head and throat. The catarrhal germs are in the mucous membrane or tissues and Hymel not only kills the germs along the air passages, but enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood.

The medicated dry air that goes through the air passages, and into the lungs when Hymel is breathed through the inhaler that accompanies every outfit, is rich in ozone, purely vegetable and filled with marvelous healing and strength-giving qualities.

If you are tired of stomach drugging and seem to grow weaker all the time, "throw physic to the dogs" and get well with the health giving Hymel treatment that is nature's own method.

Rev. J. B. Cook, of Holliston, Mass., says: "My wife has suffered greatly from catarrh for 15 years. Nearly four weeks ago she commenced to use Hymel and the beneficial effect was immediate. It is very seldom that she needs to clear her head and throat and she is able to rest quietly at night. For years past she has been troubled with pain in her limbs which we supposed was rheumatism, but since she has used Hymel, the affliction has disappeared."

Will Reed will return your money if Hymel does not cure you of catarrh. This shows his faith in the remedy.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

PREPARING FOR CONVENTION.

Nearly all of the Brotherhood locals are busily engaged just at present upon the preparation for the coming convention, to be held at Wheeling next month. A number of the locals will go into the convention with requests for a change in the working conditions of their respective trades. In a few instances these changes would mean almost an entire revolution, and it is safe to predict that they will not be favored by the convention. By far the greater number of resolutions, however, are of little moment to the trade generally, and will undoubtedly be concurred in. A matter which has created no end of discussion within the past few months is the partial failure on the part of the organization to abolish the contract system in several of the trades. According to the statement of a number of the best posted members of the Brotherhood there is no use in attempting to deny the truthfulness of the assertion made above. A portion of the time at the approaching national meeting will doubtless be devoted to a consideration of the conditions into which the packers have been thrown by reason of the abolition of the contract system, or the attempt to do so. The workmen engaged in this trade differed from the mould-makers, who were also affected, in that they remained loyal to the Brotherhood, and have suffered severely in consequence. A very small percentage of the members of No. 25, packers, are now located in as good or as lucrative berths as before the inauguration of the abolition clause.

It is the opinion of many that the Brotherhood in convention ought to provide some remedy for this state of affairs. This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25c size has just been introduced this year. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

KEEPING THE STREETS IN GOOD ORDER

Commissioner Dickey Cleaning Paved Thoroughfares By Flushing With Success.

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey, alias Andy Carnegie, has had a force of men at work cleaning the principal streets of the city by the use of water from the hydrants. He has found this a most successful manner in bringing the desired results and will continue it so long as the water supply is sufficient.

Notwithstanding that there are some streets of the city that have become eyesores to the public, owing to their being unpaved, the central thoroughfares at the present time will pass inspection fairly well. They are swept often and when the water is applied they look as if newly paved.

Commissioner Dickey has more troubles than a policeman, but he endeavors to keep the streets in order as far as his jurisdiction allows, and is without doubt making a success of it.

NEW BOOKS ARE GREATLY NEEDED

The Present Library Stock Will Soon Be Inadequate to the Growing Demand.

PATRONAGE IS INCREASING

The Month of March Showing Over 8,000 Books Used—Every Month Has Shown Steady Gains—Facts from the Report of Miss Baker.

Miss Gertrude Baker, the efficient and accommodating librarian at the Carnegie library, has completed her annual report and the results it shows are most gratifying, both in the manner in which the institution has been conducted and the patronage it has received from the book-loving people of the city. Comparing the statistics to be found in the report it is seen that East Liverpool ranks far above any city in the United States of its size in patronage, a truth of which the residents cannot be too proud.

There is, however, an alarming condition promised if definite and speedy action is not taken toward the raising of money for the purchase of books, a demand for which is daily increasing. From the report of Miss Baker the following statistics are taken and a perusal of them will satisfy every one of the vast amount of reading that has been furnished and taken advantage of during the past year, ending April 1, and also of the necessity of more books.

The library was open, commencing May 12, 1902, 294 days. On Mondays and Saturdays it was open 12 hours; on the other four days 11 hours and on Sunday, since November, 4 hours. The number of books circulated during the first month was 2,803, being 203 more than the librarian then had at her command. Every month since then the number has increased and the last month shows 4,457.

The banner month was March, when 4,478 books were carried from the library and 4,033 were read in the library, making a total of 8,511 books in circulation.

The total number of books in the library is 5,531, while there is space provided for 20,000. There are now 2,100 people in the city drawing books, and it is easily to be seen that some provision must be made for a larger supply.

During the year over 40,000 books were carried home and over 31,000 were read in the library. Though the best possible care has been taken of the books they are continually wearing out, and even the books that are now on hand will some day have to be replaced by new ones.

The librarian and the library board have had quite an array of daily papers on hand at the institution, but owing to the scarcity of money have had none of the best papers of the United States, and it is a fact that they very much regret. There is never a day passes that calls are not made for foreign papers, and the requests are compelled to be turned down.

CONSTABLE COPESTICK

Enters Upon the Duties of His Office With Chances All in His Favor.

William Copestick, the newly qualified constable, has started his term as an officer of the law under circumstances very encouraging. This for several reasons and probably the foremost one is his usual ability for making friends. He is a whole-souled, kind hearted man and can hardly count his friends, as was evidenced by the number that voted for his election. Friendship and good acquaintances are highly important to the success of an officer, and Constable Copestick having both, he will undoubtedly prove well worthy of the position awarded him.

CURES CHRONIC CATARRH

Hyomei Cures Worst Forms of This Disease in Any Part of the System.

It is the height of folly to continue doctoring a catarrhal disease by stomach drugging, when the whole trouble lies in the respiratory organs where nothing can reach the germs but a local direct treatment by inhalation. Hyomei is nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh. Just breathe it a few times daily and it will effect a cure.

You may have catarrh of the stomach, liver or kidneys and Hyomei will as surely cure it as it will catarrh of the head and throat. The catarrhal germs are in the mucous membrane or tissues and Hyomei not only kills the germs along the air passages, but enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood.

The medicated dry air that goes through the air passages, and into the lungs when Hyomei is breathed through the inhaler that accompanies every outfit, is rich in ozone, purely vegetable and filled with marvelous healing and strength-giving qualities.

If you are tired of stomach drugging and seem to grow weaker all the time, "throw physic to the dogs" and get well with the health giving Hyomei treatment that is nature's own method.

Rev. J. B. Cook, of Holliston, Mass., says: "My wife has suffered greatly from catarrh for 15 years. Nearly four weeks ago she commenced to use Hyomei and the beneficial effect was immediate. It is very seldom that she needs to clear her head and throat and she is able to rest quietly at night. For years, past she has been troubled with pain in her limbs which we supposed was rheumatism, but since she has used Hyomei, the affliction has disappeared."

Will Reed will return your money if Hyomei does not cure you of catarrh. This shows his faith in the remedy.

EAST END

A STEADY INCREASE
IN POPULATION

Thirty New Residents Are Being Added Each Week to the Population of the East End.

The population of the East End is increasing at about the rate of 30 a week, according to the statements of those who have been keeping tab on the new arrivals. There seems to be but little difficulty in securing work of one kind or another. For the most part the immigrants are from Wood and Pleasant counties, W. Va., although many other localities are represented. Usually they are good workers and all seem to be well satisfied. Nearly every upbound packet brings embryo citizens.

This rapid rate of increase keeps up a constant demand for houses. Alex Chafin now has 10 under construction and will build more during the summer. The fact is that building down town is practically helping the growth of the East End. It is almost impossible to find an empty dwelling house in the down town districts and this condition will prevail until the building disputes are settled. Many people are living in the East End who failed to find houses down town.

TEAMSTER RESENTED

Gave Him a Sound Drubbing When Invited to Engage in a Personal Encounter.

Reports from a desperate fight which occurred across the state line last Saturday are just beginning to be heard in the East End. One of the principals, Street Lane, a prominent teamster, a former resident of the federal region of Kentucky, was one of the principals, but it was not through him the story got abroad. He was driving his team along the road between the East End and Smith's Ferry, when one of his horses splattered mud upon a pedestrian. This man, whose name is not known, grew angry and used some vile language. He told Lane to get off the wagon or he would pull him off. Lane resented being called names and didn't wait for a second invitation to dismount. In the personal encounter that followed he had all the best of it and gave the obstreperous stranger a drubbing that will no doubt help him to keep a civil tongue. The fight was witnessed by a large number of the workmen along the railroad.

SENATORSHIP RACE
IS A LIVELY ONE

EVERY COUNTY BUT ONE HAS TWO CANDIDATES.

Possibility of a Combine Between Jefferson and Belmont Suggested.

Some of the liveliest politics now on exhibition in Ohio is in progress over in the Twentieth-Twenty-second senatorial district, where two senators are to be nominated by the Republicans at Wellsville, May 28, says the Columbus State Journal. Every county in the district, with the single exception of Columbiana, that has pronounced for Senator Connell, has two candidates, but there is a movement on foot to have the unit rule in operation. This has already been agreed upon in Jefferson county, where Messrs Duval and Moore are the opposing candidates. Belmont, with Messrs. Heinlein and Howard, and Harrison with Messrs. Beal and Branson, it is believed, will follow suit, making these counties of more power in the convention than if the strength of each was divided.

Belmont and Harrison counties are the old Twentieth district, and Jefferson and Columbiana the old Twenty-second. It is claimed that Columbiana already has enjoyed two terms of the senatorship. Senators Connell and Blakes. Besides the argument is made that the lower end of the district should have something. Belmont and Jefferson combined have 97 votes, two more than necessary to nominate, and if they should get together they can win, while Harrison with its 23 votes can only give Council 92, or three shy of a nomination. The district has always held to the two-term rule, and the point is now made that with Blake in the Seventy-third and Connell in the Seventy-fifth, Columbiana has had her share.

UNIQUE DISPLAY
BY LABOR UNIONS

Building Trades Council of Pittsburgh Preparing For a Big Event.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

And Elaborate Shows Arranged For. The Object is To Raise Funds For the Erection of a Grand Labor Temple.

Pittsburg, April 16. — (Special).—Unique in the history of the labor movement of the United States is the plan now under completion by the labor organizations of Pittsburgh for the raising of money to form the nucleus of a building fund to be used in the erection of a labor temple here. The Building Trades Council of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity is arranging for a mammoth celebration to be known as the United Labor Carnival, which, it is said, will be the greatest event of its kind ever held. Arrangements have been made with the Morris & Berger company to bring to Pittsburgh the most elaborate combination of attractions that was ever gathered together. In addition it is proposed to have a large number of distinguished visitors and speakers, and to make the event one of national character.

The date fixed for the grand celebration is from May 30 to June 13. Opening on Decoration day, it is expected that thousands of visitors to Pittsburgh will take advantage of the festival to amuse themselves after paying their tribute to the heroes in whose honor the day is set apart. With its immense street parade, its elaborate free attractions and its 40 paid admission shows, all of the largest and finest character, the festival will undoubtedly be the place where everybody will go on that day. There will be speakers of national, yes, world-wide fame to open the celebration, among them such men as President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor; President G. W. Steinbiss, of the National Building Trades Council; President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers; Senators Hanna, Quay and Penrose, and Governor S. W. Pennypacker.

The utterances of such men as these will be of more than passing interest on an occasion of this kind, when they are talking to an audience representing the working people of the three greatest industrial states of the union, Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

Arrangements are being made to secure reduced rates on all railroad and steamboat lines leading into Pittsburgh during the festival. Special excursion trains will likely be run from all towns and cities within a radius of 150 miles of this city for the event, bringing thousands of visitors to the United Labor Carnival.

The shows which are being arranged for by Messrs. Morris & Berger are of the highest character, and the largest and best that can be found. There will be absolutely nothing in the entire festival which will offend the most fastidious. Every show will be arranged with a view to entertaining every member of the family in a clean, wholesome manner. There will be, as before stated, 40 paid admission shows, making the United Labor Carnival of Pittsburgh the largest of the kind ever projected. The largest that has heretofore been held has only 25 paid admission shows. In addition there will be some of the most highly sensational free attractions that were ever seen. Street parades will be a daily feature, and the entire city will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. The Building Trades Council has authorized the expenditure of $50,000 in making the affair a success, and in bringing it up to the standard they desire to establish—to make it the best and most enjoyable amusement event ever held in Pittsburgh.

Edwin L. Yewell, patent solicitor of Washington, D. C., reports the issue of 728 patents this week, 64 to residents of Ohio, including one to Troy Cope of New Waterford, for an electric switch.

UNIVERSITIES TO TEACH
THE SCIENCE OF HUMANITY

By General WILLIAM BOOTH, Commander in Chief of the Salvation Army

UNIVERSITY of the science of humanity, where men and women can be trained to reclaim depraved women, criminals and drunkards—that's what I want now. I mean a great institution, with its main establishments in London and New York, correlated with branches in Melbourne, Toronto, Berlin and Paris, from which thousands of workers shall be sent to the submerged masses each year, skilled in every known method of rescuing human beings from the underworld of despair.

We must have this university for training people in the real work of saving the vicious and the criminal. This vast work, which lies beyond the power of governments, which is outside of the organized churches, should not depend much longer on the accident of individual experience, but should be carried on by men and women picked for their intelligence, devotion and aptitude for work among the fallen, regularly trained and graduated.

IN AMERICA VICE AND CRIME EXIST AS IN ENGLAND. YOUR VICE IS BETTER DRESSED THAN THAT OF THE OLD WORLD. IT EATS BETTER FOOD AND HAS GAYER MANNERS. YOUR PAINTED WOMEN ARE PLEASURE SEEKING WANTONS RATHER THAN CREATURES DRIVEN TO SHAME BY POVERTY. BUT IN TIME YOUR VICE WILL BECOME MONSTROUS AND HIDEOUS AND RAGED, LIKE MUCH OF THE VICE OF LONDON. WAIT!

What an extraordinary spectacle! Here is a continent in which genius for industry and organization has piled up wealth that staggers the imagination. Here is a great people famous for their practical, sound sense, and yet, although the Salvation Army has demonstrated that criminals and drunkards and women of shame can be saved and brought back to useful places in society, although it has straightened out and secured employment for tens of thousands of criminals and has drawn more than 38,000 fallen women into its homes in various parts of the world, although we have shown that the thing which prisons and churches have failed to do can be done and is being done, the possessors of the wealth of the nation are inert, indifferent.

This seething, swelling sea of wretchedness and desperation is a menace to the homes of the country. It is washing away steadily at the moral foundation of your national life. We must organize a science of humanity for the slums. We must have no namby pamby academic missionary nonsense. We have to deal with men and women who think and feel. There is a way of approaching them that will draw them out of the abyss, stir repentance, awaken hope and ambition, and there is a way of approach that will send them more deeply and desperately into hell.

Fierce Wind Storm Sweeps Atlantic Coast—Highest Tide in Years.

SEVERAL VESSELS DESTROYED.

Worst Storm in Thirty Years—Factories Flooded at Elizabeth and Much Damage Done on Water Front. Railroad Traffic Suspended.

New York, April 16.—A fierce wind storm from the northeast swept New York, developing unusual severity after a night of gales. The storm blew shoreward, was accompanied by the highest tide known in years and brought a cold, pelting rain. It did much damage along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts. At Coney Island and Rockaway a large part of the sandy beach was cut out and much other damage done by the tide and violent wind. The gale was severe upon the shipping anchored in the bay off Staten Island. The fishing schooner Mariner went ashore and broke up at Stapleton. The fishing sloop Iroquois sank at the docks.

The French four-masted ship Joelle and the English bark Itata, which are anchored in the middle of the bay, dragged their anchors to within 100 yards of the docks at St. George.

The fishing schooner Edward Hooper, of Gloucester, Mass., dragged her anchors and fouled the pilot boats Edward E. Barrett and James Gordon Bennett, carrying away the Bennett's bowsprit and headgear and damaging her own quarter so that she sprang a leak.

Old residents said the storm at Brighton and Coney Island was the most severe in 30 years. ed over the tracks of the New Jersey Southern railroad and traffic was suspended.

Elizabeth, N. J., April 16.—A violent northeast wind and rain storm did much damage along the water front. Factories were flooded and work stopped, lumber was washed away from yards and a large quantity of coal was swept from the Jersey Central wharves. The Newark and Elizabeth branch of the Jersey Central is under water and the meadows between Newark and Elizabeth have become an inland sea. Washington, April 16.—Miss Rebecca J. Taylor, who recently sought unsuccessfully in the district courts to compel her reinstatement as a clerk in the war department, from which Secretary Root dismissed her on account of articles published by her sharply criticizing the administration's Philippine policy, has received information that she has been left about $300,000 by the death of an uncle in San Francisco Sunday night.

The dispatch said she had been left the bulk of her uncle's estate and had been made executrix of the will. She left here for San Francisco Tuesday, but before leaving the city said she would return to Washington in October, when her case will be heard in the court of appeals. In the lower court she appeared in her own behalf and made an argument lasting about two days to the court.

EAST END

A STEADY INCREASE
IN POPULATION

Thirty New Residents Are Being Added Each Week to the Population of the East End.

The population of the East End is increasing at about the rate of 30 a week, according to the statements of those who have been keeping tab on the new arrivals. There seems to be but little difficulty in securing work of one kind or another. For the most part the immigrants are from Wood and Pleasant counties, W. Va., although many other localities are represented. Usually they are good workers and all seem to be well satisfied. Nearly every upbound packet brings embryo citizens.

This rapid rate of increase keeps up a constant demand for houses. Alex Chafin now has 10 under construction and will build more during the summer. The fact is that building down town is practically helping the growth of the East End. It is almost impossible to find an empty dwelling house in the down town districts and this condition will prevail until the building disputes are settled. Many people are living in the East End who failed to find houses down town.

TEAMSTER RESENTED

Gave Him a Sound Drubbing When Invited to Engage in a Personal Encounter.

Reports from a desperate fight which occurred across the state line last Saturday are just beginning to be heard in the East End. One of the principals, Street Lane, a prominent teamster, a former resident of the federal region of Kentucky, was one of the principals, but it was not through him the story got abroad. He was driving his team along the road between the East End and Smith's Ferry, when one of his horses splattered mud upon a pedestrian. This man, whose name is not known, grew angry and used some vile language. He told Lane to get off the wagon or he would pull him off. Lane resented being called names and didn't wait for a second invitation to dismount. In the personal encounter that followed he had all the best of it and gave the obstreperous stranger a drubbing that will no doubt help him to keep a civil tongue. The fight was witnessed by a large number of the workmen along the railroad.

IS A LIVELY ONE

EVERY COUNTY BUT ONE HAS TWO CANDIDATES.

Possibility of a Combine Between Jefferson and Belmont Suggested.

Some of the liveliest politics now on exhibition in Ohio is in progress over in the Twentieth-Twenty-second senatorial district, where two senators are to be nominated by the Republicans at Wellsville, May 28, says the Columbus State Journal. Every county in the district, with the single exception of Columbiana, that has pronounced for Senator Connell, has two candidates, but there is a movement on foot to have the unit rule in operation. This has already been agreed upon in Jefferson county, where Messrs Duval and Moore are the opposing candidates. Belmont, with Messrs. Heinlein and Howard, and Harrison with Messrs. Beal and Branson, it is believed, will follow suit, making these counties of more power in the convention than if the strength of each was divided.

Belmont and Harrison counties are the old Twentieth district, and Jefferson and Columbiana the old Twenty-second. It is claimed that Columbiana already has enjoyed two terms of the senatorship. Senators Connell and Blakes. Besides the argument is made that the lower end of the district should have something. Belmont and Jefferson combined have 97 votes, two more than necessary to nominate, and if they should get together they can win, while Harrison with its 23 votes can only give Connell 92, or three shy of a nomination. The district has always held to the two-term rule, and the point is now made that with Blake in the Seventy-third and Connell in the Seventy-fifth, Columbiana has had her share.

UNIQUE DISPLAY
BY LABOR UNIONS

Building Trades Council of Pittsburgh Preparing For a Big Event.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

And Elaborate Shows Arranged For. The Object Is To Raise Funds For the Erection of a Grand Labor Temple.

Pittsburg, April 16. — (Special).—Unique in the history of the labor movement of the United States is the plan now under completion by the labor organizations of Pittsburgh for the raising of money to form the nucleus of a building fund to be used in the erection of a labor temple here. The Building Trades Council of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity is arranging for a mammoth celebration to be known as the United Labor Carnival, which, it is said, will be the greatest event of its kind ever held. Arrangements have been made with the Morris & Berger company to bring to Pittsburgh the most elaborate combination of attractions that was ever gathered together. In addition it is proposed to have a large number of distinguished visitors and speakers, and to make the event one of national character.

The date fixed for the grand celebration is from May 30 to June 13. Opening on Decoration day, it is expected that thousands of visitors to Pittsburgh will take advantage of the festival to amuse themselves after paying their tribute to the heroes in whose honor the day is set apart. With its immense street parade, its elaborate free attractions and its 40 paid admission shows, all of the largest and finest character, the festival will undoubtedly be the place where everybody will go on that day. There will be speakers of national, yes, world-wide fame to open the celebration, among them such men as President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor; President G. W. Steinbiss, of the National Building Trades Council; President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers; Senators Hanna, Quay and Penrose, and Governor S. W. Pennypacker.

The utterances of such men as these will be of more than passing interest on an occasion of this kind, when they are talking to an audience representing the working people of the three greatest industrial states of the union, Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

Arrangements are being made to secure reduced rates on all railroad and steamboat lines leading into Pittsburgh during the festival. Special excursion trains will likely be run from all towns and cities within a radius of 150 miles of this city for the event, bringing thousands of visitors to the United Labor Carnival.

The shows which are being arranged for by Messrs. Morris & Berger are of the highest character, and the largest and best that can be found. There will be absolutely nothing in the entire festival which will offend the most fastidious. Every show will be arranged with a view to entertaining every member of the family in a clean, wholesome manner. There will be, as before stated, 40 paid admission shows, making the United Labor Carnival of Pittsburgh the largest of the kind ever projected. The largest that has heretofore been held has only 25 paid admission shows.

In addition there will be some of the most highly sensational free attractions that were ever seen. Street parades will be a daily feature, and the entire city will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. The Building Trades Council has authorized the expenditure of $50,000 in making the affair a success, and in bringing it up to the standard they desire to establish—to make it the best and most enjoyable amusement event ever held in Pittsburgh.

Edwin L. Yewell, patent solicitor of Washington, D. C., reports the issue of 728 patents this week, 64 to residents of Ohio, including one to Troy Cope, of New Waterford, for an electric switch.

UNIVERSITIES TO TEACH
THE SCIENCE OF HUMANITY

By General WILLIAM BOOTH, Commander in Chief of the Salvation Army

UNIVERSITY of the science of humanity, where men and women can be trained to reclaim depraved women, criminals and drunkards—that's what I want now. I mean a great institution, with its main establishments in London and New York, correlated with branches in Melbourne, Toronto, Berlin and Paris, from which thousands of workers shall be sent to the submerged masses each year, skilled in every known method of rescuing human beings from the underworld of despair.

We must have this university for training people in the real work of saving the vicious and the criminal. This vast work, which lies beyond the power of governments, which is outside of the organized churches, should not depend much longer on the accident of individual experience, but should be carried on by men and women picked for their intelligence, devotion and aptitude for work among the fallen, regularly trained and graduated.

IN AMERICA VICE AND CRIME EXIST AS IN ENGLAND. YOUR VICE IS BETTER DRESSED THAN THAT OF THE OLD WORLD. IT EATS BETTER FOOD AND HAS GAYER MANNERS. YOUR PAINTED WOMEN ARE PLEASURE SEEKING WANTONS RATHER THAN CREATURES DRIVEN TO SHAME BY POVERTY. BUT IN TIME YOUR VICE WILL BECOME MONSTROUS AND HIDEOUS AND RAGED, LIKE MUCH OF THE VICE OF LONDON. WAIT!

What an extraordinary spectacle! Here is a continent in which genius for industry and organization has piled up wealth that staggers the imagination. Here is a great people famous for their practical, sound sense, and yet, although the Salvation Army has demonstrated that criminals and drunkards and women of shame can be saved and brought back to useful places in society, although it has straightened out and secured employment for tens of thousands of criminals and has drawn more than 38,000 fallen women into its homes in various parts of the world, although we have shown that the thing which prisons and churches have failed to do can be done and is being done, the possessors of the wealth of the nation are inert, indifferent.

This seething, swelling sea of wretchedness and desperation is a menace to the homes of the country. It is washing away steadily at the moral foundation of your national life. We must organize a science of humanity for the slums. We must have no namby pamby academic missionary nonsense. We have to deal with men and women who think and feel. There is a way of approaching them that will draw them out of the abyss, stir repentance, awaken hope and ambition, and there is a way of approach that will send them more deeply and desperately into hell.

IN LONDON WE HAVE TWO HOMES FOR FALLEN WOMEN SUPPORTED ENTIRELY BY THE EARNINGS OF 3,000 WOMEN DRAWN FROM THE STREETS AND PROVIDED WITH EMPLOYMENT.

New York, April 16.—A fierce wind storm from the northeast swept New York, developing unusual severity after a night of gales. The storm blew shoreward, was accompanied by the highest tide known in years and brought a cold, pelting rain. It did much damage along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts. Congressman Cannon, just back from a trip to Porto Rico and Cuba, speaks hopefully of the future of both islands. He finds no evidence of the discontent and dissatisfaction which are popularly supposed to prevail there. He has traveled over the island and talked with people of all conditions, with the result that he is convinced that Cuba has a soil that is capable of supporting in comfort a population four or five times greater than it has at present. He has inquired into its government and into the character of the men who are now at the front and is satisfied that things are going well and that affairs are in the hands of men who for the most part are conservative and patriotic, as well as friendly to the United States. All of which is good news to the people who fought for Cuba's freedom.

Discussion of the government building site is interesting, but the fact that East Liverpool is at last to have such a building is more so. The matter of the selection of a site now rests entirely with the government, and it is reasonable to suppose that the wishes and convenience of the people of this city will carry weight with its officials. If a selection is to be made from the two sites offered thus far, there is but one of them that will be found to have many advocates save those immediately interested in the sale and others owning property in the vicinity. This fact is patent to everybody. A postoffice should be located in a spot easily accessible and as near the business center as possible. The Brunt site fills these requirements and the other does not.

Good features in the new municipal code are still being discovered and pointed out. Under the provisions regulating both police and fire department, it is made unlawful for any one to solicit subscriptions from any officer or employee with a view to furthering the interests of any political party, and it is likewise unlawful for any officer or employee to make such contribution. In other words, there can be no political assessments levied in either department. And, in this connection, the law has been made broad enough to cover not only cash transactions, but promises of political preferment or support.

Why not get up a big Fourth of July celebration in this city this year? East Liverpool is capable of making such a celebration a huge success. It ought not to be necessary to go away from home for amusement on the great national holiday. We have all the necessary facilities here to make the eagle scream to the limit.

The librarian's report, elsewhere summarized, furnishes the strongest possible arguments showing why the $2,000—more than half of which is already subscribed—should be raised immediately and applied to the purchase of books.

Judging from the Pittsburgh papers, since the Pennsylvania legislature has adjourned a whole lot of our neighbors across the border will be relieved of the necessity of setting up at night for fear of being robbed.

Prophet Dowie's predictions as to the Chicago election were all wrong. And there are many who believe that he can better prophesy concerning things terrestrial than things celestial.

"To advance the negroes, educate them," says Grover Cleveland. The ex-president has at last said something from which there will be no dissent.

Conversationalists who desire to avoid disagreeable subjects must cease to talk about the weather, for the present at least.

OBITUARY

Samuel G. Arbuckle.

Thomas H. Arbuckle, of this city, has been apprised of the death at St. Paul, Minn., of Samuel G. Arbuckle, on Tuesday last. Mr. Arbuckle was 64 years old. He was the son of S. C. and Sarah A. Arbuckle, former residents of East Liverpool, and was born in Fallston, Pa. He had been in failing health for two years. His parents came to this city in 1839 and remained about 20 years, removing to Minnesota. Mr. Arbuckle was formerly a member of General Lyon post, G. A. R., of this city, and had a remarkable military record.

He enlisted in Company A, Sixth Minnesota infantry, in 1862, and before his regiment was sent to the front he was called out to suppress the Indian massacre at Birch Cooley, Minn. His company of 90 mounted infantry was surrounded and attacked after night by 600 or 700 Indians. They fought all night long, from dark until daylight. Forty-five of the 90 were killed and wounded. Mr. Arbuckle was shot through the legs and wounded in the head. His brother, Benjamin F. Arbuckle, went through the same Indian fight without a scratch, and is buried in the National cemetery at Memphis, Tenn. Relief came in the morning, and Mr. Arbuckle was picked up and thought to be dead. He was taken back to St. Paul, placed in the hospital, where he recovered and was honorably discharged from the service.

Mr. Arbuckle was twice married, first to Miss Deborah E. Frederick, of this city, and after her death to Miss Mattie B. Huston, also of East Liverpool. He is survived by his second wife, one sister, Mrs. A. J. Webber, of St. Paul, and the following brothers: Thomas H. Arbuckle, East Liverpool; Dr. G. W. Arbuckle, Cleveland; W. H. and A. J. Arbuckle, of St.

AT THE THEATER

The Topeka State Journal has the following to say of Paul Gilmore:

"The Tyranny of Tears" is one of the few comedies here this season that border on the legitimate. There have been plenty of farce and slap-stick affairs, and it was a relief to see and hear that which developed humor subtle and rich. Mr. Chambers' comedy, though of a smaller breed, is as worthy of a long life as "The School for Scandal," and it is far more decent. In fact, there is nothing vulgar, nothing suggestive and nothing of the low comedy order in the fearful comedy. It is bright, witty and as much a mirror of temperaments and taming as the immortal "Taming of the Shrew."

Mr. Gilmore, who played the leading role of "Clement Parbury," appeared at his best in the role. He has been seen in Topeka before in "The Three Musketeers" and in "Under the Red Robe," but in neither of the romantic and thrilling dramas did he win the favor he did last night. Mr. Gilmore is an actor in the front rank who may be referred to as "American actors of tomorrow" for the zenith of his career has not been reached.

Refined theatergoers are agog over the attraction here of Kathryn Kidder in "An Eye for an Eye." This is the play of the younger Dumas that some of the dramatist's critics have classed on the same high plane of power as his "Camille." The play has been long and eagerly sought by American managers, but entanglements of negotiation with the holders of its foreign rights have delayed its issue here until now. The management of the Grand are to be congratulated upon securing Miss Kidder and her excellent company. At the Grand next Tuesday evening.

"At Cozy Corners," the play in which charming little Adelaide Thurston is to be seen at the Grand opera house Friday, April 17, is said to be the kind that carries the heroine through a series of adventures that quickens the pulse to an excitable pitch. "The theatre was obviously instituted for amusement purposes," said Miss Thurston, in a recent interview "and it serves the same mission to those who seek recess from the sordid cares of life as fairy tales do in the entertainment of children."

James F. MacDonald will be alone in the field of refined comedy this season, as his only rival, William Collier, is now a member of Weber & Field's Stock company, and will not be seen on the road. No one of the younger comedians has made such rapid strides to success as Mr. MacDonald, and his greatest success in his entire career has been won as William Fuller in "Hello, Bill," in which character he will be seen at the Grand next Saturday.

Fighting Continues.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., April 16.—The French cruiser Troude arrived from San Domingo city. She reports that fighting took place there Sunday night and Monday morning between revolutionists and government forces during which several were killed and many were wounded, among the latter being a seaman of the German cruiser Vineta, who is supposed to have been fatally hurt. The Dominican government troops captured a fort, but were eventually repulsed and the fort was retaken. The Dominican revolutionary gunboat Independencia has gone to the north of the island. Another fight was momentarily expected when the Troude sailed, as the revolutionists were preparing to pursue President Vasquez and his troops.

Burned by Gas Explosion.

Pittsburg, April 16.—Three houses in Page street, Allegheny, were wrecked by an explosion of artificial gas and one man was seriously burned. The explosion occurred in the home of William McCune, an Allegheny health officer. Frederick McCune, a son, was repairing a gas jet in the parlor of the house when the explosion occurred. The front of the McCune house was blown out, as were the fronts of the houses on each side of the McCune residence.

Postoffice Investigation Continued.

Postmaster General Payne said the correspondence in the case of Assistant Attorney General Tyner would be made public later on. Mr. Tyner's resignation takes effect May 15. from home for amusement on the great national holiday. We have all the necessary facilities here to make the eagle scream to the limit.

The librarian's report, elsewhere summarized, furnishes the strongest possible arguments showing why the $2,000—more than half of which is already subscribed—should be raised immediately and applied to the purchase of books.

Judging from the Pittsburg papers, since the Pennsylvania legislature has adjourned a whole lot of our neighbors across the border will be relieved of the necessity of setting up at night for fear of being robbed.

Prophet Dowle's predictions as to the Chicago election were all wrong.
And there are many who believe that he can better prophesy concerning things terrestrial than things celestial.

"To advance the negroes, educate them," says Grover Cleveland. The ex-president has at last said something from which there will be no dissent.

OBITUARY

Samuel G. Arbuckle.

Thomas H. Arbuckle, of this city, has been apprised of the death at St.
Paul, Minn., of Samuel G. Arbuckle, on Tuesday last. Mr. Arbuckle was 64 years old. He was the son of S. C. and Sarah A. Arbuckle, former residents of East Liverpool, and was born in Fallston, Pa. He had been in failing health for two years. His parents came to this city in 1839 and remained about 20 years, removing to Minnesota. Mr. Arbuckle was formerly a member of General Lyon post, G. A.
R., of this city, and had a remarkable military record.

He enlisted in Company A, Sixth Minnesota infantry, in 1862, and before his regiment was sent to the front he was called out to suppress the Indian massacre at Birch Cooley, Minn. His company of 90 mounted infantry was surrounded and attacked after night by 600 or 700
Indians. They fought all night long, from dark until daylight. Forty-five of the 90 were killed and wounded.
Mr. Arbuckle was shot through the legs and wounded in the head. His brother, Benjamin F. Arbuckle, went through the same Indian fight without a scratch, and is buried in the National cemetery at Memphis, Tenn. Relief came in the morning, and Mr. Arbuckle was picked up and thought to be dead. He was taken back to St. Paul, placed in the hospital, where he recovered and was honorably discharged from the service.

Mr. Arbuckle was twice married, first to Miss Deborah E. Frederick, of this city, and after her death to Miss Mattie B. Huston, also of East Liverpool. He is survived by his second wife, one sister, Mrs. A. J. Webber, of St. Paul, and the following brothers: Thomas H. Arbuckle, East Liverpool; Dr. G. W. Arbuckle, Cleveland; W. H. and A. J. Arbuckle, of St.

Fine Writing Paper

If a man is known by the company he keeps, you ought also to be able to tell something about him by the kind of writing paper he uses. It does not have be of a good quality. We offer a box of unusually good writ-

AT THE THEATER

The Topeka State Journal has the following to say of Paul Gilmore:

"The Tyranny of Tears" is one of the few comedies here this season that border on the legitimate. There have been plenty of farce and slap-stick affairs, and it was a relief to see and hear that which developed humor subtle and rich. Mr. Chambers' comedy, though of a smaller breed, is as worthy of a long life as "The School for Scandal," and it is far more decent. In fact, there is nothing vulgar, nothing suggestive and nothing of the low comedy order in the tearful comedy. It is bright, witty and as much a mirror of temperaments and taming as the immortal "Taming of the Shrew."

Mr. Gilmore, who played the leading role of "Clement Parbury," appeared at his best in the role. He has been seen in Topeka before in "The Three Musketeers" and in "Under the Red Robe," but in neither of the romantic and thrilling dramas did he win the favor he did last night. Mr. Gilmore is an actor in the front rank who may be referred to as "American actors of tomorrow" for the zenith of his career has not been reached."

Refined theatergoers are agog over the attraction here of Kathryn Kidder in "An Eye for an Eye." This is the play of the younger Dumas that some of the dramatist's critics have classed on the same high plane of power as his "Camille." The play has been long and eagerly sought by American managers, but entanglements of negotiation with the holders of its foreign rights have delayed its issue here until now. The management of the Grand are to be congratulated upon securing Miss Kidder and her excellent company. At the Grand next Tuesday evening.

"At Cozy Corners," the play in which charming little Adelaide Thurston is to be seen at the Grand opera house Friday, April 17, is said to be the kind that carries the heroine through a series of adventures that quicken the pulse to an excitable pitch. "The theatre was obviously instituted for amusement purposes," said
Miss Thurston, in a recent interview "and it serves the same mission to those who seek recess from the sordid cares of life as fairy tales do in the entertainment of children."

James F. MacDonald will be alone in the field of refined comedy this season, as his only rival, William Collier, is now a member of Weber & Field's Stock company, and will not be seen on the road. No one of the younger comedians has made such rapid strides to success as has Mr. MacDonald, and his greatest success in his entire career has been won as William Fuller in "Hello, Bill," in which character he will be seen at the Grand next Saturday.

Fighting Continues.
St. Thomas, D. W. I., April 16.—
The French cruiser Troude arrived from San Domingo city. She reports that fighting took place there Sunday night and Monday morning between revolutionists and government forces, during which several were killed and many were wounded, among the latter being a seaman of the German cruiser Vineta, who is supposed to have been fatally hurt. The Dominican government troops captured a fort, but were eventually repulsed and the fort was retaken. The Dominican revolutionary gunboat Independencia has gone to the north of the island.
Another fight was momentarily expected when the Troude sailed, as the revolutionists were preparing to pursue President Vasquez and his troops.

Burned by Gas Explosion.
Pittsburg, April 16.—Three houses in Page street, Allegheny, were wrecked by an explosion of artificial gas and one man was seriously burned.
The explosion occurred in the home of William McCune, an Allegheny health officer. Frederick McCune, a son, was repairing a gas jet in the parlor of the house when the explosion occurred. The front of the Mc-Cune house was blown out, as were the fronts of the houses on each side of the McCune residence.

Washington, April 16.—Fresh charges are being received constantly at the postoffice department in connection with the investigation now in progress, but their nature is being withheld from the public. Postmaster General Payne said the correspondence in the case of Assistant Attorney General Tynor would be made public later on. Mr. Tynor's resignation takes effect May 15. No successor has yet been chosen.

Warship at Evansville.
Evansville, Ind., April 16.—The United States monitor Arkansas' arrival was followed by a great demonstration. The Arkansas will remain in port two days. She is en route to St. Louis to take part in the world's fair dedication. The Arkansas is the first modern warship to come up the Ohio as far as Evansville, and is the first of any kind of war vessel that has visited port since the Civil war.

Congressman Cannon, just back from a trip to Porto Rico and Cuba, speaks hopefully of the future of both islands. He finds no evidence of the discontent and dissatisfaction which are popularly supposed to prevail there. He has traveled over the island and talked with people of all conditions, with the result that he is convinced that Cuba has a soil that is capable of supporting in comfort a population four or five times greater than it has at present. He has inquired into its government and into the character of the men who are now at the front and is satisfied that things are going well and that affairs are in the hands of men who for the most part are conservative and patriotic, as well as friendly to the United States. All of which is good news to the people who fought for Cuba's freedom.

Discussion of the government building site is interesting, but the fact that East Liverpool is at last to have such a building is more so. The matter of the selection of a site now rests entirely with the government, and it is reasonable to suppose that the wishes and convenience of the people of this city will carry weight with its officials. If a selection is to be made from the two sites offered thus far, there is but one of them that will be found to have many advocates save those immediately interested in the sale and others owning property in the vicinity. This fact is patent to everybody. A postoffice should be located in a spot easily accessible and as near the business center as possible. The Brunt site fills these requirements and the other does not.

pointed out. Under the provisions regulating both police and fire department, it is made unlawful for any one to solicit subscriptions from any officer or employee with a view to furthering the interests of any political party, and it is likewise unlawful for any officer or employee to make such contribution. In other words, there can be no political assessments levied in either department. And, in this connection, the law has been made broad enough to cover not only cash transactions, but promises of political preferment or support.

Why not get up a big Fourth of July celebration in this city this year? East Liverpool is capable of making such a celebration a huge success. It ought not to be necessary to go away from home for amusement on the great national holiday. We have all the necessary facilities here to make the eagle scream to the limit.

The librarian's report, elsewhere summarized, furnishes the strongest possible arguments showing why the $2,000—more than half of which is already subscribed—should be raised immediately and applied to the purchase of books.

Judging from the Pittsburg papers, since the Pennsylvania legislature has adjourned a whole lot of our neighbors across the border will be relieved of the necessity of setting up at night for fear of being robbed.

Prophet Dowle's predictions as to the Chicago election were all wrong. And there are many who believe that he can better prophesy concerning things terrestrial than things celestial.

"To advance the negroes, educate them," says Grover Cleveland. The president has at last said something from which there will be no dissent.

Conversationalists who desire to avoid disagreeable subjects must cease to talk about the weather, for the present at least.

AT THE THEATER

The Topeka State Journal has the following to say of Paul Gilmore:

"The Tyranny of Tears" is one of the few comedies here this season that border on the legitimate. There have been plenty of farce and slapstick affairs, and it was a relief to see and hear that which developed humor subtle and rich. Mr. Chambers' comedy, though of a smaller breed, is as worthy of a long life as "The School for Scandal," and it is far more decent. In fact, there is nothing vulgar, nothing suggestive and nothing of the low comedy order in the tearful comedy. It is bright, witty and as much a mirror of temperaments and taming as the immortal "Taming of the Shrew."

Mr. Gilmore, who played the leading role of "Clement Parbury," appeared at his best in the role. He has been seen in Topeka before in "The Three Musketeers" and in "Under the Red Robe," but in neither of the romantic and thrilling dramas did he win the favor he did last night. Mr. Gilmore is an actor in the front rank who may be referred to as "American actors of tomorrow" for the zenith of his career has not been reached.*

Refined theatergoers are agog over the attraction here of Kathryn Kidder in "An Eye for an Eye." This is the play of the younger Dumas that some of the dramatist's critics have classed on the same high plane of power as his "Camille." The play has been long and eagerly sought by American managers, but entanglements of negotiation with the holders of its foreign rights have delayed its issue here until now. The management of the Grand are to be congratulated upon securing Miss Kidder and her excellent company. At the Grand next Tuesday evening.

"At Cozy Corners," the play in which charming little Adelaide Thurston is to be seen at the Grand opera house Friday, April 17, is said to be the kind that carries the heroine through a series of adventures that quickens the pulse to an excitable pitch. "The theatre was obviously instituted for amusement purposes," said Miss Thurston, in a recent interview, "and it serves the same mission to those who seek recess from the sordid cares of life as fairy tales do in the entertainment of children."

James F. MacDonald will be alone in the field of refined comedy this season, as his only rival, William Collier, is now a member of Weber & Field's Stock company, and will not be seen on the road. No one of the younger comedians has made such rapid strides to success as has Mr. MacDonald, and his greatest success in his entire career has been won as William Fuller in "Hello, Bill," in which character he will be seen at the Grand next Saturday.

Fighting Continues.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., April 16.—The French cruiser Troude arrived from San Domingo city. She reports that fighting took place there Sunday night and Monday morning between revolutionists and government forces, during which several were killed and many were wounded, among the latter being a seaman of the German cruiser Vineta, who is supposed to have been fatally hurt. The Dominican government troops captured a fort, but were eventually repulsed and the fort was retaken. The Dominican revolutionary gunboat Independencia has gone to the north of the island. Another fight was momentarily expected when the Troude sailed, as the revolutionists were preparing to pursue President Vasquez and his troops.

WELLSVILLE

LASTED ONLY 24 HOURS

The Strike at the Carroll-Porter Boiler Works Was Soon Over.

The strike at the Carroll-Porter boiler works is now over and most of the men returned to work this morning. The punchers and riveters, however, did not go to work with the rest, as there is some disagreement about their wage scale. The men did not go out so much on account of a non union man being employed, but because he was not a practical mechanic and receiving the same pay as the other men working with him. They complained but were not heeded, so they decided to refuse to work while this man was employed. They were out just twenty-four hours when the man was discharged and they were asked to return.

The union held an open meeting in the Potters' hall yesterday afternoon and discussed the situation. About six months ago a contract was drawn up and signed by both the company and the employees relative to the wages paid and the number of working hours. The union also agreed to furnish all the men that were needed. It has been impossible for the union to supply enough men; so, it is asserted, cheap labor has been engaged and some of the men are breaking the contract.

The six months for which time the agreement was made will be up in thirteen days, at which time the company will be asked to sign another scale of wages and also an agreement to do away with cheap labor. The union will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening and the new agreement will no doubt receive considerable attention.

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank of Wellsville, an entirely different board of directors was elected. The old board was composed of J. W. Rife, president; J. W. Hammond, vice president; S. S. Cope, F. L. Wells, H. A. Thompson, W. P. Sharer and N. K. Mackenzie. The newly elected board is composed of E. H. Riggs, president; J. W. Hammond, vice president; J. F. Hamilton, D. S. Brookman, H. C. De Sellem, H. B. Nicholson and A. P. Smith. The office force will not be changed and W. P. Sharer will still continue as cashier.

Mr. Sharer, the cashier, stated that the greater part of the stock had changed hands and at present the bank was under an entirely new management.

FOOT BADLY CRUSHED

Colored Employee at Railroad Shops Has Several Bones Broken.

Edward Bailey, a colored employee at the railroad shops, last evening had several bones broken in his foot. He is engaged in the boiler room and just before quitting time, with several other employees, was moving a large tank. Bailey was in front of the tank so that it could not roll too fast, when he tripped and fell and the tank rolled over his right foot, breaking several bones. He was picked up and carried to his boarding house in the West End.

Dr. Campbell was called and dressed the injuries. At first it was thought the foot was so badly crushed that amputation would be necessary, but after careful examination this proved not the case and in a few weeks, with careful attention, the foot will be entirely well.

Fingers Badly Crushed.

Manovole Divenza, an Italian laborer employed at the sheet mill, had the two middle fingers of his right hand badly crushed. His work is to load and haul sheets of heavy iron from one part of the mill to another. While he, with an assistant, was engaged in loading a cart with these heavy sheets, one of the pieces dropped, striking him and pinning his hand fast to the floor. The iron had to be ## Brought No Ducks Home.

Henry Patterson and Dr. Fraser, two prominent sportsmen, took a day off on Tuesday and went duck hunting. They went to a place called The Clusters, a few miles west of this city. They reported a fine time and of having shot several ducks, but brought home none.

The five delegates from the local unions of the city have been elected and the council will be reorganized on the first Thursday evening in May.

The Mill Idle.

On account of the break in the main pipe of the Ohio Valley Gas company, the sheet mill was shut down last evening. No work was done all last night. The break is being repaired and will no doubt be finished some time today, and the mill will start up at once.

One Old Custom That Survives.

An ancient custom which still survives was to roll eggs down a hill, the one which reached the bottom intact winning the rest. A survival of this custom is found in Washington, where the children gather in the White House grounds on Easter Monday and roll eggs down the grassy slope in front of the building.

CONCERT FESTIVAL

Entertainment at the Park Raised a Neat Sum for Church Building Fund.

The concert and festival given by the ladies of the Sacred Heart Catholic church at Rock Springs pavilion last evening was a complete success both financially and in the matter of attendance. The receipts, after the expenses have been paid, will be added to the building fund.

The program was the best ever listened to at the park, and some of the numbers were as near perfect as it would be possible to make them. The musicians represented the best talent of East Liverpool and several surrounding cities. The choir of St. Aloysius Catholic church of East Liverpool provided the chorus music, and it was a rare treat. All of the numbers on the program elicited applause and were highly appreciated.

In a pleasing manner Miss Elizabeth Hamil opened the musical treat with several difficult piano selections rendered in a manner which was most pleasing to the listeners. She is a performer of the highest order, and has taken a place among the foremost artists in this part of the state.

Miss Emma Connelly, of Wheeling, who is a great favorite with East Liverpool audiences, sang a number of beautiful solos. Miss Connelly possesses a voice of wonderful richness and the manner in which she controls it indicates perfect cultivation.

Mr. Clemens, of Wheeling, is a soloist who experts predict will be heard from in no distant future. He is a tenor and sang two selections in fine style.

"May Morning" and "Gypsy Maiden" were the titles of two solos rendered by Miss Elizabeth Luthringer, of Pittsburg. Miss Luthringer's singing was appreciated when she was a resident of East Liverpool, and she has developed into a soprano of wonderful ability.

Miss Margaret King's selection was "Violets," and the rendition was among the best on the program.

A mandolin duet by Messrs. Samuel and David Groglode pleased the audience so well that they were heartily encouraged.

Ed. Mackintosh's ability as a baritone is well known to East Liverpool audiences, and last night he sang in especially good form. His was the concluding number, and received hearty applause and an encore.

BRANDON-WILSON

Wedding of a Popular Young Couple at the County Seat.

One of the prettiest wedding ceremonies celebrated in New Cumberland in many years was that which united the lives and fortunes of Clifton Wilson and Miss Edna Brandon, both of the county seat. The ceremony, which was a most beautiful one, was performed by Rev. J. S. Hamilton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New Cumberland at high noon today.

A large number of guests were present and the happy pair were made the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. At the conclusion of the festivities a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The couple will reside in New Cumberland, where they are both well known and very popular.

Among the Chester people present was C. M. Evans, the popular salesman at Allison & Hobbs' establishment.

PRESBYTERY MEETING

Chester Represented For First Time. Proposed West Virginia Synod.

Squire A. G. Pugh arrived home last night from Washington, Pa., where he attended a meeting of the Washington presbytery, representing the Chester congregation. The Chester church was only organized in February, and this is the first time it has had a voice in the presbytery.

Mr. Pugh was pleased with the meeting, and will have an interesting report to make to his people.

The question of having a new synod of the churches in West Virginia, a committee of five was appointed to confer with the Pittsburg presbytery and if sufficient churches can be secured by Washington to have a large synod the West Virginia churches will be allowed to form a synod.

ously handicapping the workmen at the park. Manager Maxwell estimates that it will require at least two weeks more of suitable weather to put the park in shape. Another drawback has been the failure of the park people to receive material. Several carloads of lumber are now on the road, and though the bill was received in Chester several days ago, no trace of the consignment can be obtained.

FINE NEW BUILDING

To Be Erected By the Chester Grocery—Additional Ground Bought.

The Chester Grocery company has just closed a deal whereby it acquires a lot 45 feet fronting on First street and adjoining the present establishment. The consideration is private, but the company is making no secret of its future intentions. With the 45 feet formerly owned by the company and on which the two-story brick is now located, the concern will have a frontage of 90 feet.

Upon this site it is proposed to erect a modern three-story brick business block, the entire ground floor of which they expect to occupy with their constantly increasing business. Work upon the proposed building will be commenced at once, and it is expected that it can be completed and ready for occupancy within three months.

NO COMMISSIONER

And the Streets of Chester Show the Need of Such an Officer.

Chester is still without a street commissioner, and inconvenience has finally given way to downright suffering from the many annoyances occasioned by the filthy condition of the streets.

Those thoroughfares which have not yet been paved are positively impassable to traffic, while the paved streets have become so dirty that it is almost impossible to tell that there is a brick foundation underneath. What makes the situation worse is the fact that there is no indication of any relief soon, as there is not a single application in for the position.

The damage case of P. H. McCrackin versus A. M. Fowler is being tried in the court of Justice A. G. Pugh this afternoon. The amount asked is $20 and is claimed for damage to personal property.

Reception Today.

A reception was held this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Severs in Chester in honor of their son, Grover Cleveland Severs, and his bride, who were married yesterday. A large number of guests called during the day and a very pleasant time was spent.

CHESTER NOTES.

Fred Sinclair will on Monday move to the Columbus Cunningham property.

Ex-senator J. R. Donahoo, of New Cumberland, was a Chester visitor today.

Edward Baxter and Fred Sinclair are erecting a barn on Mr. Baxter's property on Adolphus street.

The Daughters of St. George of East Liverpool will hold a dance at the Rock Springs pavilion tonight.

All of the Chester potteries are idle today in nearly every department, owing to a shortage in the gas supply.

Contractor W. H. Coates, of Beaver Falls, is making preparations to resume his paving contracts in Chester next week.

At the city election held in Wellsburg last Tuesday the town was once more voted dry by 255 of a majority. A Democratic mayor was elected.

The new residence of Lawrence and that of Thomas Croxall, both located on Adolphus street, are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy within a short time.

As an example of the active building operations going on in Chester, there are now nine houses on Adolphus street where a year ago there was not a single building.

Brewery Workers Reinstated.

Cincinnati, April 16.—When the brewery workers struck at Columbus, O., and Cincinnati brewers sent their product to that city it was boycotted. In retaliation 150 brewery workers in Cincinnati were then locked out, but all were reinstated after Louis Kemper, national secretary of the United Brewery Workmen, issued a statement that the boycott in Columbus was declared through a misunderstanding and he officially announced that the Cincinnati product was fair and should be upheld as the product of union breweries.

Fatal Fire.

Pittsburg, April 16.—One man was burned to death, another broke his shoulder bone and a third was badly burned about the arms and hands during a fire in an Italian boarding house in Boundary street, Junction hollow. The dead: Mike Bernardi, 26 years old, a laborer, who boarded in the house. The injured: Mike Bolachio, jumped from the second-story window of a house three doors away and broke his shoulder bone; John Borelli, 19 years old, badly burned about the arms and hands.

Six Killed in Explosion.

Bluefields, W. Va., April 16.—News reached here of a terrible explosion at Vivian, W. Va., at the mines of the Peerless Coal and Coke company. A small shanty containing a large amount of powder near the mine caught fire in some unexplained manner and an explosion followed. Six men are reported killed and several others seriously injured. The names of the dead and injured are not known.

Traction Line May Be Sold.

Cleveland, April 16.—Active negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Tuscarawas Traction company, which is largely owned by Cleveland capitalists, to the Tucker-Anthony syndicate, of Boston. Preliminary conferences have been held and there is good reason to believe that the deal will go through. The Tuscarawas line connects New Philadelphia, Canal Dover and Ulrichsville.

Veteran Brakeman Killed.

Martinsburg, W. Va., April 16.—Gus Thompson, aged 60 years, freight conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was struck by a passenger train near Sir John's Run, W. Va., and killed. His train parted and he stepped from the caboose to the west-bound track to flag when struck.

Roosevelt Still in Park.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 16.—President Roosevelt is somewhere in Yellowstone park between Soda, Butte and Yancey's. An incident that occurred in the park shows how closely every approach to the president is guarded. An employee of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company was discovered by a member of the Third cavalry about five miles from where the president made his camp. The man probably was there on business, but the soldier asked no questions and would listen to no explanation. He placed the employee under arrest and marched him to the post headquarters at the point of a pistol. There the man disclosed his identity and was released.

Pope's Health Is Perfect.

Rome, April 16.—Dr. Lapponi says that he has not vetoed any celebration on April 28, when his holiness will reach the age of St. Peter, as no celebration was ever proposed for that date, the pope thinking that the jubilee festivities just finished were quite enough. Dr. Lapponi added that the health of the pope was now perfect, considering his age, and if nothing unforeseen happened he thought that Pope Leo will live to be at least a centenarian.

Shot Wife and Then Suicided.

Philadelphia, April 16.—Frank Mayson, aged 30 years, shot his wife in the head as she was walking along the street and then swallowed a quantity of cyanide of potassium. They were both taken to a hospital, where Mayson died. His wife will recover. The couple had been separated for some time and the woman's refusal to return to him is said to have caused the tragedy.

Killed by Brother-in-Law.

Princeton, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. A. H. Eaton, aged 24 years, was shot and instantly killed by her brother-in-law, Charley Eaton, aged 17 years. The revolver has not been found. The coroner is investigating. Mrs. Eaton was the wife of Alva Eaton, a Southern railway employee.

Murderer Resisted.

Bad Fire in Milwaukee.

The loss is estimated at about $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The plant will be rebuilt. About 300 men will be temporarily thrown out of employment.

An Easy Problem.

Hubbard Lawton, familiarly known as "Hub," was by common consent the most shiftless man in Pineville. The most easy going woman in the town was Lucy Harmon, who did a little dressmaking when the fit seized her; but as a rule she sat tranquilly on her front doorstep in summer, and in her front window during spring, autumn and winter, doing nothing whatever with great contentment of mind and body.

Hub required financial aid from his relatives every month, and it was understood that Lucy received contributions from her neighbors without any false pride. When it was announced by Hub that he and Lucy were soon to be married, a plain spoken neighbor asked a pointed question:

"How are you and Lucy expecting to live?" she inquired. "Who's going to earn your bread and butter, Hub? Lucy's folks nor her neighbors won't feel any call to feed her when she's married to an able-bodied man."

"Why," said Hub reproachfully, "I don't know what folks are thinking of! Half a dozen people have asked me that same question. I can almost support myself, and Lucy can almost support herself, and I should think anybody with a head for fingers could see that when we fine forces there'll be something left over for a rainy day."

Too Many Cheers.

"It's a blamed shame!" said one of the defeated pugilists' friends. "If somebody 'd only give him a cheering word he wouldn't feel so sore." "Cheerin' words be hangin'!" replied his manager. "It's de 'burrays' of de crowd dat makes him sore."—Philadelphia Press.

LASTED ONLY 24 HOURS

The Strike at the Carroll-Porter Boiler Works Was Soon Over.

The strike at the Carroll-Porter boiler works is now over and most of the men returned to work this morning. The punchers and riveters, however, did not go to work with the rest, as there is some disagreement about their wage scale. The men did not go out so much on account of a non-union man being employed, but because he was not a practical mechanic and receiving the same pay as the other men working with him. They complained but were not heeded, so they decided to refuse to work while this man was employed. They were out last twenty-four hours when the man was discharged and they were asked to return.

The union held an open meeting in the Potters' hall yesterday afternoon and discussed the situation. About six months ago a contract was drawn up and signed by both the company and the employees relative to the wages paid and the number of working hours. The union also agreed to furnish all the men that were needed. It has been impossible for the union to supply enough men; so, it is asserted, cheap labor has been engaged and some of the men are breaking the contract.

The six months for which time the agreement was made will be up in thirteen days, at which time the company will be asked to sign another scale of wages and also an agreement to do away with cheap labor. The union will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening and the new agreement will no doubt receive considerable attention.

BANK STOCK SOLD; NEW OFFICERS IN

An Important Change in the Affairs of the First National.

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank of Wellsville, an entirely different board of directors was elected. The old board was composed of J. W. Riey, president; J. W. Hammond, vice president; S. S. Cope, F. L. Wells, H. A. Thompson, W. P. Sharer and N. K. Mackenzie. The newly elected board is composed of E. H. Riggs, president; J. W. Hammond, vice president; J. F. Hamilton, D. S. Brookman, H. C. De Sellen, H. B. Nicholson and A. P. Smith. The office force will not be changed and W. P. Sharer will still continue as cashier.

Mr. Sharer, the cashier, stated that the greater part of the stock had changed hands and at present the bank was under an entirely new management.

FOOT BADLY CRUSHED

Colored Employee at Railroad Shops Has Several Bones Broken.

Edward Bailey, a colored employee at the railroad shops, last evening had several bones broken in his foot. He is engaged in the boiler room and just before quitting time, with several other employees, was moving a large tank. Bailey was in front of the tank so that it could not roll too fast, when he tripped and fell and the tank rolled over his right foot, breaking several bones. He was picked up and carried to his boarding house in the West End.

Dr. Campbell was called and dressed the injuries. At first it was thought the foot was so badly crushed that amputation would be necessary, but after careful examination this proved not the case and in a few weeks, with careful attention, the foot will be entirely well.

Fingers Badly Crushed.

Manovento Diveneza, an Italian laborer employed at the sheet mill, had the two middle fingers of his right hand badly crushed. His work is to load and haul sheets of heavy iron from one part of the mill to another. While he, with an assistant, was engaged in loading a cart with these heavy sheets, one of the pieces dropped, striking him and pinning his hand fast to the floor. The iron had to be removed before he could withdraw his hand. Dr. Noble dressed the injury. It was necessary to amputate one finger at the first joint, but the other can be saved.

Brought No Ducks Home.

Henry Patterson and Dr. Fraser, two prominent sportsmen, took a day off on Tuesday and went duck hunting. They went to a place called The Clusters, a few miles west of this city. They left at the break of day and were gone until late in the afternoon. When they returned they came in by a back street. They reported a fine time and of having shot several ducks, but brought none home.

Last Meeting of Old Council.

The trades and labor council will hold its regular meeting in Potters' hall this evening. This will be the last meeting of the present council and a large amount of business will be transacted. The five delegates from the local unions of the city have been elected and the council will be reorganized on the first Thursday evening in May.

The Mill Idle.

On account of the break in the main pipe of the Ohio Valley Gas company, the sheet mill was shut down last evening. No work was done all last night. The break is being repaired and will no doubt be finished some time today, and the mill will start up at once.

One Old Custom That Survives.

An ancient custom which still survives was to roll eggs down a hill, the one which reached the bottom intact winning the rest. A survival of this custom is found in Washington, where the children gather in the White House grounds on Easter Monday and roll eggs down the grassy slope in front of the building.

CONCERT FESTIVAL

Entertainment at the Park Raised a Neat Sum for Church Building Fund.

The concert and festival given by the ladies of the Sacred Heart Catholic church at Rock Springs pavilion last evening was a complete success both financially and in the matter of attendance. The receipts, after the expenses have been paid, will be added to the building fund.

The program was the best ever listened to at the park, and some of the numbers were as near perfect as it would be possible to make them. The musicians represented the best talent of East Liverpool and several surrounding cities. The choir of St. Aloysius Catholic church of East Liverpool provided the chorus music, and it was a rare treat. All of the numbers on the program elicited applause and were highly appreciated.

In a pleasing manner Miss Elizabeth Hamill opened the musical treat with several difficult piano selections rendered in a manner which was most pleasing to the listeners. She is a performer of the highest order, and has taken a place among the foremost artists in this part of the state.

Miss Emma Connelly, of Wheeling, who is a great favorite with East Liverpool audiences, sang a number of beautiful solos. Miss Connelly possesses a voice of wonderful richness and the manner in which she controls it indicates perfect cultivation.

Mr. Clemens, of Wheeling, is a soloist who experts predict will be heard from in no distant future. He is a tenor and sang two selections in fine style.

"May Morning" and "Gypsy Maiden" were the titles of two solos rendered by Miss Elizabeth Luthringer, of Pittsburg. Miss Luthringer's singing was appreciated when she was a resident of East Liverpool, and she has developed into a soprano of wonderful ability.

Miss Margaret King's selection was "Violens," and the rendition was among the best on the program.

A mandolin duet by Messrs. Samuel and Davis Groggled pleased the audience so well that they were heartily encored.

Ed. Mackintosh's ability as a baritone is well known to East Liverpool audiences, and last night he sang in especially good form. His was the concluding number, and received hearty applause and an encore.

BRANDON-WILSON

Wedding of a Popular Young Couple at the County Seat.

One of the prettiest wedding ceremonies celebrated in New Cumberland in many years was that which united the lives and fortunes of Clifton Wilson and Miss Edna Brandon, both of the county seat. The ceremony, which was a most beautiful one, was performed by Rev. J. S. Hamilton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New Cumberland at high noon today.

A large number of guests were present and the happy pair were made the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. At the conclusion of the festivities a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The couple will reside in New Cumberland, where they are both well known and very popular.

Among the Chester people present was C. M. Evans, the popular salesman at Allison & Hobbs' establishment.

PRESBYTERY MEETING

Chester Represented For First Time. Proposed West Virginia Synod.

Squire A. G. Pugh arrived home last night from Washington, Pa., where he attended a meeting of the Washington presbytery, representing the Chester congregation. The Chester church was only organized in February, and this is the first time it has had a voice in the presbytery.

Mr. Pugh was pleased with the meeting, and will have an interesting report to make to his people.

The question of having a new synod of the churches in West Virginia, a committee of five was appointed to confer with the Pittsburg presbytery and if sufficient churches can be secured by Washington to have a large synod the West Virginia churches will be allowed to form a synod.

ously handicapping the workmen at the park. Manager Maxwell estimates that it will require at least two weeks more of suitable weather to put the park in shape. Another drawback has been the failure of the park people to receive material. Several carloads of lumber are now on the road, and though the bill was received in Chester several days ago, no trace of the consignment can be obtained.

FINE NEW BUILDING

To Be Erected By the Chester Grocery—Additional Ground Bought.

The Chester Grocery company has just closed a deal whereby it acquires a lot 45 feet fronting on First street and adjoining the present establishment. The consideration is private, but the company is making no secret of its future intentions. With the 45 feet formerly owned by the company and on which the two-story brick is now located, the concern will have a frontage of 90 feet.

Upon this site it is proposed to erect a modern three-story brick business block, the entire ground floor of which they expect to occupy with their constantly increasing business. Work upon the proposed building will be commenced at once, and it is expected that it can be completed and ready for occupancy within three months.

NO COMMISSIONER

And the Streets of Chester Show the Need of Such an Officer.

Chester is still without a street commissioner, and inconvenience has finally given way to downright suffering from the many annoyances occasioned by the filthy condition of the streets.

Those thoroughfares which have not yet been paved are positively impassable to traffic, while the paved streets have become so dirty that it is almost impossible to tell that there is a brick foundation underneath. What makes the situation worse is the fact that there is no indication of any relief soon, as there is not a single application in for the position.

Amount Asked Is $20.

The damage case of P. H. McCracken versus A. M. Fowler is being tried in the court of Justice A. G. Pugh this afternoon. The amount asked is $20 and is claimed for damage to personal property.

Reception Today.

A reception was held this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Severs in Chester in honor of their son, Grover Cleveland Severs, and his bride, who were married yesterday. A large number of guests called during the day and a very pleasant time was spent.

CHESTER NOTES.

Fred Sinclair will on Monday move to the Columbus Cunningham property.

Ex-senator J. R. Donahoo, of New Cumberland, was a Chester visitor today.

Edward Baxter and Fred Sinclair are erecting a barn on Mr. Baxter's property on Adolphus street.

The Daughters of St. George of East Liverpool will hold a dance at the Rock Springs pavilion tonight.

All of the Chester petteries are idle today in nearly every department, owing to a shortage in the gas supply.

Contractor W. H. Coates, of Beaver Falls, is making preparations to resume his paving contracts in Chester next week.

At the city election held in Wellsburg last Tuesday the town was once more voted dry by 255 of a majority. A Democratic mayor was elected.

The new residence of Lawrence and that of Thomas Croxall, both located on Adolphus street, are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy within a short time.

As an example of the active building operations going on in Chester, there are now nine houses on Adolphus street where a year ago there was not a single building.

Brewery Workers Reinstated.

Cincinnati, April 16.—When the brewery workers struck at Columbus, O., and Cincinnati brewers sent their product to that city it was boycotted. In retaliation 150 brewery workers in Cincinnati were then locked out, but all were reinstated after Louis Kemper, national secretary of the United Brewery Workers, issued a statement that the boycott in Columbus was declared through a misunderstanding and he officially announced that the Cincinnati product was fair and should be upheld as the product of union breweries.

Fatal Fire.

Pittsburg, April 16.—One man was burned to death, another broke his shoulder bone and a third was badly burned about the arms and hands during a fire in an Italian boarding house in Boundary street, Junction hollow. The dead: Mike Bernardi, 26 years old, a laborer, who boarded in the house. The injured: Mike Bolachio, jumped from the second-story window of a house three doors away and broke his shoulder bone; John Borelli, 19 years old, badly burned about the arms and hands.

Six Killed in Explosion.

Bluefields, W. Va., April 16.—News reached here of a terrible explosion at Vivian, W. Va., at the mines of the Peerless Coal and Coke company. A small shanty containing a large amount of powder near the mine caught fire in some unexplained manner and an explosion followed. Six men are reported killed and several others seriously injured. The names of the dead and injured are not known.

Traction Line May Be Sold.

Cleveland, April 16.—Active negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Tuscarawas Traction company, which is largely owned by Cleveland capitalists, to the Tucker-Anthony syndicate, of Boston. Preliminary conferences have been held and there is good reason to believe that the deal will go through. The Tuscarawas line connects New Philadelphia, Canal Dover and Uhrichsville.

Veteran Brakeman Killed.

Martinsburg, W. Va., April 16.—Gus Thompson, aged 60 years, freight conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was struck by a passenger train near Sir John's Run, W. Va., and killed. His train parted and he stepped from the caboose to the west-bound track to flag when struck.

Homes Flooded.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 16.—Thirty families in Central Terre Haute were compelled to abandon their homes on account of the sudden rise of the Wabash river. The water stands 19 feet here and is still rising.

Roosevelt Still in Park.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 16.—President Roosevelt is somewhere in Yellowstone park between Soda, Butte and Yancey's. An incident that occurred in the park shows how closely every approach to the president is guarded. An employee of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company was discovered by a member of the Third cavalry about five miles from where the president made his camp. The man probably was there on business, but the soldier asked no questions and would listen to no explanation. He placed the employee under arrest and marched him to the post headquarters at the point of a pistol. There the man disclosed his identity and was released.

Pope's Health Is Perfect.

Rome, April 16.—Dr. Laponi says that he has not vetoed any celebration on April 28, when his holiness will reach the age of 81. Peter, as no celebration was ever proposed for that date, the pope thinking that the jubilee festivities just finished were quite enough. Dr. Laponi added that the health of the pope was now perfect, considering his age, and if nothing unforeseen happened he thought that Pope Leo will live to be at least a centenarian.

Shot Wife and Then Suicided.

Philadelphia, April 16.—Frank Mawson, aged 39 years, shot his wife in the head as she was walking along the street and then swallowed a quantity of cyanide of potassium. They were both taken to a hospital, where Mawson died. His wife will recover. The couple had been separated for some time and the woman's refusal to return to him is said to have caused the tragedy.

Killed by Brother-in-Law.

Princeton, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. A. H. Eaton, aged 24 years, was shot and instantly killed by her brother-in-law, Charley Eaton, aged 17 years. The revolver has not been found. The coroner is investigating. Mrs. Eaton was the wife of Alva Eaton, a Southern railway employee.

Murderer Resisted.

Pittsburg, April 16.—"Buck" Saunders, the negro under sentence of death in the county jail, has been resisted until June 25 in order that his case may be brought before the pardon board in May. Saunders was to have been hanged April 23.

Bad Fire in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, April 16.—The main plant of the Pawling & Harnischfeger company, manufacturers of electric cranes and other machinery, was gutted by fire. The loss is estimated at about $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The plant will be rebuilt. About 300 men will be temporarily thrown out of employment.

An Easy Problem.

Hubbard Lawton, familiarly known as "Hub," was by common consent the most shiftless man in Pineville. The most easy going woman in the town was Lucy Harmon, who did a little dressmaking when the fit seized her; but as a rule she sat tranquilly on her front doorstep in summer, and in her front window during spring, autumn and winter, doing nothing whatever with great contentment of mind and body.

Hub required financial aid from his relatives every month, and it was understood that Lucy received contributions from her neighbors without any false pride. When it was announced by Hub that he and Lucy were soon to be married, a plain spoken neighbor asked a pointed question:

"How are you and Lucy expecting to live?" she inquired. "Who's going to earn your bread and butter, Hub? Lucy's folks nor her neighbors won't feel any call to feed her when she's married to an able-bodied man."

"Why," said Hub reproachfully, "I don't know what folks are thinking of! Half a dozen people have asked me that same question. I can almost support myself, and Lucy can almost support herself, and I should think anybody with a head for figgers could see that when we fine forces there'll be something left over for a rainy day."

Too Many Cheers.

"It's a blamed shame!" said one of the defeated pugilists' friends. "If somebody 'd only give him a cheering word he wouldn't feel so sore." "Cheerin' words be hangin'" replied his manager. "It's de 'burrays' of de crowd dat makes him sore."—Philadelphia Press.

ously handicapping the workmen at the park. Manager Maxwell estimates that it will require at least two weeks more of suitable weather to put the park in shape. Another drawback has been the failure of the park people to receive material. Several carloads of lumber are now on the road, and though the bill was received in Chester several days ago, no trace of the consignment can be obtained.

FINE NEW BUILDING

To Be Erected By the Chester Grocery—Additional Ground Bought.

The Chester Grocery company has just closed a deal whereby it acquires a lot 45 feet fronting on First street and adjoining the present establishment. The consideration is private, but the company is making no secret of its future intentions. With the 45 feet formerly owned by the company and on which the two-story brick is now located, the concern will have a frontage of 90 feet.

Upon this site it is proposed to erect a modern three-story brick business block, the entire ground floor of which they expect to occupy with their constantly increasing business. Work upon the proposed building will be commenced at once, and it is expected that it can be completed and ready for occupancy within three months.

NO COMMISSIONER

And the Streets of Chester Show the Need of Such an Officer.

Chester is still without a street commissioner, and inconvenience has finally given way to downright suffering from the many annoyances occasioned by the filthy condition of the streets.

Those thoroughfares which have not yet been paved are positively impassable to traffic, while the paved streets have become so dirty that it is almost impossible to tell that there is a brick foundation underneath. What makes the situation worse is the fact that there is no indication of any relief soon, as there is not a single application in for the position.

Amount Asked Is $20.

The damage case of P. H. McCrackin versus A. M. Fowler is being tried in the court of Justice A. G. Pugh this afternoon. The amount asked is $20 and is claimed for damage to personal property.

Reception Today.

A reception was held this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Severs in Chester in honor of their son, Grover Cleveland Severs, and his bride, who were married yesterday. A large number of guests called during the day and a very pleasant time was spent.

CHESTER NOTES.

Fred Sinclair will on Monday move to the Columbus Cunningham property.

Ex-senator J. R. Donahoe, of New Cumberland, was a Chester visitor today.

Edward Baxter and Fred Sinclair are erecting a barn on Mr. Baxter's property on Adolphus street.

The Daughters of St. George of East Liverpool will hold a dance at the Rock Springs pavilion tonight.

All of the Chester petteries are idle today in nearly every department, owing to a shortage in the gas supply.

Contractor W. H. Coates, of Beaver Falls, is making preparations to resume his paving contracts in Chester next week.

At the city election held in Wellsburg last Tuesday the town was once more voted dry by 255 of a majority. A Democratic mayor was elected.

The new residence of Lawrence and that of Thomas Croxall, both located on Adolphus street, are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy within a short time.

As an example of the active building operations going on in Chester, there are now nine houses on Adolphus street where a year ago there was not a single building.

Brewery Workers Reinstated.

Cincinnati, April 16.—When the brewery workers struck at Columbus, O., and Cincinnati brewers sent their product to that city it was boycotted. In retaliation 150 brewery workers in Cincinnati were then locked out, but all were reinstated after Louis Kemper, national secretary of the United Brewery Workers, issued a statement that the boycott in Columbus was declared through a misunderstanding and he officially announced that the Cincinnati product was fair and should be upheld as the product of union breweries.

Fatal Fire.

Pittsburg, April 16.—One man was burned to death, another broke his shoulder bone and a third was badly burned about the arms and hands during a fire in an Italian boarding house in Boundary street, Junction hollow. The dead: Mike Bernardi, 26 years old, a laborer, who boarded in the house. The injured: Mike Bolachio, jumped from the second-story window of a house three doors away and broke his shoulder bone; John Borelli, 19 years old, badly burned about the arms and hands.

Six Killed in Explosion.

Bluefields, W. Va., April 16.—News reached here of a terrible explosion at Vivian, W. Va., at the mines of the Peerless Coal and Coke company. A small shanty containing a large amount of powder near the mine caught fire in some unexplained manner and an explosion followed. Six men are reported killed and several others seriously injured. The names of the dead and injured are not known.

Traction Line May Be Sold.

Cleveland, April 16.—Active negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Tuscarawas Traction company, which is largely owned by Cleveland capitalists, to the Tucker-Anthony syndicate, of Boston. Preliminary conferences have been held and there is good reason to believe that the deal will go through. The Tuscarawas line connects New Philadelphia, Canal Dover and Ulrichsville.

Veteran Brakeman Killed.

Martinsburg, W. Va., April 16.—Gus Thompson, aged 60 years, freight conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was struck by a passenger train near Sir John's Run, W. Va., and killed. His train parted and he stepped from the caboose to the west-bound track to flag when struck.

Homes Flooded.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 16.—Thirty families in Central Terre Haute were compelled to abandon their homes on account of the sudden rise of the Wabash river. The water stands 19 feet here and is still rising.

Roosevelt Still in Park.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 16.—President Roosevelt is somewhere in Yellowstone park between Soda, Butte and Yancey's. An incident that occurred in the park shows how closely every approach to the president is guarded. An employee of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company was discovered by a member of the Third cavalry about five miles from where the president made his camp. The man probably was there on business, but the soldier asked no questions and would listen to no explanation. He placed the employee under arrest and marched him to the post headquarters at the point of a pistol. There the man disclosed his identity and was released.

Pope's Health Is Perfect.

Rome, April 16.—Dr. Lapponi says that he has not vetoed any celebration on April 23, when his holiness will reach the age of St. Peter, as no celebration was ever proposed for that date, the pope thinking that the jubilee festivities just finished were quite enough. Dr. Lapponi added that the health of the pope was now perfect, considering his age, and if nothing unforeseen happened he thought that Pope Leo will live to be at least a centenarian.

Shot Wife and Then Suicided.

Philadelphia, April 16.—Frank Mawson, aged 30 years, shot his wife in the head as she was walking along the street and then swallowed a quantity of cyanide of potassium. They were both taken to a hospital, where Mawson died. His wife will recover. The couple had been separated for some time and the woman's refusal to return to him is said to have caused the tragedy.

Killed by Brother-in-Law.

Princeton, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. A. H. Eaton, aged 24 years, was shot and instantly killed by her brother-in-law, Charley Eaton, aged 17 years. The revolver has not been found. The coroner is investigating. Mrs. Eaton was the wife of Alva Eaton, a Southern railway employee.

Murderer Resisted.

Pittsburg, April 16.—"Buck" Saunders, the negro under sentence of death in the county jail, has been resisted until June 25 in order that his case may be brought before the pardon board in May. Saunders was to have been hanged April 23.

Bad Fire in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, April 16.—The main plant of the Pawling & Harnischfeger company, manufacturers of electric cranes and other machinery, was gutted by fire. The loss is estimated at about $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The plant will be rebuilt. About 300 men will be temporarily thrown out of employment.

An Easy Problem.

Hubbard Lawton, familiarly known as "Hub," was by common consent the most shiftless man in Pineville. The most easy going woman in the town was Lucy Harmon, who did a little dressmaking when the fit seized her; but as a rule she sat tranquilly on her front doorstep in summer, and in her front window during spring, autumn and winter, doing nothing whatever with great contentment of mind and body.

Hub required financial aid from his relatives every month, and it was understood that Lucy received contributions from her neighbors without any false pride. When it was announced by Hub that he and Lucy were soon to be married, a plain spoken neighbor asked a pointed question:

"How are you and Lucy expecting to live?" she inquired. "Who's going to earn your bread and butter, Hub? Lucy's folks nor her neighbors won't feel any call to feed her when she's married to an able-bodied man."

"Why," said Hub reproachfully, "I don't know what folks are thinking of! Half a dozen people have asked me that same question. I can almost support myself, and Lucy can almost support herself, and I should think anybody with a head for figgers could see that when we fine forces there'll be something left over for a rainy day."

Too Many Cheers.

"It's a blamed shame!" said one of the defeated pugilists' friends. "If somebody'd only give him a cheering word he wouldn't feel so sore." "Cheerin' words be hangin'" replied his manager. "It's de 'burrys' of de crowd dat makes him sore."—Philadelphia Press.

REALM OF SPORTS

BRILLIANT OUTLOOK FOR BASEBALL

All indications point to a season of unusual interest locally.

The rainy weather of the week has caused a lull in the baseball enthusiasm among the fans, but the leaders of the several organizations in the city have been earnestly at work and are endeavoring with all their might to have the teams and everything incident complete by the opening week.

It is with satisfaction that those on the inside of what the different managements are doing are looking forward to the game in the city during the fast-approaching season. From what can be gained from them there will not be a city in the state that will have better ball than East Liverpool. The numerous minor teams will be much better than the ordinary organizations, and the first team, to be known as the Y. M. C. A. team, will have few equals. It is said that the material to be used in the lineup of this team will surprise almost every fan. No time or expense will be saved in forming the team, and as a result it will without doubt be the best local aggregation an East Liverpool association ever placed upon a diamond. The names of the players cannot be gained at present, but within the next fortnight the entire lineup will be ready for publication and then it can be seen just what kind of ball can be expected.

A number of dates have already been secured and they are with the best amateur teams that travel. It was found necessary to have a local team that could compete with teams of that class, and that is the reason that so much time and energy is being given to the selection of the players.

Just when the manager of the first team will be chosen is not known, but it will be only a matter of a few days, several men being under consideration at the present time. At the meeting held Tuesday night the manager was to be chosen, but owing to unpreventable circumstances it was left for another meeting, which will likely take place this week.

A LETTER FROM CAREY

Predicts Great Improvement in the Washington Team This Year.

Charles Betz, the Second street barber, has received a letter from George (Totix) Carey, conceded to be the fastest first baseman in the country, in which he says that rainy weather has caused the Washington team much inconvenience during the past few days, and that as a result the members of that club have done very little along the line of practicing.

Totix predicts that the Senators will show the people a great improvement over last year, and that the team will be among the leaders at the end of the season. It is the hope of all of his East Liverpool acquaintances that he will add fresh laurels to his already richly crowned cap.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Chief Zimmer has made Roy Thomas captain of the Phillies.

Cleveland expects to have a horse show in the latter part of June.

The new cycle track at Charles River park, Boston, will be constructed for a speed of a mile a minute.

A. B. Soden denies the rumor that he has made all the money in baseball that he wants, and is ready to sell out.

The Rudy Bros., of Yorktown, Ind., believe Dan R. 2:04, has in him the qualities necessary to show two-minute speed before next fall.

A new law in Pennsylvania prohibits athletic contests of longer duration than 12 hours in any 24. This bars six-day cycle and pedestrian events.

The Country club, composed of Canton and Massillon people, have leased grounds at Meyer's Lake for five years, and will lay off tennis, golf and cricket grounds.

ALLIANCE LAD FIRST

Result of Naval Cadet Examination in the District Announced.

Youngstown, April 16.—(Special)—Congressman Kennedy announces the result of the recent examination at Alliance to select a candidate for naval cadet. Homer G. Scranton, of Alliance, wins first place, having a score of 1,079 points. William E. Sherloc, of Canton, is second; Donald Kennedy, of Youngstown, third, and John Ballard, of Alliance, fourth.

If Scranton passes the civil service examination at Washington he will be given the appointment. If not, Sherloc, of Canton, will be given an opportunity to take this examination.

Mr. Scranton is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scranton, of South Union avenue, and is the second member of the family to win an appointment of this kind through a competitive examination.

Walter Hise, son of W. K. Hise and wife of Salem, has disappeared from his home and nothing was heard from him for several days. A letter from him notifies his parents that he has sailed for England and is going to Singapore.

Rev. Reuben Hahn, aged 85, a Presbyterian, a former Mahoning county resident, holds the honor of being the oldest man in the United States to take up a government claim. He took up a claim in the Kiowa country and after six months in the wilderness sold out for $1,500.

Halstead-Dana Wedding. Cincinnati, April 16.—Miss Clarissa Halstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murat Halstead, was united in marriage to George Dana, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dana, at the home of the Halsteads in West Fourth street. The bride is a girl of great beauty. She was given away by her father. The Rev. Frank Nelson, of Christ church, performed the ceremony.

Mining Agreement Reached. Wellston, O., April 16.—An agreement was reached by the joint conference of miners and operators of Jackson county. Day laborers are to receive $2.06 per day and the advance on machine mining is to be divided, 7 cents to the loader and 1 cent to the cutter. Under the new scale pick miners in the Wellston field will receive 80 cents a ton and in the Coal-ton field 95 cents.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE

Spindle Top Swept by Flames and Only Five Derricks Left Standing.

NOT ONE CENT OF INSURANCE.

Careless Workman Kicked Over a Lantern and 170 Derricks, Pumping Stations and Pipe Lines Are Destroyed—Many Wells Ruined.

Beaumont, Tex., April 16.—A careless workman kicked over a lantern at one of the Caldwell oil wells on block 38, Hogg-Swayne tract, on Spindle Top and started a fire that resulted in the loss of property valued at $1,000,000 and the bankruptcy of 20 or more of the smaller companies. There were 175 wells on the three blocks of the tract and only five of the derricks and pump houses are left standing. Every company that had property on the Hogg-Swayne tract is a loser. The fire swept the three blocks, covered with derricks and pump houses, clear of all its buildings. The derricks left are on the edges and are few and far between. None of the companies had a cent of insurance.

The fire started near the southern edge of block 38 and spread three ways. Pumping stations, derricks and pipe lines all fell before it. Large engines and thick pipe melted in the heat. It is estimated that 170 of the wells sustained an average direct loss of $3,000. This is exclusive of half a million dollars more, the aggregate loss on production and other indirect damages.

Fifty or more wells probably are ruined by the dropping of tubing into them as a result of the fire. Among the losers are: London Oil and Pipe Line company, Caldwell Oil company, Spindle Top Power company, Central Power and Equipment company, Pumping Station Dividend Oil company, Detroit-Beaumont, Palestine-Beaumont, Sun company, Advance Oil company, Queen City, Queen of Waco, Drummers, Alamo, Buckeye, Ground Floor, Manhattan, Borealis and Buffalo.

All pumping rigs, derricks and pipe line equipments were destroyed. Extensive losses were sustained by owners of drilling rigs, among whom were H. B. Ford, Cartwright Oil company, John Markham and J. W. Fennis. Mr. Fennis estimates his loss at $15,000 and others at from $1,000 to $4,000.

The Texas, Sun, London Oil and Pipe Line, Guffey, Higgins and other companies lost heavily through damage to their lines. The Heywood tract was saved only after hard work.

International Kindergarten Union. Pittsburg, April 16.—An address of welcome, delivered by Mrs. William A. Herron, of Pittsburg, opened the tenth annual meeting of the International Kindergarten union. Between 300 and 400 delegates and many friends crowded Carnegie Music hall at the morning and evening sessions.

The principal speakers were Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of education, Pennsylvania; Dr. William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education, and Mrs. Alice H. Putnam, of Chicago, president of the union. William N. Frew, president of the board of trustees of Carnegie institute, also made a short address.

Decree of Prophetess. Battle Creek, Mich., April 16.—Mrs. Ellen G. White, a prophetess of recognized standing among the Seventh Day Adventists, has decreed that the Review and Herald publishing office recently destroyed by fire must not be rebuilt here. She says the Lord is displeased because the office had been doing commercial work instead of denominational work, and declares that the Adventists, numbering 10,000 living in Battle Creek, must scatter.

Negro Murderer Hanged. Michigan City, Ind., April 16.—At 12:07 this morning Matthew Alexander, a negro, was hanged in the Indiana penitentiary for the murder of George Burke at Terre Haute last September. Alexander slept the early part of the evening and when awakened to prepare for the scaffold he smoked a pipe of tobacco and walked unassisted to the death room. His neck was broken by the fall.

BANDIT LEADER EVADES FIGHT.

Government Organizing Another Movement—Cholera Attacks Troops. Farms Being Restocked.

Manila, April 16.—The campaign against the bandits in the province of Albay has proved unsuccessful, the leader of the Ladrone, named Toledo, evading a fight with the American forces. The government is preparing to organize another movement. Three hundred and fifty scouts and constabulary are now following Toledo's band and it is intended to increase this force. The concentration system in Central Albay is still effective.

Cholera has attacked Captain Pershing's troops, who are operating against the Moros in the island of Mindanao. Five cases are reported. It is supposed the disease was contracted near Bacod, which Captain Pershing's force captured April 8. The sick have been sent to the hospital at Camp Vicars.

The government will award a contract to furnish 10,000 carabos to restock the plantations. It intends to sell these animals to the planters at cost price and to expend half the gift of $3,000,000 voted by congress in restocking the farms.

Death of Aged Rabbi.

New York, April 16.—Gustav Gotthel, rabbi emeritus of Temple Emanuel, a foremost and liberal exponent of the Jewish church in New York, died of apoplexy after an illness of several weeks. He was 75 years old and had been connected with the temple for 30 years. In many instances he took a leading part in movements for the betterment of the people of all races and creeds and was frequently a speaker in Gentile churches.

Jealousy Causes Tragedy.

Des Moines, Ia., April 16.—Arthur Perry, a cook, followed Mrs. Louise Bruce into a restaurant here and in a fit of jealousy shot her three times, one bullet striking her in the mouth. He then shot himself in the head and died in a short time. The woman was taken to the hospital, where it was stated her condition was critical. She said she had come here from Sioux City two years ago, after she had separated from her husband.

Helpless Invalid For Three Years.
Dr. Miles' Nervine Made My Nerves Strong.

"For many years I suffered from terrible headaches and pains at the base of the brain, and finally got so bad that I was overcome with nervous prostration. I had frequent dizzy spells and was so weak and exhausted that I could take but little food. The best that I could take I could not live; but I would die of paralysis, as my father and grandfather had. I remained a helpless invalid for three years, when I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and heard using seven bottles, that I had fully recovered my health."—Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Duluth, Minn.

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration, and could not direct my household affairs, nor have any care. My stomach was very weak, headaches very severe, and I was so nervous that there was not a night in years that I slept over one hour at a time. We spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine. I was taken to Chicago and treated by specialists, but received no benefit at all. Finally I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and began its use. I was surprised that it helped me so quickly, and great was my joy to find, after using seven bottles, that I had fully recovered my health."—Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Duluth, Minn.

REALM OF SPORTS

BRILLIANT OUTLOOK FOR BASEBALL

All Indications Point to a Season of Unusual Interest Locally.

The rainy weather of the week has caused a lull in the baseball enthusiasm among the fans, but the leaders of the several organizations in the city have been earnestly at work and are endeavoring with all their might to have the teams and everything incident complete by the opening week.

It is with satisfaction that those on the inside of what the different managements are doing are looking forward to the game in the city during the fast-approaching season. From what can be gained from them there will not be a city in the state that will have better ball than East Liverpool. The numerous minor teams will be much better than the ordinary organizations, and the first team, to be known as the Y. M. C. A. team, will have few equals. It is said that the material to be used in the lineup of this team will surprise almost every fan. No time or expense will be saved in forming the team, and as a result it will without doubt be the best local aggregation an East Liverpool association ever placed upon a diamond. The names of the players cannot be gained at present, but within the next fortnight the entire lineup will be ready for publication and then it can be seen just what kind of ball can be expected.

A number of dates have already been secured and they are with the best amateur teams that travel. It was found necessary to have a local team that could compete with teams of that class, and that is the reason that so much time and energy is being given to the selection of the players. Just when the manager of the first team will be chosen is not known, but it will be only a matter of a few days, several men being under consideration at the present time. At the meeting held Tuesday night the manager was to be chosen, but owing to unpreventable circumstances it was left for another meeting, which will likely take place this week.

A LETTER FROM CAREY

Predicts Great Improvement in the Washington Team This Year.

Charles Berg, the Second street barber, has received a letter from George (Totix) Carey, conceded to be the fastest first baseman in the country, in which he says that rainy weather has caused the Washington team much inconvenience during the past few days, and that as a result the members of that club have done very little along the line of practicing.

Totix predicts that the Senators will show the people a great improvement over last year, and that the team will be among the leaders at the end of the season. It is the hope of all of his East Liverpool acquaintances that he will add fresh laurels to his already richly crowned cap.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Chief Zimmer has made Roy Thomas captain of the Phillies.

Cleveland expects to have a horse show in the latter part of June.

The new cycle track at Charles River park, Boston, will be constructed for a speed of a mile a minute.

A. H. Soden denies the rumor that he has made all the money in baseball that he wants, and is ready to sell out.

The Rudy Bros., of Yorktown, Ind., believe Dan R. 2-04, has in him the qualities necessary to show two-minute speed before next fall.

A new law in Pennsylvania prohibits athletic contests of longer duration than 12 hours in any 24. This bars six-day cycle and pedestrian events.

The Country club, composed of Canton and Massillon people, have leased grounds at Meyer's Lake for five years, and will lay off tennis, golf and cricket grounds.

ALLIANCE LAD FIRST

Result of Naval Cadet Examination in the District Announced.

Youngstown, April 16.—(Special.)—Congressman Kennedy announces the result of the recent examination at Alliance to select a candidate for naval cadet. Homer G. Scranton, of Alliance, wins first place, having a score of 1,079 points. William E. Sherlock, of Canton, is second; Donald Kennedy, of Youngstown, third, and John Ballard, of Alliance, fourth.

If Scranton passes the civil service examination at Washington he will be given the appointment. If not, Sherlock, of Canton, will be given an opportunity to take this examination.

Mr. Scranton is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scranton, of South Union avenue, and is the second member of the family to win an appointment of this kind through a competitive examination.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Henry Marsh, aged 76, of Warren, was found drowned in the Mahoning river.

Wooster township, Wayne county, held an election under the Deal law and went wet.

Panhandle miners failed to settle their differences with the operators and are on a strike.

George Heltzel, aged 81, a prominent citizen of Wayne township, is dead as the result of injuries caused by a fall.

P. J. Burns, of Niles, saw Miss Jessie Miller, of Youngstown, for the first time on Easter. Now they are married.

Walter Hise, son of W. K. Hise and wife of Salem, has disappeared from his home and nothing was heard from him for several days. A letter from him notifies his parents that he has sailed for England and is going to Singapore.

Rev. Reuben Hahn, aged 85, a Presbyterian, a former Mahoning county resident, holds the honor of being the oldest man in the United States to take up a government claim. He took up a claim in the Kiowa country and after six months in the wilderness sold out for $1,500.

Halstead-Dana Wedding.

Cincinnati, April 16.—Miss Clarissa Halstead, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murat Halstead, was united in marriage to George Dana, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dana, at the home of the Halsteads in West Fourth street. The bride is a girl of great beauty. She was given away by her father. The Rev. Frank Nelson, of Christ church, performed the ceremony.

Under the new scale pick miners in the Wellston field will receive 50 cents a ton and in the Coalton field 95 cents.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE

Spindle Top Swept by Flames and Only Five Derricks Left Standing.

NOT ONE CENT OF INSURANCE.

Beaumont, Tex., April 16.—A careless workman kicked over a lantern at one of the Caldwell oil wells on block 38, Hogg-Swayne tract, on Spindle Top and started a fire that resulted in the loss of property valued at $1,000,000 and the bankruptcy of 20 or more of the smaller companies. There were 75 wells on the three blocks of the tract and only five of the derricks and pump houses are left standing. Every company that had property on the Hogg-Swayne tract is a loser. The fire swept the three blocks, covered with derricks and pump houses, clear of all its buildings. The derricks left are on the edges and are few and far between. None of the companies had a cent of insurance.

The fire started near the southern edge of block 38 and spread three ways. Pumping stations, derricks and pipe lines all fell before it. Large engines and truck pipe melted in the heat. It is estimated that 170 of the wells sustained an average direct loss of $5,000. This is exclusive of half a million dollars more, the aggregate loss on production and other indirect damages.

Fifty or more wells probably are ruined by the dropping of tubing into them as a result of the fire. Among the losers are: London Oil and Pipe Line company, Caldwell Oil company, Spindle Top Power company, Central Power and Equipment company, Pumping Station Dividend Oil company, Detroit-Beaumont, Palestine-Beaumont, Sun company, Advance Oil company, Queen City, Queen of Waco, Drummers, Alamo, Buckeye, Ground Floor, Manhattan, Borealis and Buffalo.

All pumping rigs, derricks and pipe line equipments were destroyed. Extensive losses were sustained by owners of drilling rigs, among whom were H. B. Ford, Cartwright Oil company, John Markham and J. W. Ennis. Mr. Ennis estimates his loss at $15,000 and others at from $1,000 to $4,000.

The Texas, Sun, London Oil and Pipe Line, Guffey, Higgins and other companies lost heavily through damage to their lines. The Heywood tract was saved only after hard work.

International Kindergarten Union. Pittsburg, April 16.—An address of welcome, delivered by Mrs. William A. Herron, of Pittsburg, opened the tenth annual meeting of the International Kindergarten union. Between 300 and 400 delegates and many friends crowded Carnegie Music hall at the morning and evening sessions.

The principal speakers were Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of education, Pennsylvania; Dr. William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education, and Mrs. Alice H. Putnam, of Chicago, president of the union. William N. Frow, president of the board of trustees of Carnegie institute, also made a short address.

Decree of Prophets.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 16.—Mrs. Ellen G. White, a prophetess of recognized standing among the Seventh Day Adventists, has decreed that the Review and Herald publishing office recently destroyed by fire must not be rebuilt here. She says the Lord is displeased because the office had been doing commercial work instead of non-nominal work, and declares that the Adventists, numbering 10,000 living in Battle Creek, must scatter.

Negro Murderer Hanged.

Michigan City, Ind., April 16.—At 12:07 this morning Matthew Alexander, a negro, was hanged in the Indiana penitentiary for the murder of George Burke at Terre Haute last September. Alexander slept the early part of the evening and when awakened to prepare for the scaffold he smoked a pipe of tobacco and walked unassisted to the death room. His neck was broken by the fall.

Don't fool with a cold; no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. The concentration system in Central Albay is still effective.

Cholera has attacked Captain Pershing's troops, who are operating against the Moros in the island of Mindanao. Five cases are reported. It is supposed the disease was contracted near Bacod, which Captain Pershing's force captured April 8. The sick have been sent to the hospital at Camp Vicars.

The government will award a contract to furnish 10,000 carabos to restock the plantations. It intends to sell these animals to the planters at cost price and to expend half the gift of $3,000,000 voted by congress in restocking the farms.

Death of Aged Rabbi.

He was 75 years old and had been connected with the temple for 20 years. In many instances he took a leading part in movements for the betterment of the people of all races and creeds and was frequently a speaker in Gentile churches.

There was no doctor at hand, and I was suffering terribly. Your agent handed me a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin (which at that time was unknown to me). I took two doses and was relieved at once, and I want to say now that when I am on the road I am never without a bottle of Syrup Pepsin in my grip. I consider it as essential as my order book, and can find nothing equal to it for Stomach Trouble and Constipation."

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO

Supposed Murderer of Police Officer Forcibly Taken From Jail.

HANGED TO A TELEGRAPH POLE.

After the Lynching Mob Makes an Assault on Negro Quarters, Setting Fire to Houses and Driving Inhabitants Out of the City.

Joplin, Mo., April 16.—A mob took an unknown tramp negro from the city jail and hanged him to a telegraph pole. The negro was charged with having murdered Police Officer C. Leslie, who was shot dead in the Kansas City Southern railroad yards while endeavoring to arrest several negroes suspected of theft.

Officer Leslie had ordered several negroes who had taken refuge in a box car to surrender and when they failed to do so he fired several shots at the car. During the shooting a negro slipped from the car and, coming up behind the officer, shot him through the head. The negro then fled and within a short time possessed the fugitive was located in a slaughter house just east of Joplin. The negro was armed with a rifle and defied arrest. Lee Fullerton slipped into the structure unobserved and crept up behind the negro. Suddenly he sprang at the unsuspecting fugitive and before resistance could be made he had the negro on his back with a knife at his throat. The negro then surrendered his rifle, and pointing the weapon at him Fullerton marched him out of the building. With the assistance of another man the negro was brought to Joplin and placed in jail. News of the capture spread rapidly and the jail was speedily surrounded by hundreds of people. There were cries of "lynch him" on all sides, and City Attorney P. H. Decker mounted the jail steps and made a strong plea in behalf of law and order. This served temporarily to stay the mob, but did not appease it, and a short time after Decker's speech the mob started to batter in a section of the jail wall.

Tug of War Over Victim.
Every effort was made to prevent the entrance of the mob, but without avail, and within 15 minutes the men had gained entrance to the jail and secured the trembling negro. As he was dragged forth the city attorney again interferred and urged that the negro be given a trial. For half an hour he talked and the mob listened to him, with the negro in their custody. At one time it seemed that the city attorney would win, as members of the mob began dispersing, but suddenly a rush was made for the spot where the negro was being held, and he was dragged two blocks from the jail, a rope fastened around his neck, and after the rope had been thrown over the cross bar of a telegraph pole a score of men attempted to pull the negro from the ground. As many more seized the negro and pulled to prevent him being hanged. For some moments it was a veritable tug of war, but reinforcements on the free end of the rope proved the stronger and the negro, despite his protestations of innocence, was finally swung into the air and strangled to death, while shouts of satisfaction went up from the mob.

The name of the negro was not known and he was a stranger in Joplin.

Set Free to Negro Section.
Instead, a rush was made through Main street, the principal street of Joplin, and every negro was frightened off the street and fled to the north part of the city, where the colored population resides. In this way the negroes were driven from all parts of the city to the negro section. Then the mob charged down on the section. Stones were thrown, doors and windows of negro houses were broken in and finally several were fired. The fire department responded, but many of the houses were burned to the ground. The mob made endeavors to prevent the fire department from extinguishing the flames and were particularly successful. All the officers of the city, township and county were called out, but the mob swept them aside and proceeded with the rioting.

Mayor's Appeals Fruitless.
Mayor Trigg ran from corner to corner and mounting boxes made earnest appeals to the mob to cease, but beyond cheering the mayor vociferously the mob swept on and the repudiations continued. The saloons were hurriedly closed by the mayor. After the hundreds of frenzied men composing the mob had vented their wrath in the north end of the city they rushed to the southern end, where lived a number of negroes. Their houses were vacant and not a negro could be found. Three more houses were fired and two were consumed.

All efforts to reason with the rioters were futile, as apparently a frenzy had seized upon them. The streets were thronged and at 11:15 o'clock the whole city was in an uproar. So far as known at that hour no fatalities had occurred, although many persons had received minor injuries.

Cartilage, Mo., April 16.—The negro lynched in Joplin was Thomas Gilyard, aged 20, a tramp. He had confessed that he murdered Leslie and he was crippled by a bullet fired by Leslie in the fight. Sheriff Owen had placed Dan Bullard, a negro who was with Gilyard just before the policeman was killed, in the county jail here, but he was spirited away from Cartilage for fear of attack on the county jail.

Mother's Girl.

There exists often a very beautiful companionship between the mother and her daughter. The intimacy is frank, free and sympathetic. But some day the mother feels as if something had chilled this intimacy. The child is silent and sad, and seems to shun her mother instead of seeking her.

This change very often occurs when the young girl is crossing the border line of womanhood. She is morbid, nervous, fearful, as she enters upon this new experience.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such a time will do more than restore the normal balance of mind and body. It will establish the womanly function upon a basis of sound health, as well as improve the appetite, nourish the nerves, and promote the general physical health.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Broadhead, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her, but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout, weighed 170—the picture of good health, and about the age of fourteen, then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. I felt I could not give her up as she was only child I had, and I must say Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription my daughter would have been in her grave the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

lin. As soon as the negro was dead the mob dispersed and later the body was cut down and taken in charge by the coroner. There is still great excitement in Joplin, and it is feared that more trouble will follow in case the associates of the dead negro are apprehended.

The lynching of the negro served only temporarily to satisfy the indignation of the mob and later hundreds of men again assembled and rioted through the negro section of the city, burning houses, stoning negroes and finally driving every negro from the confines of Joplin. The police were powerless.

The first act of the mob after hanging the negro was to demand the release from jail of a local character known as "Hickory Bill," who was under arrest on the charge of assaulting a negro. In the hope that this would appease the mob the prisoner was set free.

Bowser on The Rack

He Goes Home Prepared to Make Trouble, but His Wife Forestalls Him

MR. BOWSER'S shirt collar had been sawing his ears all day, and a soft corn had appeared between his toes. Further, he was threatened with toothache, and he had lost a quarter out of a hole in his pocket. No one but Mrs. Bowser could be held responsible for these things, and on his way home he determined to have a plain talk with her and tell her what was what.

She scented trouble as soon as he opened the front door, but calmly waited for the explosion to take place. Mr. Bowser may have had a feeling that an ambush had been laid for him, as he did not growl over four times during dinner nor ask for the discharge of the cook. He even held on to himself for ten minutes after the meal was finished, but then the thoughts of how he had been misused during the day got the upper hand, and he began:

"Mrs. Bowser, I feel it my duty as a husband to have a talk with you about certain affairs, and I hope you will give serious consideration to what I say."

"That is my case exactly," she promptly replied.

"What do you mean?"

"I want a talk with you. Things have not been going to please me for months past, and I want to know if they can't be bettered. In our talk I wish you to pay strict heed to what I say."

"But I say I want to talk with you," exclaimed Mr. Bowser as he brought his fist down on his knee and flushed up red.

"So you shall, and I trust you will see things in a different light after we get through. Now, sir, the coal won't last over two days longer. You have either sold bushels of it to tramps or crowded it into the furnace to spite me. Is your object to drive us to the poorhouse? Don't sit there glaring at me, but speak up and make such excuses as you can."

HE PICKED UP THE CAT, WENT OUT AND SAT DOWN ON THE STEPS.

"By thunder, woman, am I awake or dreaming?"

"Very much awake, sir, and you can leave out the bywords after this. I ought to have put my foot down on such language years ago, but it is not too late yet. I observed that a pane of glass in the basement door is cracked. Did you take the cat by the tail and sling her against it, or did you use the slobber? It was done to spite me in some way, of course. Whenever I have a chance to save a dollar there must be some breakage to take up 75 cents of it. Do you know how many hundred panes of glass you have broken in the last year?"

"You—you talk that way to me!" he gasped, as he looked at her in a puzzled way.

"I do, sir. How does it happen that one of the gas globes over your head has been nicked? Did you haul off and hit it with a chair?"

"Do you—know—that—I—am—Mr. Bowser?" he slowly inquired.

"Certainly. You are Mr. Bowser and my husband."

"And you—you—"

"I dare to talk to you. I want to tell you that I don't like many of your ways and that you must reform them if we are to live together. Only six months ago I bought two dozen clothes pins at a cent a dozen. On counting them up today I find only twenty three left. Mr. Bowser, what have you done with that other clothespin? Did you sell it to a sawmill for lumber or roll it out in front of a horse block?"

"By George! By George!" whispered Mr. Bowser to himself as he rubbed his eyes and looked around to see if he was in the wrong house.

"There is the garbage pail," continued Mrs. Bowser as she walked up and down the room with her hands behind her after his usual custom. "It has been in use less than six years, and yet there is a hole in its side into which you could thrust a dining needle. Are you going to lay it to the cats or the cook? Are you going to make me believe that you didn't take a brandawl and stand off and deliberately jab that pail? These things may surprise you, but let me say that I have had my eye on you for some time. What have you got to say for yourself?"

"I—I am Bowser," he faltered, "and I—I don't understand. I started out to have a talk with you, and—"

"And it ended in my having a talk with you. Yes, you are Bowser, but what is that to me? I notice that the milk bill is 3 cents higher this month than last. How comes it so? Have you been selling the milk to get money to play poker with? Have you been asking all the tramps in town to come here and drink it up? If not, then you must have willfully and maliciously poured it out on the ground to make all the expense possible."

Mr. Bowser was in a daze. He sat looking at the cat, but he couldn't have told whether she had four legs or sixteen.

"And there's the butcher bill," she went on after a long look at him. "It's for 7 cents, the balance on a steak bought two weeks ago. I give you money to run the house, and yet you go and pile up debts on me and squander the cash in gimcracks and gewgaws. How do I know how much money you owe the grocer and baker and milkman? If you were to die tonight and each one of them sent in a bill for $500 tomorrow, how could I dispute them? Nice sort of a husband you are! Nice way to run a house!"

Mr. Bowser realized that his words and expressions were coming home to roost and that he was in danger of losing his grip. He therefore made a great effort to rally and suddenly turned on Mrs. Bowser with:

"Woman, I command you to stop! I want you to understand that!"

"And, man, I command you," she replied, "and I want you to understand that I won't stand it. It has been evident to me for some time that we were not harmonious, and I think the best thing we can do is to part."

"You—you do?"

"I do, sir. There need be no scandal."

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO

Supposed Murderer of Police Officer Forcibly Taken From Jail.

HANGED TO A TELEGRAPH POLE.

After the Lynching Mob Makes an Assault on Negro Quarters, Setting Fire to Houses and Driving Inhabitants Out of the City.

Joplin, Mo., April 16.—A mob took an unknown tramp negro from the city jail and hanged him to a telegraph pole. The negro was charged with having murdered Police Officer C. Leslie, who was shot dead in the Kansas City Southern railroad yards while endeavoring to arrest several negroes suspected of theft.

Officer Leslie had ordered several negroes who had taken refuge in a box car to surrender and when they failed to do so he fired several shots at the car. During the shooting a negro slipped from the car and, coming up behind the officer, shot him through the head. The negro then fled and within a short time posses were after him.

The fugitive was located in a slaughter house just east of Joplin. The negro was armed with a rifle and defied arrest. Lee Fullerton slipped into the structure unobserved and crept up behind the negro. Suddenly he sprang at the unsuspecting fugitive and before resistance could be made he had the negro on his back with a knife at his throat. The negro then surrendered his rifle, and pointing the weapon at him Fullerton marched him out of the building. With the assistance of another man the negro was brought to Joplin and placed in jail. News of the capture spread rapidly and the jail was speedily surrounded by hundreds of people. There were cries of "lynch him" on all sides, and City Attorney P. H. Decker mounted the jail steps and made a strong plea in behalf of law and order. This served temporarily to stay the mob, but did not appease it, and a short time after Decker's speech the mob started to batter in a section of the jail wall.

Tug of War Over Victim. Every effort was made to prevent the entrance of the mob, but without avail, and within 15 minutes the men had gained entrance to the jail and secured the trembling negro. As he was dragged forth the city attorney again interferred and urged that the negro be given a trial. For half an hour he talked and the mob listened to him, with the negro in their custody. At one time it seemed that the city attorney would win, as members of the mob began dispersing, but suddenly a rush was made for the spot where the negro was being held, and he was dragged two blocks from the jail, a rope fastened around his neck, and after the rope had been thrown over the cross bar of a telegraph pole a score of men attempted to pull the negro from the ground. As many more seized the negro and pulled to prevent him being hanged. For some moments it was a veritable tug of war, but reinforcements on the free end of the rope proved the stronger and the negro, despite his protestations of innocence, was finally swung into the air and strangled to death, while shouts of satisfaction went up from the mob.

The name of the negro was not known and he was a stranger in Joplin.

Mother's Girl.

There exists often a very beautiful companionship between the mother and her daughter. The intimacy is frank, free and sympathetic. But some day the mother feels as if something had chilled this intimacy. The child is silent and sad, and seems to shun her mother instead of seeking her.

This change very often occurs when the young girl is crossing the border line of womanhood. She is morbid, nervous, fearful, as she enters upon this new experience.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such a time will do more than restore the normal balance of mind and body. It will establish the womanly function upon a basis of sound health, as well as improve the appetite, nourish the nerves, and promote the general physical health.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Broadhead, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was tried, but nothing did it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout, weighed 170, the picture of good health, and about the age of fourteen; then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 100. I felt I could not give her up as she was my only child I had, and I must say, Doctor, that only by your Favorite Prescription my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

lin. As soon as the negro was dead the mob dispersed and later the body was cut down and taken in charge by the coroner. There is still great excitement in Joplin, and it is feared that more trouble will follow in case the associates of the dead negro are apprehended.

The lynching of the negro served only temporarily to satisfy the indignation of the mob and later hundreds of men again assembled and rioted through the negro section of the city, burning houses, stoning negroes and finally driving every negro from the confines of Joplin. The police were powerless.

The first act of the mob after hanging the negro was to demand the release from jail of a local character known as "Hickory Bill," who was under arrest on the charge of assaulting a negro. In the hope that this would appease the mob the prisoner was set free.

Set Fire to Negro Section.

Instead, a rush was made through Main street, the principal street of Joplin, and every negro was frightened off the street and fled to the north part of the city, where the colored population resides. In this way the negroes were driven from all parts of the city to the negro section. Then the mob charged down on the section. Stones were thrown, doors and windows of negro houses were broken in and finally several were fired. The fire department responded, but many of the houses were burned to the ground. The mob made endeavors to prevent the fire department from extinguishing the flames and were particularly successful. All the officers of the city, township and county were called out, but the mob swept them aside and proceeded with the rioting.

Mayor's Appeals Fruitless.

Mayor Trigg ran from corner to corner and mounting boxes made earnest appeals to the mob to cease, but beyond cheering the mayor vociferously the mob swept on and the depredations continued. The saloons were hurriedly closed by the mayor. After the hundreds of frenzied men composing the mob had vented their wrath in the north end of the city they rushed to the southern end, where lived a number of negroes. Their houses were vacant and not a negro could be found. Three more houses were fired and two were consumed.

All efforts to reason with the rioters were futile, as apparently a frenzy had seized upon them. The streets were thronged and at 11:15 o'clock the whole city was in an uproar. So far as known at that hour no fatalities had occurred, although many persons had received minor injuries.

Carthage, Mo., April 16.—The negro lynched in Joplin was Thomas Gilyard, aged 20, a tramp. He had confessed that he murdered Leslie and he was crippled by a bullet fired by Leslie in the fight. Sheriff Owen had placed Dan Bullard, a negro who was with Gilyard just before the policeman was killed, in the county jail here, but he was spirited away from Carthage for fear of attack on the county jail.

Bowser on The Rack

He Goes Home Prepared to Make Trouble, but His Wife Forestalls Him

MR. BOWSER'S shirt collar had been sawing his ears all day, and a soft corn had appeared between his toes. Further, he was threatened with toothache, and he had lost a quarter out of a hole in his pocket. No one but Mrs. Bowser could be held responsible for these things, and on his way home he determined to have a plain talk with her and tell her what was what.

She scented trouble as soon as he opened the front door, but calmly waited for the explosion to take place. Mr. Bowser may have had a feeling that an ambush had been laid for him, as he did not growl over four times during dinner nor ask for the discharge of the cook. He even held on to himself for ten minutes after the meal was finished, but then the thoughts of how he had been misused during the day got the upper hand, and he began:

"Mrs. Bowser, I feel it my duty as a husband to have a talk with you about certain affairs, and I hope you will give serious consideration to what I say."

"That is my case exactly," she promptly replied.

"What do you mean?"

"I want a talk with you. Things have not been going to please me for months past, and I want to know if you can't be bettered. In our talk I wish you to pay strict heed to what I say."

"But I say I want to talk with you," exclaimed Mr. Bowser as he brought his fist down on his knee and flushed up red.

"So you shall, and I trust you will see things in a different light after we get through. Now, sir, the coal won't last over two days longer. You have either sold bushels of it to tramps or

"By thunder, woman, am I awake or dreaming?"

"Very much awake, sir, and you can leave out the bywords after this. I ought to have put my foot down on such language years ago, but it is too late yet. I observed that a pane of glass in the basement door is cracked. Did you take the cat by the tail and sling her against it, or did you use the crowbar? It was done to spite me in some way, of course. Whenever I have a chance to save a dollar there must be some breakage to take up 75 cents of it. Do you know how many hundred panes of glass you have broken in the last year?"

"You—you talk that way to me!" he gasped, as he looked at her in a puzzled way.

"I do, sir. How does it happen that one of the gas globes over your head has been nicked? Did you haul off and hit it with a chair?"

"Do you—know—that—I—am—Mr. Bowser?" he slowly inquired.

"Certainly. You are Mr. Bowser and my husband."

"And you—you—"

"I dare to talk to you. I want to tell you that I don't like many of your ways and that you must reform them if we are to live together. Only six months ago I bought two dozen clothes-plus at a cent a dozen. On counting them up today I find only twenty three left. Mr. Bowser, what have you done with that other clothespin? Did you sell it to a sawmill for lumber or roll it out in front of a horse block?"

"By George! By George!" whispered Mr. Bowser to himself as he rubbed his eyes and looked around to see if he was in the wrong house.

"There is the garbage pail," continued Mrs. Bowser as she walked up and down the room with her hands behind her after his usual custom. "It has been in use less than six years, and yet there is a hole in its side into which you could thrust a dining needle. Are you going to lay it to the cats or the cook? Are you going to make me believe that you didn't take a badawl and stand off and deliberately jab that pail? These things may surprise you, but let me say that I have had my eye on you for some time. What have you got to say for yourself?"

"I—I am Bowser," he faltered, "and I—I don't understand. I started out to have a talk with you, and—"

"And it ended in my having a talk with you. Yes, you are Bowser, but what is that to me? I notice that the milk bill is 3 cents higher this month than last. How comes it so? Have you been selling the milk to get money to play poker with? Have you been asking all the tramps in town to come here and drink it up? If not, then you must have willfully and maliciously poured it out on the ground to make all the expense possible."

Mr. Bowser was in a daze. He sat looking at the cat, but he couldn't have told whether she had four legs or six.

"And there's the butcher bill," she went on after a long look at him. "It's for 7 cents, the balance on a steak bought two weeks ago. I give you money to run the house, and yet you go and pile up debts on me and squander the cash in glumetrics and gewgaws. How do I know how much money you owe the grocer and baker and milkman? If you were to die tonight and each one of them sent in a bill for $300 tomorrow, how could I dispute them? Nice sort of a husband you are! Nice way to run a house!"

Mr. Bowser realized that his words and expressions were coming home to roost and that he was in danger of losing his grip. He therefore made a great effort to rally and suddenly turned on Mrs. Bowser with:

"Woman, I command you to stop! I want you to understand that—"

"And, man, I command you," she replied, "and I want you to understand that I won't stand it. It has been evident to me for some time that we were not harmonious, and I think the best thing we can do is to part."

"You—you do?"

NO INDICTMENT AGAINST REDMON

The Alleged Hold-Up Man Now Free from Jail—No Witness Appeared.

"Red Nose" Redmon is a free man. He was arrested about three months ago and remanded from the city jail to the county bastille on a charge of assaulting and holding up Van Rigidon in broad daylight near the corner of Second and Market streets. His case was presented to the grand jury and, owing to the non-appearance of the prosecuting witness, Rigidon, he was discharged, it being impossible to find an indictment.

Prosecutor Brookes and Mayor Davidson are highly indignant over the manner in which Rigidon has acted in regard to the case. After he was assaulted and robbed he appeared at the mayor's office and was exceedingly anxious to have the man who had committed the daring deed prosecuted. He swore in the mayor's presence that Redmon, a notorious local character, had done the work and stated that he would be glad to appear against him at Lisbon. With the assurance that the case was a good one, Mayor Davidson, always making that an objective point before allowing a man to be sent from his court to Lisbon, his honor had him committed to jail, and the other day when the subpoena was received by Constable Powell, and he went on a fruitless hunt for Rigidon. Over the indifference on the part of Rigidon there is much complaint, and legal steps may be taken to bring him to trial.

shape of a boycott, and steps will be taken to counteract the attempt. The council feels that it is the father of the institution, and is vitally interested in the success of the project. A few hundred dollars of the funds of the council were spent in getting the company formed, and the general sentiment was that if there was going to be a fight the organization would be willing to squander a couple of thousand dollars in order to make it interesting.

A GREAT OIL GUSHER IN KNOXVILLE FIELD

Freudenberger & Sinclair Have a Well Thought to Be Good For 300 Barrels Daily.

Freudenberger & Sinclair, oil operators, have drilled six wells in the Knoxville field and every one is a good producer. No. 6, which was drilled a foot in the sand Tuesday afternoon, immediately commenced to flow at the rate of seven barrels an hour and yesterday, while the well was being drilled in, was flowing 300 barrels a day. When the well is completed and shot the production is variously estimated at from 300 to 500 barrels a day.

This well is located on the John Cooper farm in the Knoxville oil field and makes the Cable, Cooper heirs, Myers, Cooper Brothers, Mackey and Freudenberger & Sinclair leaseholders. The big gusher is now in the center of the local field and being by far the best well yet struck will cause renewed activity in the drilling operations. No. 6 is about 700 feet southeast of No. 5 and nearly 1,600 feet southeast of No. 3, the big 100-barrel well owned by Freudenberger & Sinclair.

DAMAGE SUIT BEING TRIED AGAIN

Case of Mrs. Bettridge Versus the City of East Liverpool Being Heard at Lisbon.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—A number of witnesses are here to testify in the $10,000 damage suit of Nancy Bettridge against the city of East Liverpool, which came up for hearing this afternoon. Judgment for $1,200 for the plaintiff given at a former trial was set aside by the court and a motion sustained for a new trial. The plaintiff says she was injured in January, 1902, by falling into an opening in a sewer near the Horn switch and the Dresden pottery. The opening was 24 inches deep and it is in the street several feet from the sidewalk. The accident occurred at noon, it is said, when the plaintiff, on her way home from work, stopped to talk with some friends, stepped backward and fell into the opening. The city's attorneys set up that the opening in the sewer is a necessary and proper one and that the woman should have remained on the sidewalk. They further allege that she was careless and negligent in walking backward in the daylight with the defect plainly open to view.

SERIOUS RIOT AT CLEVELAND.

Union Men Board Steamer and Attack and Terribly Beat Non-Union Firemen.

Cleveland, April 16.—Fifty striking union firemen, armed with knives and clubs, boarded the steamer Howard L. Shaw when she arrived in the harbor from Duluth and attacked and terribly pounded three non-union firemen employed on the vessel.

A riot call was turned in, but the attacking party escaped.

The names of the injured are: Adolph Pearo, Gladstone, Mich.; George T. Smith, Duluth, and Walter Sigler, Duluth.

Smith, after being stabbed and beaten almost into insensibility, was thrown into the river. He was rescued by sailors.

Restrictions Modified.

Chicago, April 16.—No one need hereafter fear that should he die in a strange country of a contagious disease the railroad will refuse to transport his remains to the land of his birth. At a conference between representatives of the state health boards, of the National Funeral association and of general baggage agents it was decided that the present restrictions with regard to the transportation of dead bodies should be less strictly observed. The improvement in the method of preparing the bodies for burial and the prevailing scientific use of disinfectants are the cause of a movement, one result of which was the conference.

A free reserved ticket given to the "Oliver Cromwell" entertainment with each man's suit at $8.00 or over, at THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

A GREAT OIL GUSHER IN KNOXVILLE FIELD

Freudenberger & Sinclair Have a Well Thought to Be Good For 300 Barrels Daily.

Freudenberger & Sinclair, oil operators, have drilled six wells in the Knoxville field and every one is a good producer. No. 6, which was drilled a foot in the sand Tuesday afternoon, immediately commenced to flow at the rate of seven barrels an hour and yesterday, while the well was being drilled in, was flowing 300 barrels a day. When the well is completed and shot the production is variously estimated at from 300 to 500 barrels a day.

This well is located on the John Cooper farm in the Knoxville oil field and makes the Cable, Cooper heirs, Myers, Cooper Brothers, Mackey and Freudenberger & Sinclair lease girded. The big gusher is now in the center of the local field and being by far the best well yet struck will cause renewed activity in the drilling operations. No. 6 is about 700 feet southeast of No. 5 and nearly 1,000 feet southeast of No. 3, the big 100-barrel well owned by Freudenberger & Sinclair.

DAMAGE SUIT BEING TRIED AGAIN

Case of Mrs. Bettridge Versus the City of East Liverpool Being Heard at Lisbon.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—A number of witnesses are here to testify in the $10,000 damage suit of Nancy Bettridge against the city of East Liverpool, which came up for hearing this afternoon. Judgment for $1,200 for the plaintiff given at a former trial was set aside by the court and a motion sustained for a new trial. The plaintiff says she was injured in January, 1932, by falling into an opening in a sewer near the Horn switch and the Dresden pottery. The opening was 24 inches deep and it is in the street several feet from the sidewalk. The accident occurred at noon, it is said, when the plaintiff, on her way home from work, stopped to talk with some friends, stepped backward and fell into the opening. The city's attorneys set up that the opening in the sewer is a necessary and proper one and that the woman should have remained on the sidewalk. They further allege that she was careless and negligent in walking backward in the daylight with the defect plainly open to view.

SERIOUS RIOT AT CLEVELAND.

Union Men Board Steamer and Attack and Terribly Beat Non-Union Firemen.

Cleveland, April 16.—Fifty striking union firemen, armed with knives and clubs, boarded the steamer Howard L. Shaw when she arrived in the harbor from Duluth and attacked and terribly pounded three non-union firemen employed on the vessel.

A riot call was turned in, but the attacking party escaped.

The names of the injured are: Adolph Pearo, Gladstone, Mich.; George T. Smith, Duluth, and Walter Sigler, Duluth.

Restrictions Modified.

Chicago, April 16.—No one need hereafter fear that should he die in a strange country of a contagious disease the railroads will refuse to transport his remains to the land of his birth. At a conference between representatives of the state health boards, of the National Funeral association and of general baggage agents it was decided that the present restrictions with regard to the transportation of dead bodies should be less strictly observed. The improvement in the method of preparing the bodies for burial and the prevailing scientific use of disinfectants are the cause of a movement, one result of which was the conference.

NO INDICTMENT AGAINST REDMON

The Alleged Hold-Up Man Now Free from Jail—No Witness Appeared.

"Red Nose" Redmon is a free man. He was arrested about three months ago and remanded from the city jail to the county bastille on a charge of assaulting and holding up Van Rigdon in broad daylight near the corner of Second and Market streets. His case was presented to the grand jury and, owing to the non-appearance of the prosecuting witness, Rigdon, he was discharged, it being impossible to find an indictment.

Prosecutor Brookes and Mayor Davidson are highly indignant over the manner in which Rigdon has acted in regard to the case. After he was assaulted and robbed he appeared at the mayor's office and was exceedingly anxious to have the man who had committed the daring deed prosecuted. He swore in the mayor's presence that Redmon, a notorious local character, had done the work and stated that he would be glad to appear against him at Lisbon. With the assurance that the case was a good one, Mayor Davidson, always making that an objective point before allowing a man to be sent from his court to Lisbon, his honor had him committed to jail, and the other day when the subpoena was received by Constable Powell, and he went on a fruitless hunt for Rigdon. Over the indifference on the part of Rigdon there is much complaint, and legal steps may be taken to bring him to time.

SERIOUS RIOT AT CLEVELAND.

Union Men Board Steamer and Attack and Terribly Beat Non-Union Firemen.

Cleveland, April 16.—Fifty striking union firemen, armed with knives and clubs, boarded the steamer Howa-1 L. Shaw when she arrived in the harbor from Duluth and attacked and terribly pounded three non-union firemen employed on the vessel.

A riot call was turned in, but the attacking party escaped.

The names of the injured are: Adolph Pearo, Gladstone, Mich.; George T. Smith, Duluth, and Walter Sigler, Duluth.

Restrictions Modified.

Chicago, April 16.—No one need hereafter fear that should he die in a strange country of a contagious disease the railroads will refuse to transport his remains to the land of his birth. At a conference between representatives of the state health boards, of the National Funeral association and of general baggage agents it was decided that the present restrictions with regard to the transportation of dead bodies should be less strictly observed. The improvement in the method of preparing the bodies for burial and the prevailing scientific use of disinfectants are the cause of a movement, one result of which was the conference.

GRAND JURY
BEATS RECORD*Fails to Condemn the County
Jail and Thinks It
oners Have Been Made Public.*PRAISE FOR THE SHERIFF

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—Among the indictments returned by the grand jury are the following jail cases:

Marcus L. Mowery, of Leetonia, shooting Uriah Nold with intent to kill and wound.

John Brown, burglary and larceny; charged with entering the house of Charles McKenzie and stealing personal property to the amount of $68.25, belonging to Frank Weigle.

David Locke and Allen Anderson, Lisbon, burglary and larceny; charged with entering the saloon of Martin Welch, Lisbon, and stealing a lot of cigars.

Nick Murray, larceny; charged with stealing two bottles of whisky valued at $3 from Louis Groubair and Henry Berthel, East Liverpool.

Frank Miller, assault and battery; charged with menacing Pearl Eells, a 12-year-old Lisbon girl.

After a session of three days, the grand jury finished its work yesterday afternoon, made its report at 5 o'clock and was discharged. This jury made a remarkable record. It did not condemn the jail. Following is the report:

"To the honorable court of common pleas of Columbiana county, Ohio:

"This grand jury was impaneled Monday, April 13, 1903, and after instructions from the court proceeded to investigate the cases presented by Prosecutor J. H. Brooks. We investigated 78 cases, examined 86 witnesses, ignored 8 cases and found 70 indictments.

"In accordance with instruction from his honor, Judge Hole, we have visited the jail and find rules and regulations posted, and the jail corridor, kitchen, cells, etc., in a clean and well kept condition. We would recommend a better system of lighting and heating the building, which in our judgment will be sufficient to make the building more comfortable.

"We do not condemn the jail but when kept clean, as we find it under the supervision of Sheriff C. P. Leonard, wife and deputies, we find it to answer all present needs.

FOUR PETITIONS
FILED IN COURT

F. W. Miller, of This City, Sues W. H. Thomas For $537 and Interest.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—Four more petitions were placed on the court files yesterday afternoon. Frederick W. Miller, of East Liverpool, brings suit against William H. Thomas for $537.84 with interest from April 1, 1903, held to be due on account for labor and bakery supplies, which the plaintiff claims the defendant has refused to pay him. G. Y. Travis, of East Liverpool, is the plaintiff's attorney.

The village of New Waterford, through its attorney, J. F. Johnston, has brought an action to replevin six large dressed stones which were used as moving stones in the old bridge over Bull Creek in that village and are alleged to be now unlawfully in the possession of one J. A. Benzenkofer. The stones are valued at $27.50.

John Phillips, of Salem, has been bound over to court in the sum of $500 from Justice Kerr's court in Salem on a charge preferred by Dollie Shastene.

James M. Garside has begun foreclosure proceedings against Jane Holt, of Washington township. A mortgage was given by the defendant to William Garside in 1886, on 44 of an acre of which $78.88 remains unpaid with interest from February 25, 1894. William Garside assigned the mortgage to the plaintiff who now asks judgment for the amount unpaid.

AN ARREST MADE OF ALLEGED THIEF

Man Accused of Stealing a Horse at Inverness Taken Into Custody.

Salineville, April 16.—(Special)—Officer Higgins, of this town, made an arrest this morning of the supposed horse thief, who last week made away with a valuable animal, the property of Alex Farsman, of Inverness.

The man has been in the neighborhood since the night the horse disappeared and tried to sell the animal to three different farmers. He had been at the home of Ellsworth Miller, five miles from here since Tuesday. The suspect was lodged in the town jail pending a hearing.

STRIKERS WILL GET SUPPORT

INSTRUCTED TO PROCEED

Although more than two weeks have passed since the building trades went on strike it was not until last night that the Trades and Labor Council took up the matter. When the council was organized at its last meeting the newly elected president, George B. M. Beatty, who, by the way, is a member of one of the trades effected, had contemplated appointing one standing committee, that designated as the committee on grievance and arbitration, but reconsidered the matter at the last minute. Mr. Beatty is a very careful official, and it is now thought that he desired to wait until all the affected trades had been given a chance to get the work started in their own behalf before bringing it to the attention of the central body. In this he had the approval of all conservative unionists, and at the same time created a good feeling among the people generally, for favorable public sentiment is absolutely necessary in labor disputes.

At the meeting last night every trade was recognized, and the conditions for which they are now fighting will be carefully weighed by the new grievance committee. This latter body, consisting of five members, has been very carefully selected, and it is confidently expected it will be able to render valuable aid to the strikers.

A number of new delegates were seated at the meeting and the attendance was good. President Beatty and his able corps of officers were encouraged and the prospects are bright for a prosperous and successful year.

A communication was received from the New York electotypers' union acknowledging the receipt of a donation and asking that letters be written to 11 firms who are patronizing the unfair United States Printing company. The request will be complied with.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to revise the constitution, reported progress. It hoped to have a full report ready for the next meeting.

Those in charge of the arrangements for the labor lecture next Monday night report good progress, and that there was every indication of a large turn out.

Under the head of new business President Beatty announced the following standing committees:

Organization—Charles Contnir, J. J. Weisend, J. E. Anderson.

Legislation—Crisis McConnell, Geo. Mulligan, William Cope.

Union Label—Henry Schreiber, U. E. Price, William Conklin.

Credentials—Henry Moore, Arthur White, George Eisenhuth.

Grievance and Arbitration—William Pittinger, A. C. Coleman, Timothy Hickey, J. W. Martin, A. E. Bertele.

Labor Day Picnic—Charles Contnir, J. R. Reark, Thomas Collins, J. J. Weisend, P. J. McKeone, Harry Newman.

Auxiliary Picnic Committee—Miss Margaret Fife, Miss Viola Evans, Miss Edna Lucas.

President Beatty outlined a few additional duties which several of the committees, ought, in his judgment, to take up.

A member of the board of directors of the cooperative store reported that an attempt was being made to prevent the management of the store from purchasing goods from certain wholesalers. The movement was in the

FINE HORSES ARE CREMATED

Vandergrift Stables at Wellsburg Burned by Incendiaries.

THE FAST MARE EDNA COOK

Formerly Owned by C. A. Smith, of This City, Among the Stock Burned.

TWO MEN SET THE FIRE

For the third time within a year tardily incendiaries have undertaken the destruction of either the palatial residence or stables of Millionaire J. B. Vandergrift at his magnificent country home, near Wellsburg, W. Va. Last night they were discovered in the act of setting fire to the stables. The buildings were totally destroyed, together with a dozen blooded animals, one of which, Edna Cook, was formerly owned by C. A. Smith, and which was sold to Vandergrift for $4,000.

The fire occurred at about 10 o'clock. The grooms were preparing for bed when they saw a blaze shoot from one of the windows of the center stable, and simultaneously they saw two figures, one that of a tall man and the other of a short man, running with great speed from the stable entrance. They made their way over the hills in the neighborhood and were soon lost to view in the darkness. The grooms ran at once to the rescue of the stock, opened the doors of the burning stable and permitted as many of them to escape as could get away. There were at least 20 fine blooded animals in the stable.

From all appearances the blaze was started in the manger of Mrs. Vandergrift's favorite horse. The culprits were evidently familiar with the surroundings and the contents of the manger. Why any one should wish to destroy the palatial residence and its surroundings is not known by any members of the Vandergrift household. They know of no one so despicable that has a grudge against them.

About two months ago the miscreants burned another stable in which there were some valuable horses destroyed, and on October 17 last an attempt was made to destroy the residence. It is said that Mr. Vandergrift will employ detectives on the case and run the cowardly beings to earth.

Edna Cook, the horse so well known in this city, was one of the finest country horses ever produced. She has made a mile in 2:07 and had a mark of 2:12. She was conceded to be the prettiest animal that ever stepped on the American turf. Her only fault was that she would invariably lose her head in a race, and it was for that reason that she was sold by C. A. Smith.

RAILROAD TO SALEM AND TO MINERVA

Routes for Extensions of the Lisbon & Western Have Been Fixed.

The route for the extension of the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western railroad from Lisbon to Minerva has been fixed. It is 22½ miles long. It will run to Coleman, near to Guilford, south of New Garden, nearly touching Adair.

From the junction opposite Coleman the Salem spur will follow the west side of the Beaver valley through Teagarden to the vicinity of Franklin Square and then along a branch of the Beaver creek to Salem, crossing the Fort Wayne road on an overhead bridge about a mile east of Salem. The Salem spur will be eight miles long. The company's bonds will aggregate $8,000,000. These extensions will cost about $1,500,000.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT IN THE MEREDITH CASE

General Revenue Collector Frank McCord arrived in the city at noon today, and with several of his assistants is making a final settlement in the Meredith case.

It is impossible to obtain details as to the basis of the settlement, but it is known that the case has been compromised and that Meredith will pay to the government through Collector McCord the sum of $15,000.

STONE MASONS ARE ALL WORKING

HAVE SUCCEEDED IN SECURING A QUARRY.

In Spite of Efforts Against Them They Get All the Stone They Want.

The members of the stone masons' union, who went on strike April 1, are all steadily employed. A few are working in this city, some have secured positions with Wellsville contractors, and several have gone to points down the river. Word has been received from the latter class, and it contained the information that all had obtained employment without difficulty.

The men who remained in the city are working upon individual contracts and not a few are engaged with the contracting firms who have signed the scale. Coleman & Dickey have formed a partnership, and were the first to sign the scale. Later George D. Culbertson was taken into the fold, his decision being purely voluntary. These firms are working increased forces, and work is very plentiful. One of the strikers said last evening:

"The stone contractors have endeavored to work the same game on our men that the boss carpenters had tried, but met the same fate. Our bosses attempted to sew up the owners of every stone quarry in this vicinity, and thought they had done so, but we were one too many for them. Stephen Hague, one of our men, knew a thing or two, and before the monopolists were aware of it, he had secured control of one of the best producing quarries to be found in this section of the state. In a remarkably short time Mr. Hague had obtained the contract for upwards of a dozen cellars, and has been very busy ever since."

As matters are now situated, the men say they are indifferent as to the outcome of the controversy, as all are receiving as much work as they can do, and in every case are receiving the scale and working the hours demanded from the East Liverpool contractors. Should the latter conclude to sign up and adjust the troubles it is thought no end of annoyance will be occasioned in securing men. The strikers who have now succeeded in locating in good positions state they will not leave their present berths under any circumstances, so it is likely the local contractors will be compelled to go elsewhere for their men.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED BY COURT

An East Liverpool Woman and a Wellsville Husband Separate From Their Partners.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—Two more divorces were granted by Judge Hole yesterday afternoon. Carmine Bonidia, a Wellsville Italian, was separated from Nelie Bonidia. They were married in East Liverpool January 6, 1898, and have no children. The husband charged habitual drunkenness and unfaithfulness, naming one Joseph Tocal as co-respondent.

Cornelia Green, of East Liverpool, was divorced from Emory Green and her maiden name was restored. On March 19, 1895, she was married to the defendant, who, she alleged in her petition, had been wilfully absent from her for more than three years. She also charged that he had refused to support her for seven years prior to the filing of the petition, nearly a year ago, and that she had to earn her own living and depend upon the charity of friends. They have no children. H. E. Grosshans was plaintiff's attorney.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—Thurman W. Schisler, of West Austintown, and Miss Stella Storr, of Leetonia; Hams Swenington, of Salem, and Miss Pearl R. Glass, of North Georgetown, have been licensed to marry.

AGED VETERAN HIT BY ENGINE

William Hahn Narrowly Missed Being Run Over and Killed.

HE IS A FEEBLE OLD MAN

And Fell Towards the Track as the Switch Engine Went By.

HIS INJURIES VERY SERIOUS

As the result of a distressing accident, William Hahn, a veteran of the Civil war, aged about 76 years, lies at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Eisenhuth, Avondale street, suffering intense pain and in what is thought to be a very precarious condition. He was struck by the pony engine in front of the passenger depot at 5 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Hahn is one of the best known residents of the city. He has long been a citizen of East Liverpool and was known to be a hard working and industrious man until impaired health made it necessary for him to cease active life. When he became so poorly several years ago he applied for admission to the soldiers' home at Dayton, and being readily accepted, remained there until recently. He returned to the city to spend the remainder of his days with relatives. Ever since his return he has been a familiar personage on the street and invariably attracted attention by his infirm appearance. This morning he was out for his daily exercise and wandered down to the depot.

While standing on the platform close to the edge it is thought he became dazed upon the approach of the pony engine, which was being used in switching freight cars, and without giving any apparent sign of falling reeled forward toward the track where he was struck with terrific force by some part of the engine.

The engineer states that he did not see him. Strange to say, instead of falling alongside the track he fell in a heap on the platform. H. E. Pitcher, an employee of the Adams Express company, was the first to discover the prostrate man. He gently picked him up and carried him into the express office, then summoned the ambulance. Officers Morley and Woods answered the call and conveyed the injured man to his home. A close examination was made of the injuries sustained and his face was found to be badly cut in several places, his lower limbs severely sprained and other parts of his body painfully bruised. It is thought that, owing to his age and infirmities, he will experience a battle if he recovers.

VERY UNPROFITABLE TRADE IN HORSES

BROTHERS FALL OUT AFTER THE DEAL IS COMPLETED.

Going to Law the Plaintiff, Who Lost His Horse, Gets Five Cents Damages.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—The case of Walter Hoopes against Malcolm C. Hoopes, of Butler township, in which a jury trial was waived, occupied the court's attention most of yesterday and resulted in the award of 5 cents damages to the plaintiff. The case resulted from a dispute over a horse trade between brothers. The plaintiff claimed that under the agreement his brother was to give him 46 days' work as "boot," but a few days after the bargain learned that Malcolm said he would give 5 days' work only. That night he returned to Malcolm's stable the horse he got from him and took away the one he had traded. Walter was made defendant in a replevin suit, but the justice's court, in which action was brought having no jurisdiction, dismissed the case. The bond given by the plaintiff in that action was the basis of the present action for damages.

The question before court was whether the brothers had been of one mind on the agreement, and the court held that they had. The horse left by Walter Hoopes in Malcolm's stable was sold by the latter for its keeping. Walter lost his horse and got nothing out of the trade.

AND JUMPED THE TRACK

The Nancy Hanks Crew Had a Wild Ride, But Escaped Unhurt.

As the result of the brakes on the repair car of the East Liverpool and Wellsville line refusing to work while the car was descending the Franklin street hill at 2 o'clock this afternoon the car ran away and jumped the track just after it had crossed the Horn switch, bumping with great velocity into the hill on the north side.

The car was partially wrecked, but the crew escaped without a scratch. John Hughes, motorman, Wade Holder, Ralph Brothers, Dan Gorley and Vincent Conkle were on the car.

Kansas Subscriber Shows His Interest in the Organized Labor Contest.

A FEW HINTS TO VOTERS

Although interest in the voting contest continues great, Series B coupons ought to be coming in faster than they are at present. It is to be hoped that nobody is purposely holding them back until he can send in a large batch. Little and often counts as much in the end as big bunches far apart. And it lends interest to the contest and facilitates the counting to have even a few votes added daily to the candidate's total. All Series B coupons will be invalid at the close of the present month, and the last half of April is already here. Let the votes come in early and often. Then you stand no chance of losing them.

An old subscriber writes from Kansas: "I am very glad to see the evidence of popular interest in the prize offered made by the News Review. It is certainly a remarkably liberal offer, and all readers of the News Review doubtless appreciate it as such. You have a grand paper in East Liverpool now. When I lived there the dailies were little five-column apologies for newspapers that I was almost ashamed to send to friends away from home. Man your prosperity continue. I send a few coupons for an old friend, and will send more."

THE SPRINGS

Councilman Marshall at the Popular Resort Where Mayor-Elect Is Staying.

WILLING TO GIVE OPINIONS

In Case He Should Be Asked For Them, and They May Be Interesting.

LATEST POLITICAL GOSSIP

Dr. R. J. Marshall left at noon today for Cambridge Springs, Pa. He has been troubled for the past few days with a severe cold, the same malady that caused Mayor-elect Weaver to go to the springs. It will be remembered that Mr. Weaver, upon the advice of his physician, left the city several days ago. Dr. Marshall is not his regular medical adviser.

It is possible that the mayor-elect and the physician may meet at the springs and talk over the affairs of this municipality. This is always an interesting subject to the latter, who has been a prominent member of council for a number of years. The mayor-elect, prior to the recent campaign, had not been active in public affairs. When he assumes the duties of the chief executive of the city on the first Monday in May he will have undertaken a task stupendous for a beginner. The city will be governed by a new and untried code of law, many changes will be made among the officeholders, and, if Mr. Weaver carries out the platform of the party by which he was nominated, there will be a radical change.

If Dr. Marshall cares to talk Mr. Weaver ought to be an attentive listener. In his campaign for the Republican majority nomination, Dr. Marshall announced, as his platform, "that dives should be abolished and their keepers made to obey the law." He certainly had hopes of winning the nomination and doubtless had pondered over how to make his declaration effective in case of his election. Just how he would have done so may be of great interest to Mr. Weaver.

There are people in the city who state authoritatively that Dr. Marshall's opinions and advice will be given a great deal of consideration by Mr. Weaver. Dr. Marshall may have preferences in the selection of chief of police, members of the board of public safety and other appointments within Mr. Weaver's power to make. If he has it is more than likely that Mr. Weaver will hear of it while they are both recuperating at the springs. It is pretty generally known in political circles that had Dr. Marshall been nominated and elected mayor, ex-Sheriff Charles Gill would have been his chief of police. It is not unreasonable to presume that, in the event of appointments being discussed, he will say a good word for his favorite.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

PREPARING FOR CONVENTION.

Nearly all of the Brotherhood locals are busily engaged just at present upon the preparation for the coming convention, to be held at Wheeling next month. A number of the locals will go into the convention with requests for a change in the working conditions of their respective trades. In a few instances these changes would mean almost an entire revolution, and it is safe to predict that they will not be favored by the convention. By far the greater number of resolutions, however, are of little moment to the trade generally, and will undoubtedly be concurred in. A matter which has created no end of discussion within the past few months is the partial failure on the part of the organization to abolish the contract system in several of the trades. According to the statement of a number of the best posted members of the Brotherhood there is no use in attempting to deny the truthfulness of the assertion made above. A portion of the time at the approaching national meeting will doubtless be devoted to a consideration of the conditions into which the packers have been thrown by reason of the abolition of the contract system, or the attempt to do so. The workmen engaged in this trade differed from the mould-makers, who were also affected, in that they remained loyal to the Brotherhood, and have suffered severely in consequence. A very small percentage of the members of No. 25, packers, are now located in as good or as lucrative berths as before the inauguration of the abolition clause.

It is the opinion of many that the Brotherhood in convention ought to provide some remedy for this state of affairs. The packers have demonstrated that they can be trusted and are made of the right kind of stuff. Every trade under the jurisdiction of the National body had a voice in declaring against the contract system. Any one who takes the trouble to inquire can readily perceive what it has done for the packers, and it is no more than just that every trade under the jurisdiction of the national organization should be interested in a measure that will afford the relief they need and must have in order to exist.

FIRST DRESDEN WARE.

Dresden china began its reign at the fair of Leipzig, 1721, where it was first offered for public sale for the first time. It has three periods—King's, Marcoline and modern—and for all around use it continues to be the most popular ware of this day. The factory marks traced on the bottom of each piece vary according to the period—the oldest (King's) being the monogram A. R. and the wand of Aesculapius. The familiar crossed swords, with the dot or circle between the handles, were first used in 1721, and the star took the place of the dot in the Marcoline period. The modern mark is the simple crossed swords, sometimes accompanied by letters and numbers.

NO. 53'S SOCIAL.

Finishers' local union No. 53, composed principally of ladies, has arranged for a social and entertainment to be given at its rooms in the Red Men's building next Monday evening. A fine program has been prepared and the prospects are good for a large crowd. On account of the labor lecture to be held in the opera house on the same evening the ladies have arranged to begin the entertainment later.

POTTERIES ARE DISABLED.

Very few operatives in the river and East End potteries were at work today owing to the shortage of the gas supply caused by a break in the mains of the Ohio Valley company, near Cameron, W. Va. The supply is still sufficient for heating and lighting purposes.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional means. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation is taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, sold by druggists, free.

Caution.

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are enot to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25c size has just been introduced this year. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

KEEPING THE STREETS IN GOOD ORDER

Commissioner Dickey Cleaning Paved Thoroughfares By Flushing With Success.

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey, alias Andy Carnegie, has had a force of men at work cleaning the principal streets of the city by the use of water from the hydrants. He has found this a most successful manner in bringing the desired results and will continue it so long as the water supply is sufficient.

Notwithstanding that there are some streets of the city that have become eyesores to the public, owing to their being unpaved, the central thoroughfares at the present time will pass inspection fairly well. They are swept often and when the water is applied they look as if newly paved.

Commissioner Dickey has more troubles than a policeman, but he endeavors to keep the streets in order as far as his jurisdiction allows, and is without doubt making a success of it.

I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

NEW BOOKS ARE GREATLY NEEDED

The Present Library Stock Will Soon Be Inadequate to the Growing Demand.

PATRONAGE IS INCREASING

The Month of March Showing Over 8,000 Books Used—Every Month Has Shown Steady Gains—Facts from the Report of Miss Baker.

Miss Gertrude Baker, the efficient and accommodating librarian at the Carnegie library, has completed her annual report and the results it shows are most gratifying, both in the manner in which the institution has been conducted and the patronage it has received from the book-loving people of the city. Comparing the statistics to be found in the report it is seen that East Liverpool ranks far above any city in the United States of its size in patronage, a truth of which the residents cannot be too proud.

There is, however, an alarming condition promised if definite and speedy action is not taken toward the raising of money for the purchase of books, a demand for which is daily increasing. From the report of Miss Baker the following statistics are taken and a perusal of them will satisfy every one of the vast amount of reading that has been furnished and taken advantage of during the past year, ending April 1, and also of the necessity of more books:

The library was open, commencing May 12, 1902, 294 days. On Mondays and Saturdays it was open 12 hours; on the other four days 11 hours and on Sunday, since November, 4 hours. The number of books circulated during the first month was 2,803, being 203 more than the librarian then had at her command. Every month since then the number has increased and the last month shows 4,457.

The banner month was March, when 4,478 books were carried from the library and 4,033 were read in the library, making a total of 8,511 books in circulation.

The total number of books in the library is 5,531, while there is space provided for 20,000. There are now 2,100 people in the city drawing books, and it is easily to be seen that some provision must be made for a larger supply.

During the year over 40,000 books were carried home and over 31,000 were read in the library. Though the best possible care has been taken of the books they are continually wearing out, and even the books that are now on hand will some day have to be replaced by new ones.

The librarian and the library board have had quite an array of daily papers on hand at the institution, but owing to the scarcity of money have had none of the best papers of the United States, and it is a fact that they very much regret. There is never a day passes that calls are not made for foreign papers, and the requests are compelled to be turned down.

CONSTABLE COPESTICK

Enters Upon the Duties of His Office With Chances All in His Favor.

William Copestick, the newly qualified constable, has started his term as an officer of the law under circumstances very encouraging. For several reasons and probably the foremost one is his usual ability for making friends. He is a whole-souled, kind hearted man and can hardly count his friends, as was evidenced by the number that voted for his election. Friendship and good acquaintances are highly important to the success of an officer, and Constable Copestick, having both, he will undoubtedly prove well worthy of the position awarded him.

CURES CHRONIC CATARRH

Hyomei Cures Worst Forms of This Disease in Any Part of the System.

It is the height of folly to continue doctoring a catarrhal disease by stomach drugging, when the whole trouble lies in the respiratory organs where nothing can reach the germs but a local direct treatment by inhalation. Hyomei is nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh. Just breathe it a few times daily and it will effect a cure.

You may have catarrh of the stomach, liver or kidneys and Hyomei will as surely cure it as it will catarrh of the head and throat. The catarrhal germs are in the mucous membrane or tissues and Hyomei not only kills the germs along the air passages, but enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood.

The medicated dry air that goes through the air passages, and into the lungs when Hyomei is breathed through the inhaler that accompanies every outfit, is rich in ozone, purely vegetable and filled with marvelous healing and strength-giving qualities.

If you are tired of stomach drugging and seem to grow weaker all the time, "throw physic to the dogs" and get well with the health giving Hyomei treatment that is nature's own method.

Rev. J. B. Cook, of Holliston, Mass., says: "My wife has suffered greatly from catarrh for 15 years. Nearly four weeks ago she commenced to use Hyomei and the beneficial effect was immediate. It is very seldom that she needs to clear her head and throat and she is able to rest quietly at night. For years past she has been troubled with pain in her limbs which we supposed was rheumatism, but since she has used Hyomei, the affliction has disappeared."

Will Reed will return your money if Hyomei does not cure you of catarrh. This shows his faith in the remedy.

EAST END

A STEADY INCREASE
IN POPULATION

Thirty New Residents Are Being Added Each Week to the Population of the East End.

The population of the East End is increasing at about the rate of 30 a week, according to the statements of those who have been keeping tab on the new arrivals. There seems to be but little difficulty in securing work of one kind or another. For the most part the immigrants are from Wood and Pleasant counties, W. Va., although many other localities are represented. Usually they are good workers and all seem to be well satisfied. Nearly every upbound packet brings embryo citizens.

This rapid rate of increase keeps up a constant demand for houses. Alex Chafin now has 10 under construction and will build more during the summer. The fact is that building down town is practically helping the growth of the East End. It is almost impossible to find an empty dwelling house in the down town districts and this condition will prevail until the building disputes are settled. Many people are living in the East End who failed to find houses down town.

TEAMSTER RESENTED

Gave Him a Sound Drubbing When Invited to Engage in a Personal Encounter.

Reports from a desperate fight which occurred across the state line last Saturday are just beginning to be heard in the East End. One of the principals, Street Lane, a prominent teamster, a former resident of the feudal region of Kentucky, was one of the principals, but it was not through him the story got abroad. He was driving his team along the road between the East End and Smith's Ferry, when one of his horses splattered mud upon a pedestrian. This man, whose name is not known, grew angry and used some vile language. He told Lane to get off the wagon or he would pull him off. Lane resented being called names and didn't wait for a second invitation to dismount. In the personal encounter that followed he had all the best of it and gave the obstreperous stranger a drubbing that will no doubt help him to keep a civil tongue. The fight was witnessed by a large number of the workmen along the railroad.

A number of additional men arrived in the East End this morning to help in the work.

SENATORSHIP RACE
IS A LIVELY ONE

EVERY COUNTY BUT ONE HAS TWO CANDIDATES.

Possibility of a Combine Between Jefferson and Belmont Suggested.

Some of the liveliest politics now on exhibition in Ohio is in progress over in the Twentieth-Twenty-second senatorial district, where two senators are to be nominated by the Republicans at Wellsville, May 28, says the Columbus State Journal. Every county in the district, with the single exception of Columbiana, that has pronounced for Senator Connell, has two candidates, but there is a movement on foot to have the unit rule in operation. This has already been agreed upon in Jefferson county, where Messrs Duval and Moore are the opposing candidates. Belmont, with Messrs. Heinlein and Howard, and Harrison with Messrs. Beal and Branson, it is believed, will follow suit, making these counties of more power in the convention than if the strength of each was divided.

Belmont and Harrison counties are the old Twentieth district, and Jefferson and Columbiana the old Twenty-second. It is claimed that Columbiana already has enjoyed two terms of the senatorship. Senators Connell and Blakes. Besides the argument is made that the lower end of the district should have something. Belmont and Jefferson combined have 97 votes, two more than necessary to nominate, and if they should get together they can win, while Harrison with its 23 votes can only give Connell 92, or three shy of a nomination. The district has always held to the two-term rule, and the point is now made that with Blake in the Seventy-third and Connell in the Seventy-fifth, Columbiana has had her share.

UNIQUE DISPLAY
BY LABOR UNIONS

Building Trades Council of Pittsburgh Preparing For a Big Event.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

And Elaborate Shows Arranged For The Object Is To Raise Funds For The Erection of a Grand Labor Temple.

Pittsburg, April 16. — (Special.)—Unique in the history of the labor movement of the United States is the plan now under completion by the labor organizations of Pittsburgh for the raising of money to form the nucleus of a building fund to be used in the erection of a labor temple here. The Building Trades Council of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity is arranging for a mammoth celebration to be known as the United Labor Carnival, which, it is said, will be the greatest event of its kind ever held. Arrangements have been made with the Morris & Berger company to bring to Pittsburgh the most elaborate combination of attractions that was ever gathered together. In addition it is proposed to have a large number of distinguished visitors and speakers, and to make the event one of national character.

The date fixed for the grand celebration is from May 30 to June 13. Opening on Decoration day, it is expected that thousands of visitors to Pittsburgh will take advantage of the festival to amuse themselves after paying their tribute to the heroes in whose honor the day is set apart. With its immense street parade, its elaborate free attractions and its 40 paid admission shows, all of the largest and finest character, the festival will undoubtedly be the place where everybody will go on that day. There will be speakers of national, yes, world-wide fame to open the celebration, among them such men as President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor; President G. W. Steinbliss, of the National Building Trades Council; President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers; Senators Hanna, Quay and Penrose, and Governor S. W. Penypacker.

The utterances of such men as these will be of more than passing interest on an occasion of this kind, when they are talking to an audience representing the working people of the three greatest industrial states of the union, Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

Arrangements are being made to secure reduced rates on all railroad and steamboat lines leading into Pittsburgh during the festival. Special excursion trains will likely be run from all towns and cities within a radius of 150 miles of this city for the event, bringing thousands of visitors to the United Labor Carnival.

The shows which are being arranged for by Messrs. Morris & Berger are of the highest character, and the largest and best that can be found. There will be absolutely nothing in the entire festival which will offend the most fastidious. Every show will be arranged with a view to entertaining every member of the family in a clean, wholesome manner. There will be, as before stated, 40 paid admission shows, making the United Labor Carnival of Pittsburgh the largest of the kind ever projected. The largest that has heretofore been held has only 25 paid admission shows.

In addition there will be some of the most highly sensational free attractions that were ever seen. Street parades will be a daily feature, and the entire city will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. The Building Trades Council has authorized the expenditure of $50,000 in making the affair a success, and in bringing it up to the standard they desire to establish—to make it the best and most enjoyable amusement event ever held in Pittsburgh.

UNIVERSITIES TO TEACH
THE SCIENCE OF HUMANITY

By General WILLIAM BOOTH, Commander in Chief of the Salvation Army

UNIVERSITY of the science of humanity, where men and women can be trained to reclaim depraved women, criminals and drunkards—that's what I want now. I mean a great institution, with its main establishments in London and New York, correlated with branches in Melbourne, Toronto, Berlin and Paris, from which thousands of workers shall be sent to the submerged masses each year, skilled in every known method of rescuing human beings from the underworld of despair.

We must have this university for training people in the real work of saving the vicious and the criminal. This vast work, which lies beyond the power of governments, which is outside of the organized churches, should not depend much longer on the accident of individual experience, but should be carried on by men and women picked for their intelligence, devotion and aptitude for work among the fallen, regularly trained and graduated.

IN AMERICA VICE AND CRIME EXIST AS IN ENGLAND. YOUR VICE IS BETTER DRESSED THAN THAT OF THE OLD WORLD. IT EATS BETTER FOOD AND HAS GAYER MANNERS. YOUR PAINTED WOMEN ARE PLEASURE SEEKING WANTONS RATHER THAN CREATURES DRIVEN TO SHAME BY POVERTY. BUT IN TIME YOUR VICE WILL BECOME MONSTROUS AND HIDEOUS AND RAGED, LIKE MUCH OF THE VICE OF LONDON. WAIT!

What an extraordinary spectacle! Here is a continent in which genius for industry and organization has piled up wealth that staggers the imagination. Here is a great people famous for their practical, sound sense, and yet, although the Salvation Army has demonstrated that criminals and drunkards and women of shame can be saved and brought back to useful places in society, although it has straightened out and secured employment for tens of thousands of criminals and has drawn more than 38,000 fallen women into its homes in various parts of the world, although we have shown that the thing which prisons and churches have failed to do can be done and is being done, the possessors of the wealth of the nation are inert, indifferent.

This seething, swelling sea of wretchedness and desperation is a menace to the homes of the country. It is washing away steadily at the moral foundation of your national life. We must organize a science of humanity for the slums. We must have no namby pamby academic missionary nonsense. We have to deal with men and women who think and feel. There is a way of approaching them that will draw them out of the abyss, stir repentance, awaken hope and ambition, and there is a way of approach that will send them more deeply and desperately into hell.

Fierce Wind Storm Sweeps Atlantic Coast—Highest Tide in Years.

SEVERAL VESSELS DESTROYED.

Worst Storm in Thirty Years—Factories Flooded at Elizabeth and Much Damage Done on Water Front. Railroad Traffic Suspended.

New York, April 16.—A fierce wind storm from the northeast swept New York, developing unusual severity after a night of gales. The storm blew shoreward, was accompanied by the highest tide known in years and brought a cold, pelting rain. It did much damage along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts. At Coney Island and Rockaway a large part of the sandy beach was cut out and much other damage done by the tide and violent wind. The gale was severe upon the shipping anchored in the bay off Staten Island. The fishing schooner Mariner went ashore and broke up at Stapleton. The fishing schooner Iroquois sank at the docks.

The French four-masted ship Jodelito and the English bark Italia, which are anchored in the middle of the bay, dragged their anchors to within 100 yards of the docks at St. George.

The fishing schooner Edward Hooper, of Gloucester, Mass., dragged her anchors and fouled the pilot boats Edward E. Barrett and James Gordon Bennett, carrying away the Bennett's bowsprit and headgear and damaging her own quarter so that she sprang a leak.

Old residents said the storm at Brighton and Coney Island was the most severe in 30 years. The east wind tossed up enormous waves along the beach and raised the level of the water until it was up to the first floor of the new iron pier at Coney Island. The new bulkhead at the foot of Ocean Parkway was wrecked in several places and boardwalks, bath houses and other small structures were washed away. The new bulkhead was nearing completion after being under construction all winter.

Seabright, N. J., April 16.—The wind and high surf did much damage here. Several houses and the boardwalk were damaged. The surf washed over the tracks of the New Jersey Southern railroad and traffic was suspended.

Elizabeth, N. J., April 16.—A violent northeast wind and rain storm did much damage along the water front. Factories were flooded and work stopped, lumber was washed away from yards and a large quantity of coal was swept from the Jersey Central wharves. The Newark and Elizabeth branch of the Jersey Central is under water and the meadows between Newark and Elizabeth have become an inland sea. Inhabitants of the southern part of Elizabethport have to use rowboats to get to other parts of the city.

WOMAN FALLS HEIR TO FORTUNE

Miss Rebecca Taylor, Seeking Reinstatement as Clerk, Is Left Bulk of Vast Estate.

Washington, April 16.—Miss Rebecca J. Taylor, who recently sought unsuccessfully in the district courts to compel her reinstatement as a clerk in the war department, from which Secretary Root dismissed her on account of articles published by her sharply criticizing the administration's Philippine policy, has received information that she has been left about $200,000 by the death of an uncle in San Francisco Sunday night.

The dispatch said she had been left the bulk of her uncle's estate and had been made executrix of the will. She left here for San Francisco Tuesday, but before leaving the city said she would return to Washington in October, when her case will be heard in the court of appeals. In the lower court she appeared in her own behalf and made an argument lasting about two days to the court.

Discuss Labor Question.
New Orleans, April 16.—The delegates to the national convention of the Association of Manufacturers devoted practically all of their time of both sessions to the discussion of the labor question. There was much difference of opinion as to the nature of the attitude which the organization should take towards trades unionism and the debates were at times heated.

Wireless Telegraph Station.
New York, April 16.—Preparations are being made at Fort Schuyler, on Long Island sound, for the building of a wireless telegraph station to communicate with the defenses at the eastern entrance to the sound, 103 miles away. The new line is an extension of the system to be established between all of the harbor forts and the defenses around New York.

Constipation Will Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. It will quickly restore lost flesh and make rich, red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

Life Plant Cures Rheumatism.

Because it purifies the Blood. Rheumatism is caused by the presence of an excess of Uric acid in the blood. Uric acid is caused by a peculiar fermentation product. You must remove the cause to cure Rheumatism. Drive out the Uric acid and prevent its formation. Life Plant opens up the organs of excretion, which in time carry off the Uric acid, and thus removes the cause. It not only removes the cause, but it prevents the formation of the Uric acid, and prevents a recurrence of the disease. It renews life. Restores and renews the vital element in the blood and makes you strong and vigorous. Read what Geo. Crater says:

Life Plant Company, Messrs.—For the benefit of those who have Rheumatism, I take the liberty to inform you of my remarkable cure by the use of Life Plant. Had Rheumatism for six years. Shoulders so affected as to prevent my going on either side. Sciatic Rheumatism in my right leg, gave me many sleepless hours at night. Lumps came in the veins of my wrists and neck, very painful to the touch. Physicians and medicines failed to benefit me. At last I was induced to try Life Plant. Three bottles cured me. No more lumps, no more soreness, no more pain. I am well and all right. Yours truly, George Crater. Member, Board of Equalization, August 16, 1900. Canal Dover, Ohio.

Congressman Cannon, just back from a trip to Porto Rico and Cuba, speaks hopefully of the future of both islands. He finds no evidence of the discontent and dissatisfaction which are popularly supposed to prevail there. He has traveled over the island and talked with people of all conditions, with the result that he is convinced that Cuba has a soil that is capable of supporting in comfort a population four or five times greater than it has at present. He has inquired into its government and into the character of the men who are now at the front and is satisfied that things are going well and that affairs are in the hands of men who for the most part are conservative and patriotic, as well as friendly to the United States. All of which is good news to the people who fought for Cuba's freedom.

Discussion of the government building site is interesting, but the fact that East Liverpool is at last to have such a building is more so. The matter of the selection of a site now rests entirely with the government, and it is reasonable to suppose that the wishes and convenience of the people of this city will carry weight with its officials. If a selection is to be made from the two sites offered thus far, there is but one of them that will be found to have many advocates save those immediately interested in the sale and others owning property in the vicinity. This fact is patent to everybody. A postoffice should be located in a spot easily accessible and as near the business center as possible. The Brunt site fills these requirements and the other does not.

Good features in the new municipal code are still being discovered and pointed out. Under the provisions regulating both police and fire department, it is made unlawful for any one to solicit subscriptions from any officer or employee with a view to furthering the interests of any political party, and it is likewise unlawful for any officer or employee to make such contribution. In other words, there can be no political assessments levied in either department. And, in this connection, the law has been made broad enough to cover not only cash transactions, but promises of political preferment or support.

Why not get up a big Fourth of July celebration in this city this year? East Liverpool is capable of making such a celebration a huge success. It ought not to be necessary to go away from home for amusement on the great national holiday. We have all the necessary facilities here to make the eagle scream to the limit.

The librarian's report, elsewhere summarized, furnishes the strongest possible arguments showing why the $2,000—more than half of which is already subscribed—should be raised immediately and applied to the purchase of books.

Judging from the Pittsburg papers, since the Pennsylvania legislature has adjourned a whole lot of our neighbors across the border will be relieved of the necessity of setting up at night for fear of being robbed.

Prophet Dowie's predictions as to the Chicago election were all wrong. And there are many who believe that he can better prophesy concerning things terrestrial than things celestial.

"To advance the negroes, educate them," says Grover Cleveland. The ex-president has at last said something from which there will be no dissent.

Conversationalists who desire to avoid disagreeable subjects must cease to talk about the weather, for the present at least.

OBITUARY

Samuel G. Arbuckle.

Thomas H. Arbuckle, of this city, has been apprised of the death at St. Paul, Minn., of Samuel G. Arbuckle, on Tuesday last. Mr. Arbuckle was 64 years old. He was the son of S. C. and Sarah A. Arbuckle, former residents of East Liverpool, and was born in Fallston, Pa. He had been in failing health for two years. His parents came to this city in 1839 and remained about 20 years, removing to Minnesota. Mr. Arbuckle was formerly a member of General Lyon post, G. A. R., of this city, and had a remarkable military record.

He enlisted in Company A, Sixth Minnesota Infantry, in 1862, and before his regiment was sent to the front he was called out to suppress the Indian massacre at Birch Cooley, Minn. His company of 90 mounted infantry was surrounded and attacked after night by 600 or 700 Indians. They fought all night long, from dark until daylight. Forty-five of the 90 were killed and wounded. Mr. Arbuckle was shot through the legs and wounded in the head. His brother, Benjamin F. Arbuckle, went through the same Indian fight without a scratch, and is buried in the National cemetery at Memphis, Tenn. Relief came in the morning, and Mr. Arbuckle was picked up and thought to be dead. He was taken back to St. Paul, placed in the hospital, where he recovered and was honorably discharged from the service.

Mr. Arbuckle was twice married, first to Miss Deborah E. Frederick, of this city, and after her death to Miss Mattie B. Huston, also of East Liverpool. He is survived by his second wife, one sister, Mrs. A. J. Webber, of St. Paul, and the following brothers: Thomas H. Arbuckle, East Liverpool; Dr. G. W. Arbuckle, Cleveland; W. H. and A. J. Arbuckle, of St.

AT THE THEATER

The Topeka State Journal has the following to say of Paul Gilmore:

"The Tyranny of Tears" is one of the few comedies here this season that border on the legitimate. There have been plenty of farce and slap-stick affairs, and it was a relief to see and hear that which developed humor subtle and rich. Mr. Chambers' comedy, though of a smaller breed, is as worthy of a long life as "The School for Scandal," and it is far more decent. In fact, there is nothing vulgar, nothing suggestive and nothing of the low comedy order in the fearful comedy. It is bright, witty and as much a mirror of temperaments and taming as the immortal "Taming of the Shrew."

Mr. Gilmore, who played the leading role of "Clement Parbury," appeared at his best in the role. He has been seen in Topeka before in "The Three Musketeers" and in "Under the Red Robe," but in neither of the romantic and thrilling dramas did he win the favor he did last night. Mr. Gilmore is an actor in the front rank who may be referred to as "American actors of tomorrow" for the zenith of his career has not been reached.

Refined theatergoers are agog over the attraction here of Kathryn Kidder in "An Eye for an Eye." This is the play of the younger Dumas that some of the dramatist's critics have classed on the same high plane of power as his "Camille." The play has been long and eagerly sought by American managers, but entanglements of negotiation have delayed its issue here until now. The management of the Grand are to be congratulated upon securing Miss Kidder and her excellent company. At the Grand next Tuesday evening.

"At Cozy Corners," the play in which charming little Adelaide Thurston is to be seen at the Grand opera house Friday, April 17, is said to be the kind that carries the heroine through a series of adventures that quickens the pulse to an excitable pitch. "The theatre was obviously instituted for amusement purposes," said Miss Thurston, in a recent interview "and it serves the same mission to those who seek respite from the sordid cares of life as fairy tales do in the entertainment of children."

James F. MacDonald will be alone in the field of refined comedy this season, as his only rival, William Collier, is now a member of Weber & Field's Stock company, and will not be seen on the road. No one of the younger comedians has made such rapid strides to success as has Mr. MacDonald, and his greatest success in his entire career has been won as William Fuller in "Hello, Bill," in which character he will be seen at the Grand next Saturday.

Fighting Continues.
St. Thomas, D. W. I., April 16.—The French cruiser Troude arrived from San Domingo city. She reports that fighting took place there Sunday night and Monday morning between revolutionists and government forces during which several were killed and many were wounded, among the latter being a seaman of the German cruiser Vineta, who is supposed to have been fatally hurt. The Dominican government troops captured a fort, but were eventually repulsed and the fort was retaken. The Dominican revolutionary gunboat Independencia has gone to the north of the island. Another fight was momentarily expected when the Troude sailed, as the revolutionists were preparing to pursue President Vasquez and his troops.

Burned by Gas Explosion.
Pittsburg, April 16.—Three houses in Page street, Allegheny, were wrecked by an explosion of artificial gas and one man was seriously burned. The explosion occurred in the home of William McCune, an Allegheny health officer. Frederick McCune, a son, was repairing a gas jet in the parlor of the house when the explosion occurred. The front of the McCune house was blown out, as were the fronts of the houses on each side of the McCune residence.

Postoffice Investigation Continued.
Washington, April 16.—Fresh charges are being received constantly at the postoffice department in connection with the investigation now in progress, but their nature is being withheld from the public. Postmaster General Payne said the correspondence in the case of Assistant Attorney General Tyner would be made public later on. Mr. Tyner's resignation takes effect May 15. No successor has yet been chosen.

WELLSVILLE

LASTED ONLY 24 HOURS

The Strike at the Carroll-Porter Boiler Works Was Soon Over.

The strike at the Carroll-Porter boiler works is now over and most of the men returned to work this morning. The punchers and riveters, however, did not go to work with the rest, as there is some disagreement about their wage scale. The men did not go out so much on account of a non-union man being employed, but because he was not a practical mechanic and receiving the same pay as the other men working with him. They complained but were not heeded, so they decided to refuse to work while this man was employed. They were out just twenty-four hours when the man was discharged and they were asked to return.

The union held an open meeting in the Potters' hall yesterday afternoon and discussed the situation. About six months ago a contract was drawn up and signed by both the company and the employees relative to the wages paid and the number of working hours. The union also agreed to furnish all the men that were needed. It has been impossible for the union to supply enough men; so, it is asserted, cheap labor has been engaged and some of the men are breaking the contract.

The six months for which time the agreement was made will be up in thirteen days, at which time the company will be asked to sign another scale of wages and also an agreement to do away with cheap labor. The union will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening and the new agreement will no doubt receive considerable attention.

Hamilton, D. S. Brookman, H. C. De Sellem, H. B. Nicholson and A. P. Smith. The office force will not be changed and W. P. Sharer will still continue as cashier.

Mr. Sharer, the cashier, stated that the greater part of the stock had changed hands and at present the bank was under an entirely new management.

FOOT BADLY CRUSHED

Colored Employee at Railroad Shops Has Several Bones Broken.

Edward Bailey, a colored employee at the railroad shops, last evening had several bones broken in his foot. He is engaged in the boiler room and just before quitting time, with several other employees, was moving a large tank. Bailey was in front of the tank so that it could not roll too fast, when he tripped and fell and the tank rolled over his right foot, breaking several bones. He was picked up and carried to his boarding house in the West End.

Dr. Campbell was called and dressed the injuries. At first it was thought the foot was so badly crushed that amputation would be necessary, but after careful examination this proved not the case and in a few weeks, with careful attention, the foot will be entirely well.

Fingers Badly Crushed.

Manofole Diveneza, an Italian laborer employed at the sheet mill, had the two middle fingers of his right hand badly crushed. His work is to load and haul sheets of heavy iron from one part of the mill to another. While he, with an assistant, was engaged in loading a cart with these heavy sheets, one of the pieces dropped, striking him and pinning his hand fast to the floor. The iron had to be

Brought No Ducks Home.

Henry Patterson and Dr. Fraser, two prominent sportsmen, took a day off on Tuesday and went duck hunting. They went to a place called The Clusters, a few miles west of this city. They left at the break of day and were gone until late in the afternoon. When they returned they came in by a back street. They reported a fine time and of having shot several ducks, but brought none home.

Last Meeting of Old Council.

The trades and labor council will hold its regular meeting in Potters' hall this evening. This will be the last meeting of the present council and a large amount of business will be transacted. The five delegates from the local unions of the city have been elected and the council will be reorganized on the first Thursday evening in May.

The Mill Idle.

On account of the break in the main pipe of the Ohio Valley Gas company, the sheet mill was shut down last evening. No work was done all last night. The break is being repaired and will no doubt be finished some time today, and the mill will start up at once.

One Old Custom That Survives.

An ancient custom which still survives was to roll eggs down a hill, the one which reached the bottom intact winning the rest. A survival of this custom is found in Washington, where the children gather in the White House grounds on Easter Monday and roll eggs down the grassy slope in front of the building.

SOUTH SIDE

Entertainment at the Park Raised a Neat Sum for Church Building Fund.

The concert and festival given by the ladies of the Sacred Heart Catholic church at Rock Springs pavilion last evening was a complete success both financially and in the matter of attendance. The receipts, after the expenses have been paid, will be added to the building fund.

The program was the best ever listened to at the park, and some of the numbers were as near perfect as it would be possible to make them. The musicians represented the best talent of East Liverpool and several surrounding cities. The choir of St. Aloysius Catholic church of East Liverpool provided the chorus music, and it was a rare treat. All of the numbers on the program elicited applause and were highly appreciated.

In a pleasing manner Miss Elizabeth Hamill opened the musical treat with several difficult piano selections rendered in a manner which was most pleasing to the listeners. She is a performer of the highest order, and has taken a place among the foremost artists in this part of the state.

Miss Emma Connelly, of Wheeling, who is a great favorite with East Liverpool audiences, sang a number of beautiful solos. Miss Connelly possesses a voice of wonderful richness and the manner in which she controls it indicates perfect cultivation.

Mr. Clemens, of Wheeling, is a soloist who experts predict will be heard from in no distant future. He is a tenor and sang two selections in fine style.

"May Morning" and "Gypsy Maiden" were the titles of two solos rendered by Miss Elizabeth Luthringer, of Pittsburgh. Miss Luthringer's singing was appreciated when she was a resident of East Liverpool, and she has developed into a soprano of wonderful ability.

Miss Margaret King's selection was "Violeta," and the rendition was among the best on the program.

A mandolin duet by Messrs. Samuel and Davis Grigold pleased the audience so well that they were heartily encored.

Ed. Mackintosh's ability as a baritone is well known to East Liverpool audiences, and last night he sang in especially good form. His was the concluding number, and received hearty applause and an encore.

BRANDON-WILSON

Wedding of a Popular Young Couple at the County Seat.

One of the prettiest wedding ceremonies celebrated in New Cumberland in many years was that which united the lives and fortunes of Clifton Wilson and Miss Edna Brandon, both of the county seat. The ceremony, which was a most beautiful one, was performed by Rev. J. S. Hamilton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New Cumberland at high noon today.

A large number of guests were present and the happy pair were made the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. At the conclusion of the festivities a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The couple will reside in New Cumberland, where they are both well known and very popular.

Among the Chester people present was C. M. Evans, the popular salesman at Allison & Hobbs' establishment.

PRESBYTERY MEETING

Chester Represented For First Time. Proposed West Virginia Synod.

Squire A. G. Pugh arrived home last night from Washington, Pa., where he attended a meeting of the Washington presbytery, representing the Chester congregation. The Chester church was only organized in February, and this is the first time it has had a voice in the presbytery.

Mr. Pugh was pleased with the meeting, and will have an interesting report to make to his people.

The question of having a new synod of the churches in West Virginia, a committee of five was appointed to confer with the Pittsburgh presbytery and if sufficient churches can be secured by Washington to have a large synod the West Virginia churches will be allowed to form a synod.

lously handicapping the workmen at the park. Manager Maxwell estimates that it will require at least two weeks more of suitable weather to put the park in shape. Another drawback has been the failure of the park people to receive material. Several carloads of lumber are now on the road, and though the bill was received in Chester several days ago, no trace of the consignment can be obtained.

FINE NEW BUILDING

To Be Erected By the Chester Grocery—Additional Ground Bought.

The Chester Grocery company has just closed a deal whereby it acquires a lot 45 feet fronting on First street and adjoining the present establishment. The consideration is private, but the company is making no secret of its future intentions. With the 45 feet formerly owned by the company and on which the two-story brick is now located, the concern will have a frontage of 90 feet.

Upon this site it is proposed to erect a modern three-story brick business block, the entire ground floor of which they expect to occupy with their constantly increasing business. Work upon the proposed building will be commenced at once, and it is expected that it can be completed and ready for occupancy within three months.

NO COMMISSIONER

And the Streets of Chester Show the Need of Such an Officer.

Chester is still without a street commissioner, and inconvenience has finally given way to downright suffering from the many annoyances occasioned by the filthy condition of the streets.

Those thoroughfares which have not yet been paved are positively impassable to traffic, while the paved streets have become so dirty that it is almost impossible to tell that there is a brick foundation underneath. What makes the situation worse is the fact that there is no indication of any relief soon, as there is not a single application in for the position.

CHESTER NOTES.

Fred Sinclair will on Monday move to the Columbus Cunningham property.

Ex-senator J. R. Donahoe, of New Cumberland, was a Chester visitor today.

Edward Baxter and Fred Sinclair are erecting a barn on Mr. Baxter's property on Adolphus street.

The Daughters of St. George of East Liverpool will hold a dance at the Rock Springs pavilion tonight.

All of the Chester petteries are idle today in nearly every department, owing to a shortage in the gas supply.

Contractor W. H. Coates, of Beaver Falls, is making preparations to resume his paving contracts in Chester next week.

At the city election held in Wellsburg last Tuesday the town was once more voted dry by 255 of a majority. A Democratic mayor was elected.

The new residence of Lawrence and that of Thomas Croxall, both located on Adolphus street, are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy within a short time.

As an example of the active building operations going on in Chester, there are now nine houses on Adolphus street where a year ago there was not a single building.

Brewery Workers Reinstated.

Cincinnati, April 16.—When the brewery workers struck at Columbus, O., and Cincinnati brewers sent their product to that city it was boycotted. In retaliation 150 brewery workers in Cincinnati were then locked out, but all were reinstated after Louis Kemper, national secretary of the United Brewery Workers, issued a statement that the boycott in Columbus was declared through a misunderstanding and he officially announced that the Cincinnati product was fair and should be upheld as the product of union brewers.

Fatal Fire.

Pittsburg, April 16.—One man was burned to death, another broke his shoulder bone and a third was badly burned about the arms and hands during a fire in an Italian boarding house in Boundary street, Junction hollow. The dead: Mike Bernardi, 26 years old, a laborer, who boarded in the house. The injured: Mike Bolachio, jumped from the second-story window of a house three doors away and broke his shoulder bone; John Borelli, 19 years old, badly burned about the arms and hands.

Six Killed in Explosion.

Bluefields, W. Va., April 16.—News reached here of a terrible explosion at Vivian, W. Va., at the mines of the Peerless Coal and Coke company. A small shanty containing a large amount of powder near the mine caught fire in some unexplained manner and an explosion followed. Six men are reported killed and several others seriously injured. The names of the dead and injured are not known.

Traction Line May Be Sold.

Cleveland, April 16.—Active negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Tuscarawas Traction company, which is largely owned by Cleveland capitalists, to the Tucker-Anthony syndicate, of Boston. Preliminary conferences have been held and there is good reason to believe that the deal will go through. The Tuscarawas line connects New Philadelphia, Canal Dover and Ulrichville.

Veteran Brakeman Killed.

Martinsburg, W. Va., April 16.—Gus Thompson, aged 60 years, freight conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was struck by a passenger train near Sir John's Run, W. Va., and killed. His train parted and he stepped from the caboose to the west-bound track to flag when struck.

Homes Flooded.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 16.—Thirty families in Central Terre Haute were compelled to abandon their homes on account of the sudden rise of the Wabash river. The water stands 19 feet here and is still rising.

Roosevelt Still in Park.

Cincinnati, Mont., April 16.—President Roosevelt is somewhere in Yellowstone park between Soda, Butte and Yancey's. An incident that occurred in the park shows how closely every approach to the president is guarded. An employee of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company was discovered by a member of the Third cavalry about five miles from where the president made his camp. The man probably was there on business, but the soldier asked no explanation and would listen to no explanation. He placed the employee under arrest and marched him to the post headquarters at the point of a pistol. There the man disclosed his identity and was released.

Pope's Health Is Perfect.

Rome, April 16.—Dr. Laponi says that he has not vetoed any celebration on April 28, when his holiness will reach the age of St. Peter, as no celebration was ever proposed for that date. The pope thinking that the jubilee festivities just finished were quite enough. Dr. Laponi added that the health of the pope was now perfect, considering his age, and if nothing unforeseen happened he thought that Pope Leo will live to be at least a centenarian.

Shot Wife and Then Suicided.

Philadelphia, April 16.—Frank Mawson, aged 30 years, shot his wife in the head as she was walking along the street and then swallowed a quantity of cyanide of potassium. They were both taken to a hospital, where Mawson died. His wife will recover. The couple had been separated for some time and the woman's refusal to return to him is said to have caused the tragedy.

Killed by Brother-in-Law.

Princeton, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. A. H. Eaton, aged 24 years, was shot and instantly killed by her brother-in-law, Charley Eaton, aged 17 years. The revolver has not been found. The coroner is investigating. Mrs. Eaton was the wife of Alva Eaton, a Southern railway employee.

Murderer Respired.

Pittsburg, April 16.—"Buck" Saunders, the negro under sentence of death in the county jail, has been respired until June 25 in order that his case may be brought before the pardon board in May. Saunders was to have been hanged April 23.

Bad Fire in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, April 16.—The main plant of the Pawling & Harnischfeger company, manufacturers of electric cranes and other machinery, was gutted by fire. The loss is estimated at about $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The plant will be rebuilt. About 300 men will be temporarily thrown out of employment.

An Easy Problem.

Hubbard Lawton, familiarly known as "Hub," was by common consent the most shiftless man in Pineville. The most easy going woman in the town was Lucy Harmon, who did a little dressmaking when the fit seized her; but as a rule she sat tranquilly on her front doorstep in summer, and in her front window during spring, autumn and winter, doing nothing whatever with great contentment of mind and body.

Hub required financial aid from his relatives every month, and it was understood that Lucy received contributions from her neighbors without any false pride. When it was announced by Hub that he and Lucy were soon to be married, a plain spoken neighbor asked a pointed question:

"How are you and Lucy expecting to live?" she inquired. "Who's going to earn your bread and butter, Hub? Lucy's folks nor her neighbors won't feel any call to feed her when she's married to an able-bodied man."

"Why," said Hub reproachfully, "I don't know what folks are thinking of! Half a dozen people have asked me that same question. I can almost support myself, and Lucy can almost support herself, and I should think anybody with a head for fingers could see that when we fine forces there'll be something left over for a rainy day."

Too Many Cheers.

"It's a blamed shame!" said one of the defeated pugilists' friends. "If somebody'd only give him a cheering word he wouldn't feel so sore." "Cheerin' words be hangin'!" replied his manager. "It's de 'burrys' of de crowd dat makes him sore."—Philadelphia Press.

REALM OF SPORTS

BRILLIANT OUTLOOK FOR BASEBALL

All indications point to a season of unusual interest locally.

The rainy weather of the week has caused a lull in the baseball enthusiasm among the fans, but the leaders of the several organizations in the city have been earnestly at work and are endeavoring with all their might to have the teams and everything incident complete by the opening week.

It is with satisfaction that those on the inside of what the different managements are doing are looking forward to the game in the city during the fast-approaching season. From what can be gained from them there will not be a city in the state that will have better ball than East Liverpool. The numerous minor teams will be much better than the ordinary organizations, and the first team, to be known as the Y. M. C. A. team, will have few equals. It is said that the material to be used in the lineup of this team will surprise almost every fan. No time or expense will be saved in forming the team, and as a result it will without doubt be the best local aggregation an East Liverpool association ever placed upon a diamond. The names of the players cannot be gained at present, but within the next fortnight the entire lineup will be ready for publication and then it can be seen just what kind of ball can be expected.

A number of dates have already been secured and they are with the best amateur teams that travel. It was found necessary to have a local team that could compete with teams of that class, and that is the reason that so much time and energy is being given to the selection of the players.

Just when the manager of the first team will be chosen is not known, but it will be only a matter of a few days, several men being under consideration at the present time. At the meeting held Thursday night the manager was to be chosen, but owing to unpreventable circumstances it was left for another meeting, which will likely take place this week.

A LETTER FROM CAREY

Predicts Great Improvement in the Washington Team This Year.

Charles Berg, the second street barber, has received a letter from George (Todix) Carey, conceded to be the fastest first baseman in the country, in which he says that rainy weather has caused the Washington team much inconvenience during the past few days, and that as a result the members of that club have done very little along the line of practicing.

Todix predicts that the Senators will show the people a great improvement over last year, and that the team will be among the leaders at the end of the season. It is the hope of all of his East Liverpool acquaintances that he will add fresh laurels to his already richly crowned cap.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Chief Zimmer has made Roy Thomas captain of the Phillies.

Cleveland expects to have a horse show in the latter part of June.

The new cycle track at Charles River park, Boston, will be constructed for a speed of a mile a minute.

A. H. Soden denies the rumor that he has made all the money in baseball that he wants, and is ready to sell out.

The Rudy Bros., of Yorktown, Ind., believe Dan R. 2:04, has in him the qualities necessary to show two-minute speed before next fall.

A new law in Pennsylvania prohibits athletic contests of longer duration than 12 hours in any 24. This bars six-day cycle and pedestrian events.

The Country club, composed of Canton and Massillon people, have leased grounds at Meyer's Lake for five years, and will lay off tennis, golf and cricket grounds.

ALLIANCE LAD FIRST

Result of Naval Cadet Examination in the District Announced.

Youngstown, April 16.—(Special.)—Congressman Kennedy announces the result of the recent examination at Alliance to select a candidate for naval cadet. Homer G. Scranton, of Alliance, wins first place, having a score of 1,079 points. William E. Sherloc, of Canton, is second; Donald Kennedy, of Youngstown, third, and John Ballard, of Alliance, fourth.

If Scranton passes the civil service examination at Washington he will be given the appointment. If not, Sherloc, of Canton, will be given an opportunity to take this examination.

Mr. Scranton is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scranton, of South Union avenue, and is the second member of the family to win an appointment of this kind through a competitive examination.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE

Spindle Top Swept by Flames and Only Five Derricks Left Standing.

NOT ONE CENT OF INSURANCE.

Beaumont, Tex., April 16.—A careless workman kicked over a lantern at one of the Caldwell oil wells on block 38, Hogg-Swayne tract, on Spindle Top and started a fire that resulted in the loss of property valued at $1,600,000 and the bankruptcy of 20 or more of the smaller companies. There were 175 wells on the three blocks of the tract and only five of the derricks and pump houses are left standing. Every company that had property on the Hogg-Swayne tract is a loser. The fire swept the three blocks, covered with derricks and pump houses, clear of all its buildings. The derricks left are on the edges and are few and far between. None of the companies had a cent of insurance.

The fire started near the southern edge of block 38 and spread three ways. Pumping stations, derricks and pipe lines all fell before it. Large engines and truck pipe melted in the heat. It is estimated that 170 of the wells sustained an average direct loss of $3,000. This is exclusive of half a million dollars more, the aggregate loss on production and other indirect damages.

Fifty or more wells probably are ruined by the dropping of tubing into them as a result of the fire. Among the losers are: London Oil and Pipe Line company, Caldwell Oil company, Spindle Top Power company, Central Power and Equipment company, Pumping Station Division Oil company, Detroit-Beaumont, Palogino-Beaumont, Sun company, Advance Oil company, Queen City, Queen of Waco, Drummers, Alamo, Buckeye, Groul Floor, Manhattan, Borealis and Buffalo.

All pumping rigs, derricks and pipe line equipments were destroyed. Extensive losses were sustained by owners of drilling rigs, among whom were H. B. Ford, Cartwright Oil company, John Markham and J. W. Ennis. Mr. Ennis estimates his loss at $15,000 and others at from $1,000 to $4,000.

The Texas, Sun, London Oil and Pipe Line, Guffey, Higgins and other companies lost heavily through damage to their lines. The Heywood tract was saved only after hard work.

International Kindergarten Union. Pittsburgh, April 16.—An address of welcome, delivered by Mrs. William A. Herron, of Pittsburgh, opened the tenth annual meeting of the International Kindergarten union. The principal speakers were Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of education, Pennsylvania; Dr. William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education, and Mrs. Alice H. Putnam, of Chicago, president of the union. William N. Frew, president of the board of trustees of Carnegie Institute, also made a short address.

Deaths of Prophets. Battle Creek, Mich., April 16.—Mrs. Ellen G. White, a prophetess of recognized standing among the Seventh Day Adventists, has decreed that the Review and Herald publishing office recently destroyed by fire must not be rebuilt here. Negro Murderer Hanged. Michigan City, Ind., April 16.—At 12:07 this morning Matthew Alexander, a negro, was hanged in the Indiana penitentiary for the murder of George Burke at Terre Haute last September. Don't fool with a cold; no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Government Organizing Another Movement—Cholera Attacks Troops. Farms Being Restocked.

Manila, April 16.—The campaign against the bandits in the province of Albay has proved unsuccessful, the leader of the Ladrones, named Toledo, evading a fight with the American forces. The concentration system in Central Albay is still effective.

Cholera has attacked Captain Pershing's troops, who are operating against the Moros in the island of Mindanao. Five cases are reported. It is supposed the disease was contracted near Bacoed, which Captain Pershing's force captured April 8. The sick have been sent to the hospital at Camp Vicars.

Delightful Easter Party.—Miss Eva Riley delightfully entertained the members of the Young Ladies' Tuesday Evening club at her home in Chester on Tuesday evening. The hostess proved herself both able and artistic. It was evident from the decorations, prizes and dainty refreshments that an Easter party was the form of entertainment. ### NO INDICTMENT AGAINST REDMON

The Alleged Hold-Up Man Now Free from Jail—No Witness Appeared.

"Red Nose" Redmon is a free man. He was arrested about three months ago and remanded from the city jail to the county bastille on a charge of assaulting and holding up Van Rigidon in broad daylight near the corner of Second and Market streets. His case was presented to the grand jury and, owing to the non-appearance of the prosecuting witness, Rigidon, he was discharged, it being impossible to find an indictment.

Prosecutor Brookes and Mayor Davidson are highly indignant over the manner in which Rigidon has acted in regard to the case. After he was assaulted and robbed he appeared at the mayor's office and was exceedingly anxious to have the man who had committed the daring deed prosecuted. He swore in the mayor's presence that Redmon, a notorious local character, had done the work and stated that he would be glad to appear against him at Lisbon. With the assurance that the case was a good one, Mayor Davidson, always making that an objective point before allowing a man to be sent from his court to Lisbon, his honor had him committed to jail, and the other day when the subpoena was received by Constable Powell, and he went on a fruitless hunt for Rigidon. Over the indifference on the part of Rigidon there is much complaint, and legal steps may be taken to bring him to time.

A GREAT OIL GUSHER IN KNOXVILLE FIELD

Freudenberger & Sinclair Have a Well Thought to Be Good For 300 Barrels Daily.

Freudenberger & Sinclair, oil operators, have drilled six wells in the Knoxville field and every one is a good producer. No. 6, which was drilled a foot in the sand Tuesday afternoon, immediately commenced to flow at the rate of seven barrels an hour and yesterday, while the well was being drilled in, was flowing 300 barrels a day. When the well is completed and shot the production is variously estimated at from 300 to 500 barrels a day.

This well is located on the John Cooper farm in the Knoxville oil field and makes the Cable, Cooper heirs, Myers, Cooper Brothers, Mackey and Freudenberger & Sinclair leasees gild edged. The big gusher is now in the center of the local field and being by far the best well yet struck will cause renewed activity in the drilling operations. No. 6 is about 700 feet southeast of No. 5 and nearly 1,000 feet southeast of No. 3, the big 100-barrel well owned by Freudenberger & Sinclair.

DAMAGE SUIT BEING TRIED AGAIN

Case of Mrs. Bettridge Versus the City of East Liverpool Being Heard at Lisbon.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special)—A number of witnesses are here to testify in the $10,000 damage suit of Nancy Betteridge against the city of East Liverpool, which came up for hearing this afternoon. Judgment for $1,200 for the plaintiff given at a former trial was set aside by the court and a motion sustained for a new trial. The plaintiff says she was injured in January, 1902, by falling into an opening in a sewer near the Horn switch and the Dresden pottery. The opening was 24 inches deep and it is in the street several feet from the sidewalk. The accident occurred at noon, it is said, when the plaintiff, on her way home from work, stopped to talk with some friends, stepped backward and fell into the opening. The city's attorneys set up that the opening in the sewer is a necessary and proper one and that the woman should have remained on the sidewalk. They further allege that she was careless and negligent in walking backward in the daylight with the defect plainly open to view.

SERIOUS RIOT AT CLEVELAND.

Union Men Board Steamer and Attack and Terribly Beat Non-Union Firemen.

Cleveland, April 16.—Fifty striking union firemen, armed with knives and clubs, boarded the steamer Howa-1 L. Shaw when she arrived in the harbor from Duluth and attacked and terribly pounded three non-union firemen employed on the vessel.

A riot call was turned in, but the attacking party escaped.

The names of the injured are: Adolph Pearo, Gladstone, Mich.; George T. Smith, Duluth, and Walter Sigler, Duluth.

Restrictions Modified.

Chicago, April 16.—No one need hereafter fear that should he die in a strange country of a contagious disease the railroads will refuse to transport his remains to the land of his birth. At a conference between representatives of the state health boards, of the National Funeral association and of general baggage agents it was decided that the present restrictions with regard to the transportation of dead bodies should be less strictly observed. The improvement in the method of preparing the bodies for burial and the prevailing scientific use of disinfectants are the cause of a movement, one result of which was the conference.

A free reserved ticket given to the "Oliver Cromwell" entertainment with each man's suit at $8.00 or over, at THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.
